Nora Digges Executrix of Wm D Digges use of the Bank of the United States use of Thomas J Somerville and Walter B C Worthington vs
William A Dorsett Thomas J Somerwell and Walter B. C. Worthington.

Be it remembered, that heretofore to wit, on the ninth day of January in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty three, Nora Digges Executrix of William D Digges use of the Bank of the United States, use of Thomas J Somerwell and Walter B. C. Worthington by Thomas C Worthington her attorney prosecuted and sued forth out of the Court of Appeals here a writ of the State of Maryland of Fieri Facias to the Sheriff of Prince Georges County directed in the words and figures following to wit:

Maryland Set. The State of Maryland to the Sheriff of Prince Georges County Greeting. Whereas at a County Court begun and held at upper Marlboro in and for Prince Georges County on the first Monday in April in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty eight a certain William D Digges by the judgment of the said Court recovered against a certain William A Dorsett late of said County planter as well the sum of six thousand dollars current money for his damages which he had sustained as well by occasion of the non performance of a certain promise and assumption to the said William D Digges before that time made, as the sum of six dollars fifty three and a third cents for his costs and charges by him about his suit in that behalf laid out and expended, whereof the said William A Dorsett is convict, for which said damages costs and charges, the said William A Dorsett, Thomas J Somerwell and Walter B C Worthington on the sixteenth day of June in the year eighteen hundred and twenty eight before James Naylor and Henry Mc Pherson Esquires, two of the Justices of the peace of the said State for Prince Georges County did confess judgment to the said William D Digges, the said damages costs and charges to be levied of their bodies goods or chattels lands and tenements for the use of the said William D Digges in case the said William A Dorsett should not pay and satisfy to the said William D Digges the said damages costs and charges so as aforesaid recovered against him with the additional costs thereon on the sixteenth day of December then next according to the act of Assembly in such case made and provided: which said confession in form aforesaid taken was by the same Justices returned to the said County Court of Prince Georges and whereof the said William A Thomas J and Walter B C are convict as by inspecting the record of proceedings of the same Court brought before the Court of Appeals for the Western Shore at the City of Annapolis by reason of errors alleged to have been therein manifestly appears. And whereas it hath been adjudged in the said Court of Appeals at the City of Annapolis aforesaid on the second Monday in June in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty that the said judgment given in form aforesaid be in all things affirmed and ratified and that the said Nora Digges executrix of the testament and last will of the said William D Digges might have execution against the said William A Dorsett, Thomas J Somerwell and Walter B C Worthington for as well the damages costs and charges aforesaid, as adjudged unto him in the said County Court, as also for the sum of twelve dollars and eighty seven cents for her damages costs and charges by her sustained by reason of delaying the execution of the judgment aforesaid, by means of the prosecuting a certain appeal by the said William A Dorsett, Thomas J Somerwell and Walter B C Worthington before the said Court of Appeals for the correcting of errors aforesaid upon the premises, whereof the said William A Dorsett, Thomas J Somerwell and Walter B C Worthington are convict as of record it remains appeareth: Therefore you are hereby commanded that of the goods and chattels lands and tenements of the said William A Dorsett, Thomas J Somerwell and Walter B C Worthington being in your bailiwick you cause to be made the damages costs and charges aforesaid and have you those sums of money before the said Court of Appeals at the City of Annapolis on the second Monday in June next to render unto the said Nora Digges Executrix as aforesaid the damages costs and charges aforesaid levied, fail not at your peril, and have you then and there this writ.

Witness the Honorable John Buchanan Esquire Chief Judge of the Court of Appeals the third day of December in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty two. Issued the 9th day of January 1833.
