John T. Hoxton & Wife Lefevre vs John Archer and others.	Harford County Court March Term 1830. Ejectment - It is agreed in this case that Nathaniel Giles died seized of the tract of land for which this suit is brought sometime in the year 1775, having first made his will legally executed to pass real estate and which will is as follows "I Nathaniel Giles of Harford county, in the Province of Maryland being weak in body, but of sound mind and memory do make and ordain this my last will and testament in manner and form following to wit: First, I give and bequeath unto my beloved friend Tobitha Richardson twenty five pounds common money. Item. I give and bequeath unto my beloved friend Sarah Coale fifteen pounds common money. Item, I give and bequeath the whole of my estate both real and personal unto my five daughters by the names of Hannah, Sarah, Elizabeth, Caroline and Charlotte, to them and their heirs forever, to be equally divided among them, and it is my will that if either of the said children die without issue lawfully begotten of their body in that case the part of the said child be equally divided among my surviving daughters. I do hereby make null and void all wills made by me heretofore, and it is my will and desire that my dearly beloved sister Sarah Rigbie do take my children home to her house, and bring them up as her own, and that she be rewarded out of my estate for so doing. And I do hereby nominate and appoint my brothers William Hammond and Nathaniel Rigbie and my friend Thomas Andrews joint executors to this my will. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this eighth day of May in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and seventy five.
