'God men are scarce, the just are thinly sown;
They thrive but ill, nor can they last when grown.
And should we count them, and our store compile;
Yet Thebes more gates could show, more mouths the Nile.'

'P,' accuses me of having made the first attack, now Mr. Editor, I was not aware of making an attack on 'P.' when I informed him of, and asked him to condemn the circulation of a filthy production, among that part of our juvenile community directly under his eye, because I was ignorant at the time, that he viewed it with approbation.

As to 'Tim,' he does himself great injustice, he is the most sagacious of all animals and I doubt not, will be able after a little study, to comprehend my communication without explanation: Z.

For the Easton Gazette

Mr. Graham:—I see in your paper of March 4th, another effort of Plantagenet to defend his legitimate Sister; he says, that there is nothing in Z's production worth his notice; verily how keen and sagacious,—has he dared to touch the subject in point—why did he not meet Z. in his good intentions to destroy Maria Monk and Mary Reed, rather than Romances, and well written Novels, whereby he, P. might have had an opportunity of making himself conspicuous by delivering the Funeral Oration —But how cruel Z. must be to require a high minded man to destroy his legitimate sister; Ah! unfeeling Z. have you not been sensible of the fraternal feeling for a Sister? If so, why will you complain of P. for secreting and cherishing and communing with his prostitute sister.

Plantagenet next finds himself much agrieved at Z's "Barking" and advises him to desist; this, Mr Editor, brings to my mind the old adage that two of a trade cannot agree P. like other mastiffs that have been raised in chains, by some unfair means, slips his head out of his collar, & strays abroad, presently feels himself the biggest of the group, and forthwith commences his barking and howling, not for the defence of his master's property, not because strangers are approaching, but to let others see that he is in a place, where he has liberty to howl, and to get other fools to follow, to the annoyance of the neighborhood.

Now Sir, having fed, bountifully fed, P with his own billingsgate slang of barking, and having shown that he is the barker,' a professional 'barker,' I now dismiss him in the full enjoyment of his beloved Sister Maria. and promise that he shall not din my ears hereafter with his heretical howling.

Now, Mr. Editor, after having dismissed this amiable Brother and Sister, my eye was caught by the word Timothy, when tracing it to its source, I found it an attack upon poor Z, he has much to contend with and this attack of T's. is the unkindest cut of all; but, Mr. Editor, who is this very wise and cautious T.? have we not cause to believe, ah! and fear that it is the same old Timothy to whom St. Paul addressed two epistles' does he not tell us about warring with the Israelites, does he not give Z. a most humane and friendly caution to keep out of the reach of 'little David's pebbles,' does he not by sallying forth to attack Z. under cover of his 'Bible' an impenetrable fortification, show friendship—I ask you, sir, if all this does not go to prove that he is a very wise and cautious man and must without doubt, be that very same old Timothy to whom St. Paul wrote two epistles. This being the case I advise Z to be quiet; send a Flag of Truce to T's. camp, provided it can be done out of reach of 'little David's pebbles,' and ask the favor of old T. to come and tell us the true meaning, of St. Paul's Epistles to him, all of which he has at will and memory —for which condescension I have no doubt Z. will be extremely grateful.

MR. WISE.—The National Intelligencer of Saturday says:—We have pleasure in placing before the public eye the following triumphant vindication of H. A. Wise, the fearless arraigner of public wrongs, from the vituperation and calumnies with which he has been assailed, through the press, by those who in some cases misunderstand, and in others wilfully misrepresent, his character:

Tuesday, March 2, 1837.

In Select Committee to inquire into the condition of the various Executive Departments, &c. under the resolution of the 17th January—

Mr. Pearce moved the following resolution, which was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, unanimously, That notwithstanding the highly exciting topics of discussion which have come before the committee, and their frequent and animating debates, the Hon Henry A. Wise, as their chairman, has at all times so conducted as to entitle him to their thanks, which are hereby accorded to him.

INDEMNITY FROM MOBS.

The millers of Rochester (N Y.) have presented to the Legislature of that state a memorial asking for the passage of a law rendering the city of New York responsible for all damages that may accrue to them from the violence of mobs. The petitioners set forth their inability to sustain losses or incur risks from such causes, and the consequent necessity resting upon them of sending their flour to cities not liable to such outbreakings, or at least where the corporation is bound to pay for the loss of that which it was paid for defending.

Flour Riot.—The millers of Rochester have petitioned the Legislature of New York for a law for the protection of their property in the city of New York against mobs, by holding the city accountable for the loss.

Destructive Fire in New York.—A fire broke out on Thursday night, in the six-story paint store of Pollen & Colegate, No. 177 Water street, New York. It was destroyed, as were also No. 175, occupied by Van Winkle & Randall as a fur store, and by W. H. White as a fur factory; No. 179, occupied by Henry Storms; and Nos. 14, 16 and 18 Burling Slip. The property destroyed was worth $200,000, mostly covered by insurance,

NOTICE.

In consequence of a succession of outrages perpetrated by the boys at the Beverly Seminary, in so concealed a manner, as to prevent the possibility of detecting the guilty individual or individuals, the teachers have thought proper to suspend the school indefinitely, as it is now organized, and in lieu thereof, to organize one on a plan, new in many important respects. This plan proposes to limit the whole number of students to thirty —fifteen of whom are to be under the immediate care of each of the teachers. The religious instruction will be exclusively attended to by the principal, and the domestic department entirely in the hands of the assistant — The houses are to be so arranged as that not exceeding four shall lodge in the same room, one of whom shall have charge of the key at all times. Every attention shall be paid to the comforts of the boys, and in order that this may be warranted, an increase of $20 to the present charge, for board must be made—making it $100. The course of studies, both in the Classical and in the English department will be the same as formerly.

JOSEPH SPENCER.
MATTHEW SPENCER.

March 11, 1837.

N. B. Parents wishing their sons to be admitted, must make application before the first of April.

Let the parents of the boys who have been sent home likewise understand that no individual has been fixed upon as the guilty one, but that a general suspension was necessary in order to get rid of the true malefactor. The boys will be received back according to the character previously sustained. The new session will commence about the first of April. The precise time will be made known in the next Gazette.

LAND FOR SALE.

The subscriber having had bad health, for the last ten years, so much so as to deprive him from attending to his Farms, which is necessary to his interest, and being desirous to close his affairs as soon as possible, will dispose of the following property, below its value

The farm on which Mr Ezekial H. Cooper, resided, for, the last two years, about five miles from the Trappe, and one or one and a half from Choptank river, Containing 484 1-2 Acres.

This Farm is laid off in three fields and three lots, the latter is very fine land, capable of producing 150 Barrels of Corn—one of them well set in Clover,—the fields fine land to improve,—there is a new well of first rate water near the Dwelling, and also a fine mineral spring, about 300 yards from the Dwelling. A large quantity of WHITE OAK TIMBER, AND WOOD, can be spared, enough I presume, to pay nearly double the amount of the purchase, which is convenient to deliver on the river,—the situation is considered to be as healthy as any in the neighborhood.

This Farm, was formerly in two, and persons wishing to purchase, can divide it with convenience. I have not rented this Farm for the present year owing to the difficulty of getting seed wheat, and possession can be had on the disposal of it.

Also, one half of the adjoining Farm, containing

150 Acres, more or less,

Belonging to the late Dr. Edward Harris', heirs and myself, with a good supply of

TIMBER,

And is rented for this year to Mr. Edward V. Davis. A part of the purchase money is required to be paid, and the balance on such credit as may be agreed to, and on the payment of the purchase money a good and sufficient deed will be given.

Persons not acquainted with these Farms, by application to Mr. Martin Goldsborough, will be shown them,—not being able myself, as I am confined to my room. For terms apply to

TO THE PUBLIC.

The subscriber has been informed that there is a report in circulation stating that he has disposed of his possessions on the Choptank, and ceased to keep the Cambridge Ferry. This report was undoubtedly gotten up by some malicious individual with a view of injuring the subscriber, and, if suffered to remain uncontroverted, the aim of its originator would certainly be attained. The subscriber, therefore, takes this method of informing his friends and the public, that there is not the slightest foundation in truth for the above mentioned report; but that, on the contrary, he still keeps the Cambridge Ferry, and expects so to do the remainder of his days His boats are substantial, safe and in good order, and are under the management of as prompt, active, trusty any experienced hands as those belonging to any boat that has hitherto been, or may hereafter be, stationed on the above named ferry, while he keeps, as usual, good horses and carriages for the accommodation of travellers. He has signals on both sides of the river, which his boat will always answer with the utmost despatch, so that no one shall be kept waiting longer than shall be absolutely necessary.

The subscriber returns his thanks to his friends and the public for the very liberal patronage which he has heretofore received from them; and, as his long experience in the business, and his determination to use his best efforts to please, induce him to hope that he will give general satisfaction, he respectfully solicits a continuance of their favor.
