guished the late Senate of Maryland, to whom we are deeply indebted for the public spirited measures, which distinguish the legislative history of the period of their service. The most agreeable harmony amongst each other and between them and the other branch of the legislature, as well as with the Executive, marks the whole period of their sojourn at the seat of government, and clauses their separation from each other and from the community here, amongst those incidents to which memory will long recur with touching interest.

THE VICE PRESIDENCY.

The choice of Vice President of the United States, will ultimately have to be determined by the Senate, as, by the vote of Virginia for Judge SMITH, of Alabama, Col. JOHNSON falls behind Mr. VAN BUREN, and certainly falls short of a majority of the electoral votes.—The election therefore goes to the U. States Senate, whose duty it is to choose one of the two persons having the highest number of electoral votes. These, it is now ascertained, will be R. M. JOHNSON, of Kentucky, and FRANCIS GRANGER, of New York. With regard to the choice between these individuals, we shall merely say that if the Senate of the U. States can reconcile it to their sense of the fitness of things, and to their own character and dignity, to decide the question in favor of Col. JOHNSON, and thus to make him the presiding officer of that body—we suppose the country will acquiesce.—If the Senate can get over the formidable objections against Col. JOHNSON as Vice President and President of the Senate, we suppose the great public, who see so little of the individual, will be able to do so too. But it is possible that the Senate of the United States can get over these objections? We shall see.—Balt. Pat.

Vermont.—The Legislature of Vermont, at their late session, passed a bill authorizing the state treasurer to receive from the United States, the State's proportion of surplus revenue, and to deliver over to trustees of each town, to be appointed for the purpose, an amount proportioned to the population of the respective towns by the census of 1830—The money thus distributed is to be loaned to the citizens at 6 per cent, and the interest appropriated to the support of common schools. The towns to be responsible for refunding the principal, when called for by the United States, & the distribution among the towns to be equalized according to the new census in 1841.

FROM FLORIDA.—By the schr. Amelia, Capt. Norton, arrived last evening, we received the St. Augustine Herald of the 17th inst. from which we learn that the army moved from Fort Drane, on the 11th inst. for the Withlacoochee, where provisions are said to be in abundance, and a steam boat is in readiness to transport supplies to any point that may be required. Nothing had been heard from Gen. Jesup. It was supposed that he was operating in the neighborhood of Tampa bay or Pease Creek. Harmony is said to prevail throughout the army.—Charleston Cou.

The Baltimore American of Tuesday, says:—Forty-seven thousand bushels of foreign grain were sold in the New York market last week. The sales of foreign grain in the Baltimore market last week were upwards of thirty thousand bushels.

Foreign Grain.—The New-York Commercial says:—The sales of foreign grain the past week have been very extensive. Forty-seven thousand bushels of all descriptions, have been sold, viz: 19,000 bushels of red German wheat, at $2 a $2.02; 18,000 do white Dantzic, at $2 02 a $2,11½, the latter price on time; 3000 do of red and white Dutch $2; 5000 do rye, from Trieste, and 2000 do from Prussia. The market is now nearly clared of foreign grain, and 9000 bushels of the Dentzic sold have not yet arrived.

From the Cincinnati Gazette of Nov. 19.

Price of Pork.—We understand the Pork Market has opened in Cincinnati, within a day or two, at SEVEN DOLLARS PER HUNDRED. This is a full price for the growers of Pork. It is not probable that there can be any advance upon it.

LITERARY UNION;

LADY'S BOOK

AND

Ladies American Magazine.

The Proprietor of the Lady's Book, grateful for the unceasing patronage which he has received, announces to the Ladies who have so generously sustained their own "book," that he has made new arrangements for their gratification. Convinced that he could not in any way more effectually promote the interests, or realize the wishes of his numerous subscribers, he has secured the valuable aid of,

of Boston, to whose superintendance the literary departments of the Lady's Book will hereafter be committed. For many years Mrs. Hale has conducted the American Ladies' Magazine—a periodical of uncommon merit which will be merged in the Lady's Book.—Her abilities are familiar to her countrywomen, and on both sides of the Atlantic she enjoys a high reputation as one of the most graceful, vigorous, and accomplished of our female writers

Under the judicious management of Mrs Hale, the Lady's Book will not only maintain the excellent character it has already acquired, but it is confidently expected that it will be rendered more eminently worthy of the support of those to whose interests and amusement it has been, and will continue to be, especially devoted. The superior talents and fine taste of the Editor will give the work a new impulse; while her own contributions, and those received from her personal friends, and other correspondents, of whom a number have already promised, will render it almost entirely original. Amongst others who are expected to furnish matter for the Book may be mentioned,

Mrs. Sarah J. Hale, Editor, Mrs L. H Sigourney, Mrs. Ann S. Stephens, Mrs Caroline Lee Hentz, Mrs. E. F. Ellett, Miss Leslie, Miss H. F. Gould, Miss C E Gooch, Miss L. H. Medina, R. S. Mackenzie, L. L. H., Joseph R. Chandler, Morton McMichael, Robert T. Conrad, Alexander Dimitry, A. M H. E. Hale, E. Burke Fisher, N. C. Brooks, A M. Wm. E. Burton, Willis Gaylord Clark, Joseph C. Neal, B. B Thatcher, R. Penn Smith.

The proprietor of the Lady's Book is determined to use every means to maintain the superiority which his publication has obtained. For years he has gone steadily on in the course of improvement, and he flatters himself that his facilities are such as to give his work eminent advantages over his competitors. His very ample subscription list enables him to be liberal in his expenditures upon it, and whatever can be accomplished by enterprize and cost he is resolved to effect. Besides the persons above-mentioned as contributors, he has expectations of receiving original articles from several distinguished female writers in Europe: and as an inducement to writers of our own country, he is willing to pay for every article adopted by him as suitable to his publication, as high a rate of remuneration as will be given by the proprietors of any other periodical in the U. States.

The mechanical portion of the Lady's Book will likewise be improved. The typography will be more elegant, and the paper of a better quality. During the year portraits, engraved on steel, of several eminent ladies will be given: and every second month a coloured plate, illustrating the prevailing fashion, will be furnished. Other embellishments, calculated to enhance the appearance and increase the value of the work, will be introduced: and generally, everything will be done that the most untiring purpose of making the Lady's Book pre-eminently entitled to patronage can suggest. With the experience he has acquired during a long course of years devoted to the business, and the aid to be derived from the distinguished lady who will henceforth be associated with him, the publisher is confident that he will be able to render the amplest satisfaction to all who may become his patrons. He, therefore, with a just reliance on his claims to support, respectfully solicits a continuance of that liberal encouragement which has so kindly been bestowed on his endeavours.

The terms of the Lady's Book are Three Dollars per annum, payable in advance. All orders must be addressed to
