ection of Chaplain, the Senate proceeded to ballot for the same, and on the first ballot the Rev. Mr. Goodman was elected, he having 22 votes out of 41 given.

The Senate then adjourned.

House of Representatives.—The bill to amend the act establishing the Mint of the United States; the bill appropriating two millions for the suppression of Indian hostilities; and the bill making appropriations for the payment of the revolutionary and other pensioners of the United States for the year 1837, were read a third time and passed.

Mr Howard offered a resolution instructing the committee on Naval Affairs to consider the expediency of establishing a Naval Academy, which was agreed to.

Wednesday, Dec. 28, 1836.

SENATE.—Mr Davis, on leave, introduced a bill in addition to an act for the relief of sick & disabled seamen, which was read twice, and referred to the committee on Commerce. Mr. Davis, in connection with this subject, offered a resolution instructing the committee on Commerce to inquire into the expediency of abolishing the tax levied on seamen under the name of Hospital money, which lies over one day for consideration.

Mr. Benton moved to print one thousand extra copies of a statement of the balances which will remain unexpended in the Treasury on the 1st of January next five copies to be sent to the Governors of each of the States, and twenty copies to be sent to each branch of the several Legislatures.

Mr. Benton prefaced his remarks by stating that this statement showed that there were fourteen millions and a half in the Treasury, which had been appropriated, but which remained unexpended in the Treasury. He contended that under the Deposite Bill this balance would be distributed among the States, and it would be necessary to levy taxes, or to prevent reduction of taxes, to enable the government to meet these appropriations.

EASTON GAZETTE.

EASTON, (MD.)

Saturday Morning, January 7.

Dr John S Spence of Worcester county, has been elected, by the Legislature of this State, United States Senator, in the place of the Hon. Robert H. Goldsborough, deceased.

Thomas King Carroll, Esq. of Somerset county, declines accepting the seat in the Senate of this State, offered him by the Electoral College—Mr McMahon of Baltimore city, also declined.

Judge John Buchanan of Frederick, Gen. Thomas Emory of Queen Ann's, and Samuel Jones, Jr. of Baltimore City, have been appointed by the Executive, Commissioners to negotiate the loan provided for by the Internal Improvement law of the last session.

By yesterday's Delaware or Caroline mail, we received a couple of Baltimore papers of a late date—(the American of the 4th and the Patriot of the 3d inst.) from which we select the following items.

Governor VEAZEY was re-elected on Monday last by a joint vote of the Legislature of this State—out of 81 votes he received seventy.

Gen. SANTA ANNA arrived at Louisville, Ky. on the 24th ult. in the Steam Boat Adriatic, on his way to Washington.

Judge R. M. YOUNG has been chosen a Senator of the U. States by the Legislature of Illinois.

Dickinson College, it appears is not burnt down—the Grammar School, which was not attached to the College was the building destroyed.

The Proclamation of the President convening the next Senate, may be expected to be issued in the course of a few days—It must go out sixty days before the meeting of that Senate which will be on the 4th March.

FROM ANNAPOLIS.

Correspondence of the Balt. Chronicle.

December 29th 1836

In the Senate, to day, the standing mmittees were announced—a list of em I will send you to morrow.

Mr. Hambleton obtained leave to re ort, and did report, a bill to confirm the t of the last session, requiring the as t of two-thirds of each branch of the gislature to pass a divorce bill.

In the House, Mr. Combs presented a ition from the citizens of Prince orge's county, relating to the ins ec n of Mackerel in Baltimore.

Resolutions, having for their objec extens on to the Governors and mem s of the several State Legislature franking privilege, were offered by Eccleston, and lie on the table.

n motion of Mr Richardson, the aker appointed a committee to in re into the propriety of passing a law, ibiting the wearing of dirks and oth eadly weapons, except by military while in service; and making the ing thereof, by private citizens, a l offence. The committee consists essrs. Richardson, Ridgely and bracco motion of Mr. Richardson, the ker appointed Messrs. Richardson, ander, Kershner, Carpenter and to inquire what retrenchments, it might be made in the current ex s of the State.

Richardson also submitted an or structing the Speaker to appoint a committee in reference to the public printing. Messrs. Richardson, Culbreth, Buchanan, Crisfield and Handy are the committee.

At 12 o'clock the House took up the bill reported by Mr. Alexander, in reference to the State's portion of the surplus revenue. Various propositions to amend it were made, all of which failed after much discussion, except some verbal ones, and one submitted by Mr Culbreth, providing that the Treasurer shall deposite at least one fourth, and not exceeding two fifths, of the amount awarded to this State in his discretion, in the Farmers' Bank of Maryland, and the residue in the Union Bank of Maryland and the Franklin Bank of Baltimore, subject to the control of the General Assembly. As amended, the bill passed about 5 o'clock.

When I wrote yesterday, I was under the impression that the bill, as reported, pointed out the manner in which the banks should employ the deposites. This was not so—I was led into the error by blending some of the arguments of the report with the bill.

I have not been able to procure, as yet, a copy of the report, the printing of it not being completed.

FROM ANNAPOLIS

The bill passed by the House on yesterday on the subject of the Surplus Revenue, is now a law, having been passed to day by the Senate without amendment. A certified copy has been sent by express to Washington.

Spontaneous Combustion.—M de Lercey, a captain in the French navy, was found dead in his bed at Cherbourg, on the 27th October, the upper part of his body being burnt to ashes. It appears that the evening before he had provided himself with a large bottle of brandy, which was found lying beside him almost entirely empty. He was in the attitude of a man in a deep sleep, and by the medical examination of his body it was evident that he had been suffocated, and that the cause of his death arose from spontaneous combustion, the flame of the candle having communicated with his breath.

TO THE PUBLIC.

The subscriber has been informed that there is a report in circulation stating that he has disposed of his possessions on the Choptank, and ceased to keep the Cambridge Ferry. This report was undoubtedly gotten up by some malicious individual with a view of injuring the subscriber, and, if suffered to remain uncontroverted, the aim of its originator would certainly be attained. The subscriber, therefore takes this method of informing his friends and the public, that there is not the slightest foundation in truth for the above mentioned report; but that, on the contrary, he still keeps the Cambridge Ferry, and expects so to do the remainder of his days. His boats are substantial, safe and in good order, and are under the management of as prompt, active, trusty and experienced hands as those belonging to any boat that has hitherto been, or may hereafter be, stationed on the above named ferry, while he keeps, as usual, good horses and carriages for the accommodation of travellers. He has signals on both sides of the river, which his boat will always answer with the utmost despatch, so that no one shall be kept waiting longer than shall be absolutely necessary.

The subscriber returns his thanks to his friends and the public for the very liberal patronage which he has heretofore received from them; and, as his long experience in the business, and his determination to use his best efforts to please, induce him to hope that he will give general satisfaction, he respectfully solicits a continuance of their favor.
