Maryland to wit

At a Court of Appeals of the State of Maryland, one of the United States of America begun and held for the Western Shore of the said State, at the City of Annapolis on the second Monday in June being the eleventh day of the said month, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty two, and in the fifty sixth year of the Independence of the said United States.

Present

The Honorable
John Buchanan Chief Judge
Richard Tilghman Earle
William Bond Martin
John Stephen
Stevenson Archer and
Thomas Beale Dorsey
Judges.

John Johnson Clerk

On application John H. M'Elfresh Esquire of Frederick county was admitted as an attorney of this Court, and thereupon repeats and signs a declaration of his belief in the Christian religion, and takes the several oaths required by law.

On application William J. Blackstone and Luke E. Barber Esquires of Saint Marys county were admitted as attornies of this Court, and thereupon they repeat and sign a declaration of their belief in the christian religion and take the several oaths required by law.

Ordered by the Court that no writ of habere facias possessionem will be issued by this court under the act of 1825 ch: 103, unless an affidavit be filed, stating that the debtor or some person holding under such debtor by title subsequent to the judgment or decree, hath on demand failed or refused to deliver possession of the lands sold, upon the filing of which affidavit with the Clerk, he shall lay a rule on the person in possession to shew cause within the four first days of the term succeeding the term to which the process of execution was returnable, why the writ of Habere facias possessionem should not issue, and should the said rule be served upon the party in possession twenty days before the first day of the term next succeeding the term to which the process of execution was returnable, and should no cause be shown within the said first four days of said succeeding term, the purchaser may take his writ as a matter of course, and no cause will be permitted to be shown after the lapse of the said four days.

On application Brantz Mayer Esquire of Baltimore was admitted as an attorney of this Court, and thereupon repeats and signs a declaration of his belief in the christian religion and takes the several oaths required by Law.