POETRY.

THE SABBATH BELL.

BY MRS. CORNWELL BARON WILSON.

Pilgrim, that hast meekly borne
All the cold world's bitter scorn,
Journeying through this vale of tears
Till the promised land appears
Where the pure in heart shall dwell—
Thou dost bless the Sabbath Bell!

Idler, following fashion's toys,
Sewking, 'mid its empty joys;
Pleasure that must end in pain;
Sunshine that will turn to rain;
What does whisp'ring conscience tell,
When thou hear'st the Sabbath Bell?

Poet, dreaming o'er thy lyre,
Wasting health and youthful fire:
Wooing still the phantom fame;
For, at best, a fleeting name;
Burst the chains of Fancy's spell—
Listen!—'tis the Sabbath Bell!

Monarch, on thy regal throne;
Ruler, whom the nations own;
Captive, at thy prison grate,
Sad in heart and desolate;
Bid earth's minor cares farewell—
Hark! it is the Sabbath Bell!

Statesmen, toiling in the mart,
Where Ambition plays his part;
Peasant, bronzing 'neath the sun,
Till thy six days' work are done;
Ev'ry thought of business quell,
When ye hear the Sabbath bell!

Maiden, with thy brow so fair,
Blushing cheek, and shining hair;
Child, with bright and laughing eye,
Chasing the wing'd butterfly;
Hasten, when o'er vale and dell
Sounds the gath'ring Sabbath Bell!

Trav'ler thou whom gain or taste
Speedeth through earth's weary waste,
Wand'rer from thy native land,
Rest thy steed and slack thy hand
When the seventh day's sunbeams tell
There they wake the Sabbath Bell!

Soldier, who, on battle plain,
Soon may'st mingle with the slain:
Sailor, on the dark blue sea,
As thy bark rides gallantly;
Prayer and praise become ye well,
Though ye hear no Sabbath Bell.

Mother, that with tearful eye,
Stand st to watch thy first born die,
Bending o'er his cradle-bed,
Till the last pure breath has fled,
What to thee of hope can tell
Like the solemn Sabbath Bell!

"Mourner," thus it seems to say,
"Weeping o'er this fragile clay,
Lift from earth thy streaming eyes,
Seek thy treasure in the skies,
Where the strains of angels swell
One eternal Sabbath Bell!"

BRICK TAVERN,

and its appurtenances, well known by the name of the situate in the town of Easton, on the Eastern Shore of Maryland, at present, and for some years past, occupied by Mr. Solomon Lowe. This establishment is universally admitted to be the largest and most convenient for a Public House, of any on the Peninsula, and to a man well calculated to conduct it, an opportunity will be offered for doing a very extensive and profitable business, more especially if he has a sufficient capital to carry it on advantageously.

Easton is known as a town of considerable trade, and the Steam Boat Maryland, which plies twice a week between Baltimore, Annapolis, and this place, considerably increases the business, and of course adds very much to the value of this establishment, by the constant intercourse of travellers from the different counties on the Western and Eastern shores, and elsewhere with these places.

Possession will be given on the first day of January next. Persons wishing to rent are invited to come and view the premises. The terms, which will be moderate, will be made known by application to the subscriber.

THE LADY'S BOOK.
OR
Philadelphia Monthly Magazine.

Several Ladies of the highest Literary standing in the Country, have complied with the terms offered by the Publisher, and their contributions will appear in succeeding Numbers, commencing with Vol. 14.

This popular periodical has now completed the sixth year and twelfth volume of publication and still continues, as at first, the most popular work of its class.

The publisher is grateful for the patronage extended to him, and will endeavour by unremitted exertions, to merit it. The Lady's Book was the first publication that attempted to give correct coloured representations of the Philadelphia Fashions. The work, as stated above, has now been published for six years, and the proprietor asks a careful examination of it from the many that have been subscribers from the commencement; and their candid judgment, whether it has not been constantly improving, from volume to volume. He may with safety say, that the engravings, which adorn each number, are such as would be creditable to the same class of periodicals in England. The Fashions are superior to all but but those in the Court Magazine, and equal to them. If the subscription shall still continue to increase, greater exertions will be made. The promises made in the commencement of the year have by far been exceeded—and this is a fact that few periodicals can boast of—the promises made in advertisements, in general, far exceeding the performance.

MANNER OF EMBELLISHING.

January March, May, July, September, November, COLOURED ENGRAVINGS of Philadelphia Fashions.

February, April, June, August, October December, STEEL ENGRAVINGS of different subjects.

Each number also contains either two Views or two Heads from the Portrait Gallery—Embroidery—Fac Similes—Music—forty-eight pages of reading, and other matter, so varied as to require more space than can be spared to mention them.

The price is $3 per annum, or two copies for $5—in all cases payable in advance.

CHEAP LITERATURE.
A LIBERAL OFFER.

That it may be within the means of every person who wishes to subscribe to an amusing and useful journal of news, and have it carefully and regularly forwarded to them by mail, or otherwise, we shall from the present time until the first of next January, receive orders for ten copies of the Salmagundi, and News of the Day, at the rate of one dollar per annum for each subscription—that is, any person forwarding as a Ten Dollar Note, free of postage will be furnished with ten of our papers for a whole year, to be forwarded to any direction designated. This subscription price for a single name is Two Dollars. We make this offer, believing, as the pecuniary expense will be trifling, that all who have the inclination to become acquainted with the character of a journal which has made such rapid progress in public estimation as this has, will take advantage of the proposition at once, and enrol their names on the lists of its numerous patrons. It cannot be doubted that those who subscribe will receive the worth of their dollar, when we assure the public that each number contains, independent of its various amusing Engravings, as much reading matter as many of the popular volumes which are sold in our bookstores at double the rates that we ask for a whole year's subscription.

The Salmagundi already circulates through every post office in this country, and continues to multiply. It furnishes its patrons with the leading features of the News, and a humorous compilation of lively and pungent sallies which are floating along the tide of Literature. The Salmagundi is printed on large imperial paper, equal in size and quality to that which is used by the largest and best journals of the day. It is calculated that more than will be furnished in this journal in one year—these, in addition to a choice selection of Satire, Criticism and Wit, contained in its columns, will form a literary banquet of a superior and attractive order. ☞ Clubs of Four will be supplied with the paper for one year, from the commencement, by forwarding a five dollar note, postage paid.

PREMIUMS—The publisher, prompted by the unexampled and unexpected patronage which this paper has received, offers the following premiums:—

For the best Original Comic Tale, Fifty Dollars—for the best Original Comic Song, Twenty Five Dollars—for the best collection of Original Anecdotes, Jests, &c. not less than Fifty in number, Twenty Five Dollars—for the best Original Comic Design, Sketch, or Drawing, Twenty Five Dollars; for the second best, Fifteen Dollars; and for the third best, Ten Dollars.

Persons entering as competitors, may or may not forward their names, agreeably to their own wishes. The premiums will be awarded by competent judges. All communications on the subject must be addressed to the publisher, prior to the first of September, 1836, postage paid.
