DIED

At his residence, Myrtle Grove, on Wednesday 5th inst. at 3 o'clock, P. M. after an illness of a week, the Honorable ROBERT H GOLDSBOROUGH, U. S S. in the 58th year of his age.

The death of this distinguished gentleman has thrown a gloom over the community, of which he has been long the brilliant ornament In all the relations of life, he has borne his part, in a manner suited to the duties they imposed. As a politician, he was ever remarkable for the firmness and perseverance, with which he adhered to that cause which he believed, sustained by the best interests of his country—So long has he been distinguished in the cause of public life, that the short limits allowed to an obituary notice, will not afford a full exposition of his labors or of his services. It must suffice for the present to say, that whatever course his duty to his country indicated, he never faltered zealously to pursue it—Respectful to his opponents, faithful to his friends, and uncompromising in his principles—As a husband, father, friend, and master, eulogy is idle. It is enough to say that all these duties, these varied relations required, were faithfully discharged. The friend whose feelings throw out these hasty expressions, loved him living, and now laments him dead.

In this town, on Wednesday last, Lambert W. Spencer, Esq Postmaster of this place.

In this county, on Wednesday last, Miss Matilda Martin.

At Easton Point, on Thursday last, Mrs Mary Leonard

EVERY BODY'S ALBUM:

A MONTHLY MAGAZINE OF

Humorous Tales, Essays, Anecdote and Facetiæ.

EMBELLISHED WITH NUMEROUS

Grotesque & Amusing Engravings

Each number comprising seventy two large octavo pages, neatly covered and stitched—making at the end of the year two volumes of eight hundred and sixty four pages and at least six hundred Engravings, with Titles and Index complete—at Three Dollars per annum.

The cheerful & pleasing feature with which it is proposed to diversify and distinguish this work has never yet been adopted by any one of the numerous literary caterers that have hitherto abounded in this country—and its extensive novelty and the vast fund of humour & variety which will be interspersed through out its pages, is calculated to render it a desirable and popular companion for the amusement of all classes who desire to possess a epitome of the works of celebrated Modern Humorists, Etchers, and Engravers. The encouragement generally given to new undertakings, having a salutary object in view, has proved a decided public advantage, and it is questionable whether any other age has ever brought into active use so large a proportion of the really deserving offsprings of genius and talent as the present Assured that this periodical affording, as it will, an elaborate and comprehensive collection of fanciful Illustrations, Satirical Essays in prose and verse witty Tales, with Quips, Quirks, Anecdote and Facetiæ, must have a partial tendency (among its patrons at least) to divert into another and more exhilirating channel much of the oppressive action of the mind, consequent upon the cares and vexations of business, the publisher anticipates for it a most flattering and extensive subscription list. The work, at all events, will be commenced on the first of July, and continued for one year, therefore every subscriber will be certain of receiving all the numbers for which he has paid. When the twelve numbers are completed and made up into two volumes, they will form one of the most desirable and amusing records of Wit & Humour which can be found in print. Let the public assist the publisher with their patronage, and he assures them he will leave nothing undone that will give celebrity and popularity to his work.

☞The "Every Body's Album" will be published monthly, in numbers of 72 pages, with a variety of embellishments—neatly stitched in colored covers—printed with new type, and on fine white paper, at three dollars per annum, payable in advance. Two copies will be supplied to order, for one year for five dollars. ☞When sent to a distance from the city, the work will be packed in strong wrappers, to prevent the least rubbing by the mails. ☞Notes of solvent banks of every description taken in payment of subscriptions Address the publisher (post paid)

CHEAP LITERATURE.

A LIBERAL OFFER.

That it may be within the means of every person who wishes to subscribe to an amusing and useful journal of news, and have it carefully and regularly forwarded to them by mail, or otherwise, we shall from the present time until the first of next January, receive orders for ten copies of the Salmagundi, and News of the Day, at the rate of one dollar per annum for each subscription—that is, any person forwarding us a Ten Dollar Note, free of postage, will be furnished with ten of our papers for a whole year, to be forwarded to any direction designated. The subscription price for a single name is Two Dollars. We make this offer, believing, as the pecuniary expense will be trifling, that all who have the inclination to become acquainted with the character of a journal which has made such rapid progress in public estimation as this has, will take advantage of the proposition at once, and enrol their names on the lists of its numerous patrons It cannot be doubted that those who subscribe will receive the worth of their dollar, when we assure the public that each number contains, independent of its various amusing Engravings, as much reading matter as many of the popular volumes which are sold in our bookstores at double the rates that we ask for a whole year's subscription.

The Salmagundi already circulates through every post office in this country, and continues to multiply. It furnishes its patrons with the leading features of the News, and a humorous compilation of lively and pungent sallies which are floating along the tide of Litterature. The Salmagundi is printed on large imperial paper, equal in size and quality to that which is used by the largest and best journals of the day It is calculated that more than will be furnished in this journal in one year—these, in addition to a choice selection of Satire, Criticism and Wit, contained in its columns, will form a literary banquet of a superior and attractive order. ☞Clubs of Four will be supplied with the paper for one year from the commencement, by forwarding a five dollar note, postage paid.

500 ENGRAVINGS

PREMIUMS—The publisher, prompted by the unexampled and unexpected patronage which this paper has received, offers the following premiums:—

For the best Original Comic Tale, Fifty Dollars—For the best Original Comic Song Twenty Five Dollars—For the best collection of Original Anecdotes, Jests &c. not less than Fifty in number, Twenty Five Dollars—For the best Original Comic Design, Sketch, or Drawing, Twenty Five Dollars; for the second best, Fifteen Dollars; and for the third best, Ten Dollars.

MARYLAND:

Talbot County Orphans' Court.

6th day of May, A. D. 1836.

On application of James M. Lambdin, administrator of Capt. John Farland, late of Talbot county, deceased—It is ordered, that he give the notice required by law for creditors to exhibit their claims against the said deceased's estate, and that he cause the same to be published once in each week for the space of three successive weeks, in one of the newspapers printed in the town of Easton, and also in one of the newspapers printed in the city of Baltimore.

In testimony that the foregoing is truly copied from the minutes of proceedings of Talbot county Orphans Court, I have hereunto set my hand, and the seal of my office affixed, this 6th day of May, in the year of our Lord eighteen hundred and thirty six.

THE LADY'S BOOK.

OR

Philadelphia Monthly Magazine.

Several Ladies of the highest Literary standing in the Country, have complied with the terms offered by the Publisher, and their contributions will appear in succeeding Numbers, commencing with Vol. 14.

This popular periodical has now completed the sixth year and twelfth volume of publication and still continues, as at first, the most popular work of its class.

The publisher is grateful for the patronage extended to him, and will endeavour by unremitted exertions, to merit it. The Lady's Book was the first publication that attempted to give correct coloured representations of the Philadelphia Fashions. The work, as stated above, has now been published for six years and the proprietor asks a careful examination of it from the many that have been subscribers from the commencement; and their candid judgment, whether it has not been constantly improving, from volume to volume. He may with safety say, that the engravings, which adorn each number, are such as would be creditable to the same class of periodicals in England. The Fashions are superior to all but those in the Court Magazine, and equal to them. If the subscription shall still continue to increase, greater exertions will be made. The promises made in the commencement of the year have by far been exceeded—and this is a fact that few periodicals can boast of—the promises made in advertisements, in general far exceeding the performance.

MANNER OF EMBELLISHING.

January March, May, July, September November, COLOURED ENGRAVINGS of Philadelphia Fashions.

February, April, June, August, October December, STEEL ENGRAVINGS of different subjects.

Each number also contains either two Views or two Heads from the Portrait Gallery—Embroidery—Fac Similes—Music—forty eight pages of reading, and other matter, so varied as to require more space than can be spared to mention them.

The price is $3 per annum, or two copies for $5—in all cases payable in advance.
