to have and to hold the same to the said Uncle Toby, and his assigns from the first day of the said last mentioned month, in the year last aforesaid, and during and unto the full end and term of thirty years from thence next ensuing and fully to be complete and ended: by virtue of which said demise the said Uncle Toby entered into the said land and tenements, with the appurtenances and was thereof possessed: and being so thereof possessed the said Corporal Trim afterwards to wit, on the third day of the month and year last aforesaid at the County aforesaid, with force and arms and so forth entered upon the said land and tenements, with the appurtenances, which the said William Cockey, Joseph C. Cockey, John Cockey, Philemon Towson and Sebastian Graff had demised to the said Uncle Toby in manner aforesaid, for the term aforesaid which is not yet expired, and ejected him from his said farm. And also that the said William Cockey heretofore to wit, on the said second day of May in the year eighteen hundred and twenty four at Baltimore County aforesaid, had demised to the said Uncle Toby, the said four undivided fifteen parts, the whole into fifteen equal parts to be divided of and in the said land and tenements secondly above mentioned, with the appurtenances. To have and to hold the said last mentioned demised premises with the appurtenances unto the said Uncle Toby and his assigns from the first day of May in the year last aforesaid, for and during and unto the term of thirty years from thence next ensuing, fully to be complete and ended. By virtue of which last demise, the said Uncle Toby entered into and upon the said last mentioned demised premises with the appurtenances, and was possessed thereof: and the said Toby, being so thereof possessed, he the said Corporal Trim afterwards to wit, on the third day of the same month and year aforesaid, at the County aforesaid, with force and arms and so forth, entered into the said last mentioned demised land and premises, with the appurtenances, which the said William Cockey had demised to the said Uncle Toby in manner aforesaid, for the term aforesaid, which is not yet expired, and ejected him, the said Uncle Toby, from his said last mentioned farm. And also that the said John C. Cockey, heretofore to wit, on the second day of May in the year eighteen hundred and twenty four, at the County aforesaid, had demised to the said Uncle Toby, the said undivided four fifteen parts, the whole to be into fifteen equal parts divided of and in the said lands and tenements thirdly above mentioned, with the appurtenances, unto the said Uncle Toby and his assigns, from the first day of the month, in the year last aforesaid, for and during and unto the full end and term of thirty years from thence next ensuing and fully to be complete and ended: By virtue of which said demise the said Uncle Toby entered into the lands and tenements last above mentioned with the appurtenances and was thereof possessed: and being so thereof possessed

he the said Corporal Trim afterwards on the third day of the same month and year last aforesaid, at the County aforesaid, with force and arms and so forth entered into the said last mentioned demised lands and tenements, which the said Joseph C. Cockey had demised to the said Uncle Toby in manner aforesaid, for the term aforesaid, which is not yet expired, and him the said Uncle Toby ejected from his said farm. And also that the said Philemon Towson heretofore to wit, on the second day of May, in the year eighteen hundred and twenty four, at the County aforesaid, had demised unto the said Uncle Toby, four other undivided fifteen parts, the whole into fifteen equal parts to be divided, of the said tract or parcel of land called Franklin's Neglect and Cockey's Discovery, fourthly above mentioned with the appurtenances: To have and to hold the same unto the said Uncle Toby and his assigns, from the first day of the month and year last aforesaid, for and during and unto the full end and term of thirty years from thence next ensuing and fully to be complete and ended. By virtue of which said last demise, the said Uncle Toby entered into the said last demised land and premises, with the appurtenances, and was possessed thereof: and being so thereof possessed, the said Corporal Trim afterwards to wit, on the third day of the said month and year at the County aforesaid, with force and arms and so forth, entered into the said last demised land and premises with the appurtenances, which the said Philemon Towson had demised to the said Uncle Toby in manner aforesaid, for the term aforesaid, which is not yet expired, and him the said Uncle Toby ejected from his said last mentioned farm. And also that the said Sebastian Graff heretofore to wit, on the second day of May in the year eighteen hundred and twenty four at the County aforesaid had demised unto the said Uncle Toby, four other undivided fifteen parts, the whole into fifteen equal parts to be divided, of and in the said land and tenements fifthly above mentioned, with the appurtenances: to have and to hold the same unto the said Uncle Toby and his assigns, from the first day of the said last mentioned month and year, for and during and unto the full end and term of thirty years from thence next ensuing, and fully to be complete and ended. By virtue of which said demise the said Uncle Toby entered into the said last mentioned land and tenements with the appurtenances, and was thereof possessed, and being so thereof possessed, he the said Corporal Trim, afterwards on the third day of the same month and year aforesaid, at the County aforesaid, with force and arms and so forth, entered into the said last mentioned land and tenements, with the appurtenances, which the said Sebastian Graff had demised to the said Uncle Toby in manner aforesaid, for the term aforesaid, which is not yet expired, and him the said Uncle Toby ejected from his last mentioned farm. And also that the said William Cockey, heretofore to wit, on the second day of May, in the year eighteen hundred and twenty four, at the County aforesaid, had demised
