all be, yet no obligations are assumed, no act is formed. And yet there are those who see that such declarations of attachment are an obligation on their friend, which not be resisted or violated. The gentle- whose province it always is first to make disclosures, consider that when he has this, he has secured by right his object. not so. The lady may be wholly unpre- for such an event.—Such a disclosure be made before she has made the neces- inquiries and investigations herself.— a declaration may be made when she had suspicion of any attachment existing, and her own engagements and circumstan- do not admit of her entertaining such pro- for a moment. It is true, such a dis- on the part of the gentleman, imposes certain duties on the female. If her circum- ances are such as render an engagement im- sible, she is bound by every principle to quaint him immediately with the fact, and the transaction a secret. If her circum- ces are such as to render it proper for her enter into a matrimonial engagement, it is per then, that she makes his proposals a tter of immediate and serious consideration. she is satisfied with his character, and en- tains such an affection for him as will ren- r a union with him happy, she has nothing ft to do but to make known to him, in a odest and affectionate manner, her acceptance his proposals. But if after due considera- on and inquiry and deliberation, she is con- ducted to a contrary conclusion, she should ose no time in informing him of the fact, in a ay least likely to wound his sensibilities, or ortify his pride. She will consider it too, oth a dictate of modesty and prudence and onor, to disclose the circumstance to no living eing.

5. A matrimonial engagement then, is when the parties, having made mutual disclo- ures of affection for each other, in view of such disclosure, bind themselves by promises to become each other's wedded companion for life. There must be a contract formed, in which the parties pledge themselves to each other for life, or there can be no matrimonial engagement. Nothing short of this can be ac- counted a betrothment, and nothing more is necessary to its perfection."

Monsieur Tonson come again!—'Plain Man' is out again—'Ye Gods and little fishes'—stand aside,—Orthography, Etymology, Syntax and Prosody—Pray Whigs take no notice of him; let him rave and storm, and abuse the "God dam Fedelists and dam Negurs," even at Camp meetings.

The examination of the pupils of the Easton Academy took place on the 18th and 19th instant. The scholars acquitted themselves in a manner highly creditable to themselves and their Teachers. We were truly happy to see that the higher department, which has dwindled for some years, is again flourishing under the charge of the present excellent classical preceptor, Mr. Shanley,

Mr. Kendall, it is announced, has left the city for the benefit of his health.—Who officiates in his absence?—National Intelligencer.

Kentucky Elections—So far as received results as follows—for Governor, Clark, (Whig) 9100—Flourney, (V. B.) 5523.

North Carolina Elections—The election returns so far, have gained the Whigs NINE membrrs in the House.

Indiana Elections.—So far as heard from the Whigs have gained largely since last year's election.

ANNAPOLIS, Aug. 13th, 1836.

GEORGE WELLS, Esq. of this place, has been elected President of the Farmers' Bank of Maryland, in the place of H. H. Harwood, Esq. who, in consequence of severe indisposition, has resigned.

KENTUCKY.—The Louisville Advertiser admits that Judge Clark's majority will probably be 20,000, although it contends that he has outrun the strength of his party, and that Van Buren will get the vote of the State. We never attempt to account for the reasoning of the Van Buren papers.

ALLEGANY COUNTY.—The Cumberland Cevilian says that the Van Burenites are already disposed to waive all hopes of success at the Senatorial election in that county. The Van Buren elector, Mr. Dilly, has declined. In Frederick and Alleghany, the Van Buren cause appears to be desperate.

For the Easton Gazette.

Mr. Graham,—

There has lately sprung up, in the lower part of the county, an insidious mushroon politician, a certain Dr. Weasel, (an ominous name by the bye) who has a great "itching for scribbling," and who has been attempting to enlighten the good people of the county with his lucubrations through the columns of the Whig, alias Common Sewer.

His first effort was on Banking and Bills of Exchange—his next, on Primary Schools—then, on the duties of the Treasurer of the Eastern Shore—the last, on the Finances of the State. But, Sir, on none of which did he even "scratch himself genteely," for never did any man discover grosser ignorance than he did, on every subject on which he scribbled, as has been manifestly shown when it was thought worthy of reply. The fact is, he scribbled on subjects that he never knew any thing about, (Ne Sutor ultra crepidam—Dr. stick to your galley pots) and, therefore, it is not surprising that he should make himself ridiculous, and endeavor to keep incog But he has been ferretted out of his filthy hole, and some of his famous acts and deeds will be exposed, when more at leisure—for

"Had we the freedom to express our mind, There's not a wretch so much to vice inclined."

EASTONIAN.

We learn from the National Gazette that Mr. Walsh no longer has any interest in that paper, the co-partnership between him and the publisher having terminated on the first of July.

THE GIANT AND THE DWARF.—The Louisiana Advertiser says:—Mr. Van Buren promises his friends that if elected, he will tread in the footsteps of Gen. Jackson—Ridiculous! The General wears seven-leagued boots and leaves the print of a giant!—Van Buren is a clever puss in boots, who leaves only the suspicion of a track.

It appears that the explosion in Castle Garden noticed in our last, was merely the blowing up of some rockets in a laboratory The Castle and its magazine were not in any danger.

More Gold.—The packet ship Europe, at New York, from Liverpool, has on board 130,000 in gold, consigned to Brown, Brothers & Co.

The Electoral Colleges will meet to vote for President and Vice President on Wednesday the 7th day of December, 1836, the Electors meeting at the capitals of the several States in which they are chosen. The choice of Electors must be within thirty four days previous to the said first Wednesday of December.

From the U. S. Telegraph.

ARRIVAL OF SNOW—This notorious negro, who so narrowly escaped being lynched here last fall, returned last evening. As soon as it was known that he was in the city, a company of some two or three hundred persons collected for the purpose of administering Judge Lynch's prescription to him. Snow, however, made a timely escape to the jail where he is now safely locked up.

Destruction of Cape Florida Light House.—Captain Joye, at Charleston from Havana, reports that 'the schooner Whale arrived at Havana 29th ult. by which vessel the American Consul at that place had ascertained that the Light House at Cape Florida was burned by the Indians, a notice of which he published at Havana. Capt. J. was also informed by the captain of the Whale, that a negro was killed at the Ligh House by the Indians, and the keeper made a most mirsculous escape by ascending the light house and holding on the lightning rod while the building was burning, the Indians firing at him while in that position, and wounding him in the foot. A Revenue cutter hove in sight at the time, when the Indians made off, and he escaped with his life

The temperance cause in England has found an able champion in the Duke of Wellington. As Colonel of the Grenadier Guards, he has issued a rigimental order, expressing his opinion of the great advantages which might arise from the general formation of Temperance Societies among the troops. He intimates pretty strongly that those who are disabled from the services by intemperance, may expect little or no assistance from the government.

FROM TEXAS.

Grand Gulf, (Miss.) July 21.

We learn generally that the Mexicans, to the number of 12 to 15 thousand, are on their way to Texas, by land and water. It is stated, on good authority, that the Mexican soldiery are sworn to exterminate all Americans, or never to return. The latter we think it most probable they will do. But this oath speaks very little regard for Santa Anna and his officers, in the power of the Texans. We perceive that Gov. Fulton, of Arkansas, has called out a thousand militia, for an object of which we are not yet informed but, perhaps, contingently connected with Texian troubles.

We are informed by a gentleman who left Nachitoches last Saturday, July 16th, that the tide of emigration towards Texas is immense; the whole country is swarming with men. General Houston has not yet joined the army; and Major Genral Lamar remains commander-in chief. The tug of war is yet to come, and we anxiously await the result.

New Orleans. July 30.—Texas.—A rumor came through the Attakapas Gazette, of July 23, that another battle had been fought between the Mexican and Texan armies, in which seven or eight hundred of the Mexicans were killed We attach no credit to this rumor, much as we hope it might be true. The intelligence comes through a very circuitous route, and at the time it must have started to reach this city, the forces of the belligerants could not have been in a proper distance for an encounter. But that the Mexican powers are again straining every nerve to rise another army to prosecute their savage intents upon Texas, there can be no doubt, though their final success in the undertaking may be quite problematical.

The U. S. schooner Grampus and sloop of war Warren have returned to Pensacola from Tampico. They bring intelligence that the Mexican government is in a very troubled state, although the excitement against our citizens, growing out of the Texan revolution, had greatly abated. In the absence of Santa Anna, the republic has no efficient head. It seems to be no easy matter to determine who, among the subordinates of this modern Alexander, is 'the most worthy' A strong party has lately risen up there, also, in favour of the old federal government and against the centralism of Santa Anna and his party.—A considerable portion of the new levies assembled to march against the Texans, were carried to Matamoras in chains! and the diseases of the climate having broken out among them, great numbers have died—Balt. Amer.

GEN. HARRISON AND SIMON SNIDER.—Among the innumerable testimonies borne by Congress, the State Legislatures, Municipal Corporations, Statesmen, Heroes and Patriots, to the gallantry and consumate prowess of the glorious Harrison, at the Victory of Thames, the following extract from Gov. Snider's Message to the Legislature of Pennsylvania, Dec. 10, 1813, will not prove least acceptable to Pennsylvania. See Duane's weekly Aurora, of Dec. 21st, 1813, page 270:—

The blessings' said Simon Snider, 'of thousands of women and children rescued from the scalping knife of the ruthless Savages of the wilderness, and from the still more Savage Proctor. ☞Rest on Harrison and his gallant army."!!!

CHEAP LITERATURE.

A LIBERAL OFFER.

That it may be within the means of every person who wishes to subscribe to an amusing and useful journal of news, and have it carefully and regularly forwarded to them by mail, or otherwise, we shall from the present time until the first of next January, receive orders for ten copies of the Salmagundi, and News of the Day, at the rate of one dollar per annum for each subscription—that is, any person forwarding us a Ten Dollar Note, free of postage, will be furnished with ten of our papers for a whole year, to be forwarded to any direction designated. The subscription price for a single name is Two Dollars. We make this offer, believing, as the pecuniary expense will be trifling, that all who have the inclination to become acquainted with the character of a journal which has made such rapid progress in public estimation as this has, will take advantage of the proposition at once, and enroll their names on the lists of its numerous patrons It cannot be doubted that those who subscribe will receive the worth of their dollar, when we assure the public that each number contains, independent of its various amusing Engravings, as much reading matter as many of the popular volumes which are sold in our bookstores at double the rates that we ask for a whole year's subscription.

The Salmagundi already circulates through every post office in this country, and continues to multiply. It furnishes its patrons with the leading features of the News, and a humorous compilation of lively and pungent sallies which are floating along the tide of Literature. The Salmagundi is printed on large imperial paper, equal in size and quality to that which is used by the largest and best journals of the day. It is calculated that more than will be furnished in this journal in one year—these, in addition to a choice selection of Satire, Criticism and Wit, contained in its columns, will form a literary banquet of a superior and attractive order. ☞Clubs of Four will be supplied with the paper for one year, from the commencement, by forwarding a five dollar note, postage paid.

PREMIUMS—The publisher, prompted by the unexampled and unexpected patronage which this paper has received, offers the following premiums:—

For the best Original Comic Tale, Fifty Dollars—for the best Original Comic Song, Twenty Five Dollars—for the best collection of Original Anecdotes, Jests, &c. not less than Fifty in number, Twenty Five Dollars—for the best Original Comic Design, Sketch, or Drawing, Twenty Five Dollars; for the second best, Fifteen Dollars; and for the third best, Ten Dollars.

Persons entering as competitors, may or may not forward their names, agreeably to their own wishes. The premiums will be awarded by competent judges. All communications on the subject must be addressed to the publisher, prior to the first of September, 1836, postage paid.

A post master's certificate will be a satisfactory guarantee of a remittance. Negociable notes of every kind taken in payment of subscriptions.
