William S McCuiden & Wife
vs
John Diffenderffer

Court of Appeals
9 December 1831.

The Auditor reports that in obedience to the order of the Court he has prepared the annexing account between the defendant and the estate of Charles Rogers deceased, correcting the former account by allowing a commission of five instead of ten per cent, and compounding interest upon the yearly balances to this date. The sums due to the several representatives of the said Charles Rogers are above stated, which is respectfully submitted

Th S. Alexander Aud.
