December Term 1831.

Witness answers. He does, and have lived there four years, and rent free a part of the time, and the respondent has no other land except that on which he lives.

Commissioner met on Wednesday the 9th January pursuant to adjournment on Saturday and the same clerk, when the following witnesses were examined on the part of the complainant.

John T Baden being duly sworn answers as follows.

1st Interrogatory. Do you know the parties to the present suit?

Witness answers. I do, and have known them for several years.

2d Interrogatory. Do you know the lands sold by the complainant to the defendant? if so state what you may know of the contract between the parties, and what the land sold for per acre?

Witness answers. I heard Mr Watson the defendant say the was to pay eight dollars per acre for the land sold him by the complainant, and he thought he had got a good bargain.

Commissioner met on Saturday the 12th January pursuant to adjournmention Wednesday, when Francis T Dowell was appointed clerk in place of Wm Bozwell who was absent, when the commission was opened and the following witnesses were examined.

Philemon Chew being duly sworn on the part of the complainant.

Answers as in the exparte commission marked 5.

George A Ormd being duly sworn on the part of the complainant.

Answers as in exparte commission marked 6.

James Baden being duly sworn on the part of the complainant.

Answers as in exparte commission marked 7.

Hugh Perrie being duly sworn on the part of the complainant

Answers as in the exparte commission marked 8.

Josias Young being duly sworn on the part of the complainant.

Answers as in the exparte commission marked 9.

William H Turton being duly sworn on the part of the complainant.

Answers as in the exparte commission

John T Baden being duly sworn answers as follows.

1st Interrogatory. Do you know Leonard Watson, Philip C Watson, William C Watson, and Leonard B Watson? if so, state what is their general character in their neighbourhood for veracity?

Witness answers. I know them, and have no other reason to believe but that they are men of veracity, but have heard some of his (Leonard Watsons) neighbours say he was a bad man

2d Interrogatory. Do you know Philip C Watson, William C Watson and Leonard B Watson? if so state from your knowledge of them and their general repute in the neighbourhood, whether you would believe them on oath, when their interest were in any manner concerned.

December Term 1831.

Witness answers. I cannot answer the general question, but as it regards Philip C Watson, I once warranted him, and he brought in an account in bar for money paid me, when he did not owe me that amount at the time he stated to have paid it to me, and swore to the account before Mr Josias Young, which I believe was incorrect.

James Baden being duly sworn answers as follows.

1st Interrogatory. Do you know Philip C Watson, William C Watson and Leonard B Watson? if so state from your knowledge of them and their general repute in the neighbourhood whether you would believe them on oath, when their interest were in any manner concerned?

Witness answers. I know them, and have heard Mr Perrie speak disrespectfully of Leonard Watson, but I think them men of veracity.

Henry Crompton being duly sworn, answers as follows.

1st Interrogatory. Do you know the parties to this suit?

Witness answers. I know them.

2d Interrogatory. Are there any land in dispute between you and Mr Watson the defendant in this case?

Witness answers. I know of none, I claim to a branch, and Mr Watson has always acquiesced in it, and has told me that Mr Wendell told him that he had better agree to let the branch be the boundary between us. There is a good deal of land laying uninclosed between Mr Watson and myself, say between thirty and forty acres.

3d Interrogatory. Do you know William C Watson, Philip C Watson and Leonard B Watson? if so state whether from their general repute, you would believe them on oath in any question in which they were either directly or indirectly interested?

Witness answers. From what I have understood from some of their neighbours who are men in whom I do place implicit confidence, I would not believe them on oath, in any case where they were interested.

Philemon Chew being duly sworn answers as follows.

1st Interrogatory. Do you know Leonard Watson, Philip C Watson, William C Watson and Leonard B Watson, if so state what is their general character in the neighbourhood for veracity?

Witness answers. I do know them, and have heard some of their neighbours speak unfavorably of them.

William H Turton being duly sworn answers as follows.

1st Interrogatory. Do you know the parties to the present suit?

Witness answers. He does

2nd Interrogatory. Do you know any thing about the sale of the land now in dispute, between the complainant and defendant? Do you know at what price the same sold for?

Witness answers. All he knows about it is from what the defendant