during the recess, again has been appointed by the President, in flagrant violation of the spirit of the constitution — The Post office department in a flourishing condition when received by Major Barry is bankrupted; and when public reprobation without party distinction, called for his removal, the President slowly and reluctantly consents to the step, but immediately on the rising of the Senate, appoints Major Barry to a foreign mission as a reward for his distinguished ability and fidelity, not to the department or his government, but to HIS PARTY.

These are some of the enormities of the present administration, hurriedly sketched, for their detail would fill a volume, instead of an editorial. But say the adherents of M. V. Buren, the present administration is done with, and it is idle to bring in its evil doings against the candidate of the "the party" By no means however—Martin Van Buren beside having been the author, instigator and adviser of all the abominations named, has moreover declared in his letter of acceptance of the Baltimore nomination, that it will be his pride and pleasure to conduct the government, if elected, on the principles of Gen. Jackson's administration. The people of this State, are therefore called upon, on the first Monday of November next, for a sentence of approval or condemnation of these principles. We cannot but believe that their independent voice will pronounce an indignant rebuke not to be mistaken by the supporters of such measures.

Gen SMITH, was elected on Monday last Mayor of the City of Baltimore. The votes stood—Smith, 5261— Small 4651—Smith's majority, 610.

THE LADY'S BOOK, for October, has been received. There is a pretty engraving of ADELAIDE, for frontispiece and other embellishments. The tales are numerous and interesting.

NEW JERSEY.—The election for members of the Legislature of this State, which, with that for Representatives to Congress, took place on Tuesday and Wednesday of this week, determines in that State (as appears by the following) the complexion also of her electoral college.—Nat Intel.

From the Newark Daily Advertiser.

ELECTORAL ELECTION—A DILEMA.—Our electoral vote in New Jersey this year will be in the hands of the Legislature. The act of Congress requires that the election of Electors in the several States shall take place within thirty four days of the meeting of the electoral colleges, which is fixed for the first Wednesday (7th this year) of December. The Legislature of this State by the act of the 31 December, 1807 (see Rev. Stat. p 534) requires that the election shall be held on the first Tuesday in November, which occurs this year on the first day of the month, being thirty six days from the meeting of the electoral college. The same difficulty occurred twenty years ago, when the responsibility devolved upon the Legislature.

The freemen of Maryland, at the election for Electors of President and Vice President, on the first Monday of November next, will vote by general ticket throughout the State. Every voter will have a right to vote for ALL THE ELECTORS. This being the first time when the vote will be thus made under the law, due care should be taken that it be universally understood throughout the State.

Annapolis Oct. 20th.

A paragraph has appeared in the Gazette of Baltimore stating that the disease which has for some two or three weeks prevailed in this city, is the Asiatic Cholera. We have taken occasion to enquire of our physicians, and are happy to state, that none of them believe that the disease is like that of Cholera. They all unite in opinion that the disease is congestive fever.—We are also happy to announce to our friends abroad, that the character of the disease is much mitigated. No death has occurred in our city since Sunday last; and there is at this time not a patient who is considered dangerously ill. The late frosts have checked the disease, and we have not since yesterday morning heard of any new case.—Gaz.

The correspondents of the New York Courier and Jurnal of Commerce state that letters have been received at Washington from the South, representing the condition of our troops as disastrous in the extreme from the aggravated disease of the climate. It is asserted that out of eight hundred regular troops at Suwanee, not more than fifty are fit for garrison duty, much less for active service. The brave Tennesseeans who marched to the aid of their suffering brethren in Florida have gone to Pensacola, having had one hundred and fifty on the sick list in their march through that sickly country. As soon as the healthy season arrives, we have no doubt that all the officers and men fit for vigorous action, will commence operations and in a few weeks capture and destroy all the Indians that are now concealed in the swamps and hammocks of those regions.

The recusant electors presented by the Grand Jury of Allegany County—We copy from the Cumberland Civilian Extra says, the Baltimore Cronicle of yesterday the following presentment, by the Grand Jury of Allegany county, of the eighteen recusant electors. We sincerely hope that the independent juries in every county of the State will make the same presentment, in such form as to lead to the severest punishment which the law awards to an offence so flagrant as a foul and iniquitous conspiracy against the peace and the very political existence of the State of Maryland. Let each county take up its own traitors and deal with them. Let them be indicted, at once, for a conspiracy—and let the heaviest vengeance of the law be visited upon them. Let them be brought before a jury of their country, and, our life upon it, the conspiracy will not only be proved but the conspirators found guilty.

Presentment of the eighteen recusant Electors, by the Grand Jury of Allegany County.

The Grand Inquest for the body of Allegany County being about to return to their homes, deem it their duty before they separate, to take some notice of the causes which have led to the present momentous and alarming crisis in the public affairs of our State. Certain individuals, entrusted by the people with the duty of appointing a Senate for the State, have refused to execute their trust, and have left the State without a Senate—The conduct of those men is without excuse or palliation—they intended to secure the triumph of a party, and, failing in that, to subvert the Government, and endanger the public tranquility The Grand Jurors do, therefore, present

Charles Macgill, Robert Wason, Casper Quynn, John Fisher, George Ellicott, Ephraim Bell, Joshua Vansant, John Evans, Geo. A. Thomas, Sam'l Sutton, Wash Duvall, Robert F. Keene, M Fountain, Enoch George, John Thomas, Sprigg Harwood, Thos. Pace, Wesley Linthicum as unfaithful public agents and disturbers of the public peace

George McCulloh, Foreman, Alexander King, *Mats Duckworth, Henry N Shaw, *Joseph Dailey, *J L Browning, John P tand, *John Watts, Robert Lashley, Singleton Townshend, Henry Brown, *Peter Kinghaum, *George Staup, *Andrew Rice, *Wm Robinson, James McCarty, *Joshua Knight, *Thos Beal Henry White, *Godfrey Fazenbaker.

ALLEGANY TO THE RESCUE!

We received, by the mail last night, an Extra from the Cumberland Civilian full of intelligence of the deepest interest and the highest importance to the people of Maryland We regret that we cannot find room for the whole, but the following extracts will apprise our readers of the spirit with which the fell spirit of Revolution, Rebellion and Treason has been rebuked even by the party of the Van Buren men of Allegany. The officers of the meeting were all, we believe Van Buren men, except Messrs Frost and Townsend, who are Whigs

LARGE MEETING

Of the Citizens of Allegany county, at the Court House in Cumberland, Oct 17 1836

In pursuance of public notice, an unusually large assemblage of the people of Allegany County, without distinction of party, convened at the Court House in the town of Cumberland, on Monday the 17th inst The meeting was organized by calling Wm. McMahon to the Chair, assisted by Meshack Frost and Joseph Dailey, and appointing John M. Buchanan Secretary, and Singleton Townshend assistant Secretary

The object of the meeting which was to take into consideration the present important crisis in our in our State affairs, was stated by B. S Pigman

James Dixon, (V B.) of Frederick, having been called upon, addressed the meeting in an eloquent and forcible manner, repudiating, in the strongest terms, the conduct of the 18 recusant Senatorial Electors—denouncing the course recommended by them as leading directly to collision and ultimate bloodshed.—On concluding his remarks, he was heartily and unanimously cheered by the meeting

William Price, of Hagerstown, being next called upon, arose and addressed the meeting in his usual happy and eloquent manner, depicting the deplorable condition in which the state will be thrown by a perseverance in the course adopted by the recreant Electors. He sat down amidst the applause of meeting

The venerable chairman of the meeting—Wm McMahon, honest and true to the last, next arose and implored the meeting in the name of God to pause and reflect before they took any step which could, by possibility, lead to a Revolution—that he hoped they would remain firm, and stand by and sustain the Laws and Constitution of the State. He seemed very much affected, and appeared like a father addressing his children, and in taking his seat was enthusiastically cheered.

Michael C. Sprigg, then offered a preamble and resolutions, which were unanimously adopted by the meeting—save the single dissenting voice of Mr. Daniel Blocher, the editor of the Advocate

The same paper contains a correspondence between Mr. Krebs, John James Graves and others of the city of Baltimore, a Committee of the Revolutionists, and John M Buchanan Esq. one of the delegates elect from Allegany County, a strong Van Buren man. The Revolutionists invoked Mr. Buchanan's aid to their rebellious projects, but he declines in a tone which must have suffused with shame and confusion the cheeks of the anarchist committee. Mr. Buchanan has covered himself with glory. We have room only for the annexed extract from his letter.

"But inasmuch as I conscientiously believe that should the course recommended by the nineteen recusant electors be carried into effect, it will be destructive of the best interests of the state, and will inflict a stab upon our institutions, and present happy and prosperous condition as a state, which neither time nor the ingenuity of man will ever be able to heal, I cannot of course co-operate with you in carrying the proposed convention into effect.

"In thus refusing to lend you my aid, I trust I will not lay myself liable to the imputation of having changed my sentiments upon the all absorbing subject of state reform.

"Those who know me personally will not for a moment entertain such an idea. It is well understood here that I have been a principal pioneer in Allegany in propagating the principles of reform; but I never for an instant supposed that the good work was to be accomplished by means of a Revolution, and at the sacrifice of the honor of the state, and thereby bringing upon us all the calamities of a civil war, anarchy, confusion, bloodshed, & a train of evils too horrible to imagine. This is no ideal picture. Before the proposed project can be consummated we will be witnesses of the said reality, and those who are foremost and loudest in advocating this nefarious scheme, will be the first to fall victims to their mad & ruinous indiscretion.

"I entreat you, gentlemen, by that love which I know you all entertain for your country, by the tender and endearing ties by which you are connected with your wives & children, to abandon your present wild & visionary scheme (to call it by no harsher name) & let us all, at this important crisis, unite, cordially and heartily, in one common effort to save the constitution of the state and her laws inviolate, from the perfidious hands of ambitious demagogues, and the machinations of wicked, corrupt and abandoned political knaves"

JOHM M. BUCHANAN.

A NEW AND CHEAP
PERIODICAL.

Attention is requested from our readers to the following prospectus of a new, and even a cheaper book periodical, which will be issued from this office in the first week of next January. It will not be in so convenient a form for binding as the present, with which it will in no way interfere, but it will make books cheap beyond all precedent. It will contain the works of the day, which are much sought after, but are comparatively dear, and which cannot penetrate the interior in any mode half so rapidly as by mail, in which columns of books are prohibited. A fifty cent American reprint will be furnished entire for from four to six cents; a Marryat novel for twelve cents, and others in proportion.

As but very few copies will be printed but what are actually subscribed for, those who wish the Omnibus must make their remittances at once.

Books at Newspaper Postage.
WALDIE'S LITERARY OMNIBUS.
NOVEL AND IMPORTANT Literary Enterprise!!
Novels, Tales, Byography, Voyages, Travels, Reviews, AND THE NEWS OF THE DAY.

IT was one of the great objects of "Waldie's Literary," "to make good reading cheaper, and to bring literature to every man's door." That object has been accomplished, we have given to books wings, and they have flown to the uttermost parts of our vast continent, carrying society to the secluded, occupation to the literary, information to all. We now propose still further to reduce prices, and render the access to a literary banquet more than twofold accessible; we gave and shall continue to give in the quarto library a volume weekly for two cents a day; we now proposed to give a volume in the same period for less than four cents a week, and to add as a piquant seasoning to the dish a few columns of shorter literary matters, and a summary of the news and events of the day. We know by experience and calculation that we can go still further in the matter of reduction, and we feel that there is still verge enough for us to aim at offering to an increasing literary appetite that mental food which it craves.

The Select Circulating Library, now as ever so great a favourite, will continue to make its weekly visits, and to be issued in a form for binding and preservation and its price and form will remain the same. But we shall, in the first week of January, 1837, issue a huge sheet of the size of the largest newspapers of America, but on very superior paper, also filled with books of the newest and most entertaining, though in their several departments of Novels, Tales, Voyages, Travels, &c. select in their character, joined with reading such as usually should fill a weekly newspaper. By this method we hope to accomplish a great good; to enliven and enlighten the family circle, and to give to it, at an expense which shall be no consideration to any, a mass of reading that in book form would alarm the pockets of the prudent, and to do it in a manner that the most sceptical shall acknowledge "the power of concentration can no farther go." No book which appears in Waldie's Quarto Library will be published in the Omnibus, which will be an entirely distinct periodical.

TERMS.

Waldie's Literary Omnibus, will be issued every Friday morning, printed on paper of a quality superior to any other weekly sheet, and of the largest size. It will contain,

1st Books, the newest and the best that can be procured, equal every week to a London duodecimo volume, embracing Novels, Travels, Memoirs, &c. and only chargeable with newspaper postage.

2d. Literary Reviews, Tales, Sketches, notices of books, and information from "the world of letters," of every description.

3d. The news of the week concentrated to a small compass, but in a sufficient amount to embrace a knowledge of the principal events, political and miscellaneous, of Europe and America.

The price will be two dollars to clubs of five subscribers where the paper is forwarded to one address. To clubs of two individuals, five dollars; single mail subscribers, three dollars. The discount on uncurrent money will be charged to the remitter, the low price and superior paper absolutely prohibit paying a discount.

On no condition will a copy ever be sent until the payment is received in advance.

As the arrangements for the prosecution of this great literary undertaking are all made, and the proprietor has redeemed all his pledges to a generous public for many years, no fear of the non fulfilment of the contract can be felt. The Omnibus will be regularly issued, and will contain in a year reading matter equal in amount to two volumes of Ree's Cyclopedia, for the small sum mentioned above.

Address, post paid,

ADAM WALDIE,
46 Carpenter St. Philadelphia.

☞Editors throughout the Union, and Canada, will confer a favour by giving the above one or more conspicuous insertions and receiving the work for a year as compensation.

 A specimen number, nearly ready, will be forwarded to those who request it, provided such request is made free from postage.
