Test John Johnson clk.

John Dunn Lessee of Michael Klinefelter vs Sarah Carey.	Be it remembered, That heretofore, to wit, on the thirtieth day of November in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty two, John Dunn Lessee of Michael Klinefelter by Samuel Donaldson his attorney, prosecuted and sued forth out of the Court of Appeals here, a writ of the State of Maryland of Restitution to the Sheriff of Baltimore County directed in the words and figures following to wit:

Maryland ss. (Seal) The State of Maryland to the Sheriff of Baltimore County Greeting. Whereas at a County Court, begun and held at the City of Baltimore on the third Monday in September in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighteen, a certain John Dunn Lessee of a certain Michael Klinefelter by judgment of the said Court recovered against a certain Solomon Richards, late of the County aforesaid his certain term yet to come and unexpired of and in all that tract or parcel of land called Lot number one hundred and ninety one, situate on the east side of Jones' Falls in Steigers addition to Baltimore Town on the north westermost side of Math Street, with the appurtenances in the County aforesaid, which the said Michael Klinefelter on the first day of June in the year eighteen hundred and eighteen, had demised to the said John Dunn for a term of years which is not yet expired, to hold to the said John Dunn and his assigns from the thirty first day of May then last past, for and during and until the full end and term of fifteen years from thence next ensuing, and fully to be complete and ended, whereof the said Solomon Richards is convict as it appears of record. And whereas command was given to the then Sheriff of Baltimore County on the twenty fourth day of November in the year aforesaid, that he without delay should cause the said John Dunn Lessee as aforesaid to have his possession of his term aforesaid then to come and unexpired, of and in the tract or parcel of land aforesaid with the appurtenances, which said writ in form aforesaid, directed to the said then Sheriff of Baltimore County to wit, John Stevenson Esquire was returned to the said Court thereon endorsed "possession delivered." And whereas afterwards to wit, on the third Monday in September in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty eight, the judgment so as aforesaid rendered, was by the judgment of the said County Court set aside, and that cause ordered to be brought up by regular continuances and placed on the appearance Docket of the then present term of the said Court, and that the writ of restitution issued to restore the possession to the said Solomon Richards the defendant, and that a certain Sarah Carey who claimed the title to the premises in question, should be admitted a defendant, as appears by inspection of the record and proceedings thereof which was lately caused to be brought before the Court of Appeals at the City of Annapolis for certain causes of error in the same to be corrected. And whereas at a Court of Appeals begun and held for the Western Shore at the City of Annapolis on the second Monday in June in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty one, it was considered by the said Court, that for sundry errors in the record of proceedings aforesaid, and also in the revocation of the judgment aforesaid, found that the same judgment be reversed, annulled and held entirely as void, and the said John Dunn Lessee as aforesaid be restored to all things which he had lost by reason of the judgment aforesaid. It was also considered by the said Court, that the said John Dunn Lessee as aforesaid recover against the said Sarah Carey the sum of forty six dollars, twenty seven cents adjudged unto him upon the reversal of the said judgment for his costs and charges by him first to about his prosecution of the said appeal aforesaid upon the premises. You are therefore hereby commanded without delay to restore the said John Dunn Lessee as aforesaid to the full and ample possession of the said piece or parcel of land, as aforesaid numbered, located and described, so and how you shall execute this writ make appear to the said Court of Appeals to be
