POETRY

ROVER'S SONG.

I'm afloat! I'm afloat on the fierce rolling tide
The Ocean's my home! and my bark is my bride!
Up—up with my flag! let it wave o'er the sea!
I'm afloat! I'm afloat! and the Rover is free!

I fear not the monarch; I heed not the law;
I've a compass to steer by—a dagger to draw;
And ne'er as a coward or slave will I kneel,
While my guns carry shot, or my belt bears a steel!

Quick—quick—trim her sails; let her sheets kiss the wind,
And I warrant we'll soon leave the sea-gull behind;
Up—up with my flag! let it wave o'er the sea!
I'm afloat! I'm afloat! and the Rover is free!

The night gathers o'er us; the thunder is heard;
What matter? our vessel skims on like a bird!
What to her is the dash of the storm ridden main?
She has braved it before, and shall brave it again!

The fire gleaming flashes around us may fall;
They may strike; they may cleave; but they cannot appal:
With lightnings above us, and darkness below,
Through the wild waste of waters right on ward we go.

Hurrah! my brave crew! ye may drink; ye may sleep;
The storm fiend is hush'd; we're alone on the deep;
Our flag of defence still waves o'er the sea;
Hurrah, boys! hurrah, boys! the Rover is free!

THE DEAD TWINS.

'Twas Summer, and a Sabbath eve,
And balmy was the air,
I saw a sight that made me grieve
And yet the sight was fair,
Within a little coffin lay,
Two lifeless Babes as sweet as May.

Like waxen dolls, that infants dress,
The little bodies were;
A look of placid happiness
Did on each face appear;
And in the coffin short and wide,
They lay together, side by side.

A rose-bud, nearly closed, I found
Each little hand within,
And many a Pink was strew'd around,
With sprigs of Jessamine;
And yet the flowers that round them lay
Were not to me more sweet than they.

Their mother as a lily pale,
Sat by them on a bed,
And, bending o'er them, told her tale
And many a tear she shed;
Yet oft she cried amidst her pain
My babes and I shall meet again.

TO BE RENTED

For one or more years, that large and commodious

BRICK TAVERN,

and its appurtenances, well known by the name of the situate in the town of Easton, on the Eastern Shore of Maryland, at present, and for some years past, occupied by Mr. Solomon Lowe. This establishment is universally admitted to be the largest and most convenient for a Public House, of any on the Peninsula, and to a man well calculated to conduct it, an opportunity will be offered for doing a very extensive and profitable business, more especially if he has a sufficient capital to carry it on advantageously.

Easton is known as a town of considerable trade, and the Steam Boat Maryland, which plies twice a week between Baltimore, Annapolis, and this place, considerably increases the business, and of course adds very much to the value of this establishment, by the constant intercourse of travellers from the different counties on the Western and Eastern shores, and elsewhere with these places.

Possession will be given on the first day of January next. Persons wishing to rent are invited to come and view the premises. The terms, which will be moderate, will be made known by application to the subscriber.

Two Hundred Dollars Reward.

Runaway from the subscriber, living on Goose Creek, near New Market, Dorchester county, Eastern Shore of Maryland, on Monday, 8th of February last, negro about 5 feet 8 or 9 inches high, of a dark chesnut color and rather a fierce look, with small whiskers near his chin. He is a little bow legged, yet straight built, and has on his breast below his neck a King's Evil, or lump, nearly as large as a hen's egg. His clothes are a drab flushing over jacket, trowsers of new blue Kersey, with a fur or hair cap (not his own.) his shoes recently half soled, with sparrow bills in the bottoms. The above described man is about 21 years old.

WESLEY,

One hundred dollars will be given for his apprehension, if taken in this or any of the adjoining counties; and the above reward if taken out of the State and secured so that I get him again.

He was seen in the neighborhood of Cambridge on Thursday previous to his departure. He passes himself off as a sailor.

THE LADY'S BOOK.

OR

Philadelphia Monthly Magazine.

Several Ladies of the highest Literary standing in the Country, have complied with the terms offered by the Publisher, and their contributions will appear in succeeding Numbers, commencing with Vol. 14.

This popular periodical has now completed the sixth year and twelfth volume of publication and still continues, as at first, the most popular work of its class.

The publisher is grateful for the patronage extended to him, and will endeavour by unremitted exertions, to merit it. The Lady's Book was the first publication that attempted to give correct coloured representations of the Philadelphia Fashions. The work, as stated above, has now been published for six years, and the proprietor asks a careful examination of it from the many that have been subscribers from the commencement; and their candid judgment, whether it has not been constantly improving, from volume to volume. He may with safety say, that the engravings, which adorn each number, are such as would be creditable to the same class of periodicals in England. The Fashions are superior to all but one those in the Court Magazine, and equal to them. If the subscription shall still continue to increase, greater exertions will be made. The promises made in the commencement of the year have by far been exceeded—and this is a fact that few periodicals can boast of—the promises made in advertisements, in general, far exceeding the performance.

MANNER OF EMBELLISHING.

January. March. May. July. September. November. COLOURED ENGRAVINGS of Philadelphia Fashions.

February. April. June. August. October. December. STEEL ENGRAVINGS of different subjects.

Each number also contains either two Views, or two Heads from the Portrait Gallery—Embroidery—Fac Similes—Music—forty eight pages of reading, and other matter, so varied as to require more space than can be spared to mention them.

The price is $3 per annum, or two copies for $5—in all cases payable in advance.

TO THE PUBLIC.

The subscriber has been informed that there is a report in circulation stating that he has disposed of his possessions on the Choptank, and ceased to keep the Cambridge Ferry. This report was undoubtedly gotten up by some malicious individual with a view of injuring the subscriber, and, if suffered to remain uncontroverted, the aim of its originator would certainly be attained. The subscriber, therefore, takes this method of informing his friends and the public, that there is not the slightest foundation in truth for the above mentioned report; but that, on the contrary, he still keeps the Cambridge Ferry, and expects so to do the remainder of his days. His boats are substantial, safe and in good order, and are under the management of as prompt, active, trusty and experienced hands as those belonging to any boat that has hitherto been, or may hereafter be, stationed on the above named ferry, while he keeps, as usual, good horses and carriages for the accommodation of travellers. He has signals on both sides of the river, which his boat will always answer with the utmost despatch, so that no one shall be kept waiting longer than shall be absolutely necessary.

The subscriber returns his thanks to his friends and the public for the very liberal patronage which he has heretofore received from them; and, as his long experience in the business, and his determination to use his best efforts to please, induce him to hope that he will give general satisfaction, he respectfully solicits a continuance of their favor.

EVERY BODY'S ALBUM:

A MONTHLY MAGAZINE OF

Humorous Tales, Essays, Anecdote and Facetiæ,

EMBELLISHED WITH NUMEROUS

Grotesque & Amusing Engravings

Each number comprising seventy two large octave pages, neatly covered and stitched—making at the end of the year two volumes of eight hundred and sixty four pages and at least six hundred Engravings, with Titles and Index complete—at Three Dollars per annum.

The cheerful & pleasing feature with which it is proposed to diversify and distinguish this work has never yet been adopted by any one of the numerous literary caterers that have hitherto abounded in this country—and its extensive novelty and the vast fund of humour & variety which will be interspersed throughout its pages, is calculated to render it a desirable and popular companion for the amusement of all classes who desire to possess an epitome of the works of celebrated Modern Humorists, Etchers, and Engravers. The encouragement generally given to new undertakings, having a salutary object in view, has proved a decided public advantage, and it is questionable whether any other age has ever brought into active use so large a proportion of the really deserving offsprings of genius and talent as the present. Assured that this periodical affording, as it will, an elaborate and comprehensive collection of facetiæ illustrations, Satirical Essays in prose and verse, witty Tales, with Quips, Quirks, Anecdote, and Facetiæ, must have a partial tendency (among its patrons at least) to divert into another and more exhilirating channel much of the oppressive action of the mind, consequent upon the cares and vexations of business, the publisher anticipates for it a most flattering and extensive subscription list. The work, at all events, will be commenced on the first of July, and continued for one year, therefore every subscriber will be certain of receiving all the numbers for which he has paid. When the twelve numbers are completed and made up into two volumes, they will form one of the most desirable and amusing records of Wit & Humour which can be found in print. Let the public assist the publisher with their patronage, and he assures them he will leave nothing undone that will give celebrity and popularity to his work.

☞ The "Every Body's Album" will be published monthly, in numbers of 72 pages, with a variety of embellishments—neatly stiched in colored covers—printed with new type, and on fine white paper, at three dollars per annum, payable in advance. Two copies will be supplied to order, for one year for five dollars. ☞ When sent to a distance from the city, the work will be packed in strong wrappers, to prevent the least rubbing by the mails. ☞ Notes of solvent banks of every description taken in payment of subscriptions. 26,000 SUBSCRIBERS!

PHILADELPHIA MIRROR.

THE splendid patronage awarded to the Philadelphia Saturday Courier, induces the editors to commence the publication, under the above title, of a quarto edition of their popular journal, so long known as the largest Family Newspaper in the United States, with a list of near Twenty Six Thousand Subscribers. The new feature recently introduced of furnishing their readers with new books of the best literature of the day, having proved so eminently successful, the plan will be continued. Six volumes of the celebrated writings of Captain Marryatt, and sixty-five of Mr. Brook's valuable Letters from Europe, have already been published without interfering with its news and miscellaneous reading.—The Courier is the largest and cheapest family newspaper ever issued in this country, containing articles in Literature, Science, and Arts; Internal improvement; Agriculture, in short every variety of topics usually introduced into a public journal. Giving full accounts of sales, markets, and news of the latest dates.

It is published at the low price of $2. For this small sum subscribers get valuable and entertaining matter, each week enough to fill a common book of 200 pages, and equal to 52 volumes a year, and which is estimated to be read, weekly, by at least two hundred thousand people, scattered in all parts of the country, from Maine to Florida, and from the sea board to the lakes. The paper has been now so long established as to render it too well known to require an extended prospectus, the publishers, therefore, will do no more than refer to the two leading daily political papers of opposite politics. The Pennsylvanian says—'The Saturday Courier is the largest, and one of the best family newspapers in the Union; the other, the Inquirer and Daily Courier, says, 'it is the largest journal published in Philadelphia, and one of the very best in the United States.' The New York Star says—'we know of nothing more liberal on the part of the editors, and no means more efficacious to draw out the dormant talents of our country, than their unexampled liberality in offering literary prizes.

The Albany Mercury of March 16th, 1836 says, 'the Saturday Courier, is decidedly the best Family Newspaper ever published in this or any other country, and its value is duly appreciated by the public, if we may judge from its vast circulation, which exceeds 25,000 per week! Its contents are agreeably varied, and each number contains more really valuable reading matter than is published in a week in any daily paper in the Union—its mammoth dimensions enable its enterprising proprietors, Messrs. Woodward & Clarke, of Philadelphia, to re publish in its columns, in the course of a year, several of the most interesting new works that issue from the British press; which cannot fail to give to it a permanent interest, and render it worthy of preservation. To meet the wishes, therefore, of such of their subscribers as desire to have their numbers bound, they have determined on issuing an edition of the Courier in the quarto form, which will render it much more convenient for reading when it is bound in a volume, and has greatly enhance its value.'

THE QUARTO EDITION

Under the title of the Philadelphia Mirror, will commence with the publication of the Prize Tale, to which was awarded the prize of $100, written by Miss Leslie, editor of the splendid Annual the Token, and author of Pencil Sketches and other valuable contributions to American Literature. A large number of songs, poems, tales, &c. offered in competition for the $500 premiums, will add value and interest to the succeeding numbers, which will also be enriched by a story from Miss Sedgewick, author of Hope Leslie, The Linwoods, &c., whose talents have been so justly and extensively appreciated, both at home and abroad.

This approved Family Newspaper is strictly neutral in religious and political matters, and the uncompromising opponent of quackery of every kind

MAPS.

In addition to all of which the publishers intended furnishing their patrons with a rise States of the Union, &c. exhibiting the situation, &c of rivers, towns, mountains, lakes the sea board, internal improvements, as displayed in canals, rail roads, &c., with other interesting and useful features, roads, distances, &c. forming a complete Atlas for general use and information, handsomely executed, and each distinct map on a large quarto sheet, at an expense which nothing but the splendid patronage which for six years past has been so generously extended to them, could warrant.

TERMS.

The Philadelphia Saturday Courier is still continued in its large form, at the same price as heretofore. The Philadelphia Mirror being a quarto edition of the Saturday Courier, with its increased attractions, and printed on the best fine white paper of the same size as the New York Albion will be put at precisely one half the price of that valuable journal, viz: Three Dollars per annum payable in advance, (including the Maps.)
