POETRY.

The following Jeu d'esprit is entitled to a conspicuous place in our columns, for its poetical merit, if not for its justice.
[Richmond Whig.

POLITICAL JEU D'ESPRIT.

"HAVE AT YE ALL"

English Bards, &c.

Harry Clay! Harry Clay! gone by the day,
When American System can fool us.
Tariffs brought disaffection—and partial protection
Very soon into wisdom did school us,
Harry Clay!
Very soon into wisdom did school us.

Jack Calhoun! Jack Calhoun! you were struck by the moon,
And from thence must have come your new lights.
But Nullification wont do for the nation,
Although we all go for State Rights,
Jack Calhoun!
Although we all go for State Rights.

Yankee Dan! Yankee Dan! you're a Federalist man!
And the name bars you out from the prize.
What signifies talents—the name kicks the balance,
No matter how honest and wise,
Yankee Dan!
No matter how honest and wise.

Hugh L. White! Hugh L. White—twas an unlucky bite,
When you seized on the bait of the Whigs.
You're cut by your party—the Whigs are not hearty,
And Van with the President pigs,
Hugh L. White!
And Van with the President pigs.

Little Van! Little Van!—you're a politic man,
Your love for the Hero will show it,
You'll beat granny Bill, if the President's will
And the wealth of the nation will do it,
Little Van!
And the wealth of the nation will do it.

Granny Will! Granny Will!—where's your tactical skill?
Your services all have been trump'd sir,
Not Tippecanoe—nor the Thames now will do,
Out gloried, good luck! by Tecumseh!
Granny Will!
Out-gloried, good luck! by Tecumseh!

Tom Benton! Tom Benton! what a goose chase you went on!
To humbug the people with gold!
You see that the Yankees return you no thankye's
E'en the love of your party grows cold,
Tom Benton!
E'en the love of your party grows cold.

Billy Rives! Billy Bives! I know your heart grieves;
You were shabbily treated 'tis owned,
But the next time you shall—but "no more of this Hal."
Your claims have been only postponed,
Billy Rives!
Your claims have been only postponed.

Watty Leigh! Watty Leigh! sad times I agree,
When the honest and pure must retire.
Though you scorned your instructions, I'll make some deductions,
And pass you unscorched through the fire,
Watty Leigh!
And pass you unscorched through the fire.

Johnny Bell! Johnny Bell! you have managed it well,
For the Whigs you have carried your State,
But I am sorely afraid, that you'll ne'er be repaid,
As a traitor's will sure be your fate,
Johnny Bell!
As a traitor's will sure be your fate.

Amos Kendall! Amos Kendall! will the Post Office mend all?
We the people have memories, Amos!
Though the there may pet you, we cannot forget you;
And nobody surely can blame us,
Amos Kendall!
And nobody surely can blame us.

Jack Pleasants! Jack Pleasants! at shooting of pheasants,
No doubt you would stand above par!
But in politics, man, you're too fond of the van.
And to quick on the trigger by far,
Jack Pleasants!
And too quick on the trigger by far.

Tom Ritchie! Tom Ritchie!—times look rather pitchy,
But what if much darker they grow?
If the leaves and the fishes but follow your wishes,
Let country and liberty go,
Tom Ritchie!
Let country and liberty go.

CHEAP LITERATURE.
A LIBERAL OFFER.

That it may be within the means of every person who wishes to subscribe to an amusing and useful journal of news, and have it carefully and regularly forwarded to them by mail, or otherwise, we shall from the present time until the first of next January, receive orders for ten copies of the Salmagundi, and News of the Day, at the rate of one dollar per annum for each subscription—that is, any person forwarding us a Ten Dollar Note, free of postage, will be furnished with ten of our papers for a whole year, to be forwarded to any direction designated. The subscription price for a single name is Two Dollars. We make this offer, believing, as the pecuniary expense will be trifling, that all who have the inclination to become acquainted with the character of a journal which has made such rapid progress in public estimation as this has, will take advantage of the proposition at once, and enrol their names on the lists of its numerous patrons. It cannot be doubted that those who subscribe will receive the worth of their dollar, when we assure the public that each number contains, independent of its various amusing Engravings, as much reading matter as many of the popular volumes which are sold in our bookstores at double the rates that we ask for a whole year's subscription.

The Salmagundi already circulates through every post office in this country, and continues to multiply. It furnishes its patrons with the leading features of the News, and a humorous compilation of lively and pungent sallies which are floating along the tide of Literature. The Salmagundi is printed on large imperial paper, equal in size and quality to that which is used by the largest and best journals of the day. It is calculated that more than will be furnished in this journal in one year—these, in addition to a choice selection of Satire, Criticism and Wit, contained in its columns, will form a literary banquet of a superior and attractive order. ☞ Clubs of Four will be supplied with the paper for one year, from the commencement, by forwarding a five dollar note, postage paid.

PREMIUMS—The publisher, prompted by the unexampled and unexpected patronage which this paper has received, offers the following premiums:—

For the best Original Comic Tale, Fifty Dollars—for the best Original Comic Song, Twenty Five Dollars—for the best collection of Original Anecdotes, Jests &c. not less than Fifty in number, Twenty Five Dollars—for the best Original Comic Design, Sketch, or Drawing, Twenty Five Dollars: for the second best, Fifteen Dollars; and for the third best, Ten Dollars.

Persons entering as competitors, may or may not forward their names, agreeably to their own wishes. The premiums will be awarded by competent judges. All communications on the subject must be addressed to the publisher, prior to the first of September, 1836, postage paid.

A post master's certificate will be a satisfactory guarantee of a remittance. Negociable notes of every kind taken in payment of subscriptions.

Easton is known as a town of considerable trade, and the Steam Boat Maryland, which plies twice a week between Baltimore, Annapolis, and this place, considerably increases the business, and of course adds very much to the value of this establishment, by the constant intercourse of travellers from the different counties on the Western and Eastern shores, and elsewhere with these places.

TO THE PUBLIC.

The subscriber has been informed that there is a report in circulation stating that he has disposed of his possessions on the Choptank, and ceased to keep the Cambridge Ferry. This report was undoubtedly gotten up by some malicious individual with a view of injuring the subscriber, and, if suffered to remain uncontroverted, the aim of its originator would certainly be attained. The subscriber, therefore, takes this method of informing his friends and the public, that there is not the slightest foundation in truth for the above mentioned report; but that, on the contrary, he still keeps the Cambridge Ferry, and expects so to do the remainder of his days. His boats are substantial, safe and in good order, and are under the management of as prompt, active, trusty and experienced hands as those belonging to any boat that has hitherto been, or may hereafter be, stationed on the above named ferry, while he keeps, as usual, good horses and carriages for the accommodation of travellers. He has signals on both sides of the river, which his boat will always answer with the utmost despatch, so that no one shall be kept waiting longer than shall be absolutely necessary.

The subscriber returns his thanks to his friends and the public for the very liberal patronage which he has heretofore received from them; and, as his long experience in the business, and his determination to use his best efforts to please, induce him to hope that he will give general satisfaction, he respectfully solicits a continuance of their favor.

A NEW AND CHEAP
PERIODICAL.

Attention is requested from our readers to the following prospectus of a new, and even a cheaper book periodical, which will be issued from this office in the first week of next January. It will not be in so convenient a form for binding as the present, with which it will in no way interfere, but it will make books cheap beyond all precedent. It will contain the works of the day, which are much sought after, but are comparatively dear, and which cannot penetrate the interior in any degree half so rapidly as by mail, in which volumes of books are prohibited. A fifty cent American reprint will be furnished entire for from four to six cents; a Marryat novel for twelve cents, and others in proportion.

As but very few copies will be printed but what are actually subscribed for, those who wish the Omnibus must make their remittances at once.

Books at Newspaper Postage.
WALDIE'S LITERARY OMNIBUS.
NOVEL AND IMPORTANT
Literary Enterprise!!
Novels, Tales, Biography, Voyages, Travels, Reviews,
AND THE NEWS OF THE DAY.

IT was one of the great objects of "Waldie's Litterary," "to make good reading cheaper, and to bring literature to every man's door." That object has been accomplished, we have given to books wings, and they have flown to the uttermost parts of our vast continent, carrying society to the secluded, occupation to the literary, information to all. We now propose still further to reduce prices, and render the access to a literary banquet more than twofold accessible; we gave and shall continue to give in the quarto library a volume weekly for two cents a day; we now proposed to give a volume in the same period for less than four cents a week, and to add as a piquant seasoning to the dish a few columns of shorter literary matters, and a summary of the news and events of the day. We know by experience and calculation that we can go still further in the matter of reduction, and we feel that there is still verge enough for us to aim at offering to an increasing literary appetite that mental food which it craves.

The Select Circulating Library, now as ever so great a favourite, will continue to make its weekly visits, and to be issued in a form for binding and preservation and its price and form will remain the same. But we shall, in the first week of January, 1837, issue a huge sheet of the size of the largest newspapers of America, but on very superior paper, also filled with books of the newest and most entertaining, though in their several departments of Novels, Tales, Voyages, Travels, &c. select in their character, joined with reading such as usually should fill a weekly newspaper. By this method we hope to accomplish a great good; to enliven and enlighten the family circle, and to give to it, at an expense which shall be no consideration to any, a mass of reading that in book form would alarm the pockets of the prudent, and to do it in a manner that the most sceptical shall acknowledge "the power of concentration can no farther go." No book which appears in Waldie's Quarto Library will be published in the Omnibus, which will be an entirely distinct periodical.

TERMS.

Waldie's Literary Omnibus, will be issued every Friday morning, printed on paper of a quality superior to any other weekly sheet, and of the largest size. It will contain,

1st Books, the newest and the best that can be procured, equal every week to a London duodecimo volume, embracing Novels, Travels, Memoirs, &c. and only chargeable with newspaper postage.

2d. Literary Reviews, Tales, Sketches, notices of books, and information from "the world of letters," of every description.

3d. The news of the week concentrated to a small compass, but in a sufficient amount to embrace a knowledge of the principal events, political and miscellaneous, of Europe and America.

The price will be two dollars to clubs of five subscribers where the paper is forwarded to one address. To clubs of two individuals, five dollars; single mail subscribers, three dollars. The discount on uncurrent money will be charged to the remitter; the low price and superior paper absolutely prohibit paying a discount.

On no condition will a copy ever be sent until the payment is received in advance.

As the arrangements for the prosecution of this great literary undertaking are all made, and the proprietor has redeemed all his pledges to a generous public for many years, no fear of the non fulfilment of the contract can be felt. The Omnibus will be regularly issued, and will contain in a year reading matter equal in amount to two volumes of Ree's Cyclopedia, for the small sum mentioned above.

Address, post paid,
ADAM WALDIE,
46 Carpenter St. Philadelphia.

☞ Editors throughout the Union, and Canada, will confer a favour by giving the above one or more conspicuous insertions and accepting the work for a year as compensation.

 A specimen number, nearly ready, will be forwarded to those who request it, provided such request is made free from postage.
