Tilghman's Island FOR SALE.

This Island is situated in the Chesapeake Bay, at the mouth of Choptank River, and contains by actual measurement 1869 acres of Land, of which at least 900 acres are heavily covered, with Yellow Pine, and White and Red Oak Timber.

It is now cultivated in three farms, all under good fencing, and well tilled—The improvements consist of three tenants houses, two large brick, and one framed quarter, three framed barns, and other necessary farm buildings. It will be sold entire or divided into two parts to suit purchasers, one fifth only of the purchase money will be required to be paid in cash, the balance to be paid in five equal annual instalments, with interest from the first day of January next, when possession will be given. This property is well worthy the attention of dealers in timber and wood, on account of its proximity to the Baltimore and other markets. The purchaser will have the privilege of seeding wheat this fall, and can obtain all the stock and farming implements on the Northern moiety of the Island at a fair price, and on a credit of twelve months. For further information apply to John H. Tilghman No. 2, South street Baltimore, or to

JOHN TILGHMAN,

Centreville, Queen Ann's county, Md.

N. B. Mr. Henry Burrows or Capt. Thos. [illegible], both of whom reside on the Island, will show the premises, to any person wishing to purchase.

LAND FOR SALE.

The subscriber having had bad health, for the last ten years, so much so as to deprive him from attending to his Farms, which is necessary to his interest, and being desirous to close his affairs as soon as possible, will dispose of the following property, below its value.

The farm on which Mr. Ezekial H. Cooper, resided, for, the last two years, about five miles from the Trappe, and one or one and a half from Choptank river, Containing 434 1-2 Acres.

This Farm is laid off in three fields and three lots, the latter is very fine land, capable of producing 150 Barrels of Corn—one of them well set in Clover,—the fields fine land to improve,—there is a new well of first rate water near the Dwelling, and also a fine mineral spring, about 300 yards from the Dwelling. A large quantity of WHITE OAK TIMBER, AND WOOD, can be spared, enough I presume, to pay nearly double the amount of the purchase, which is convenient to deliver on the river,—the situation is considered to be as healthy as any in the neighborhood.

This Farm, was formerly in two, and persons wishing to purchase, can divide it with convenience. I have not rented this Farm for the present year owing to the difficulty of getting seed wheat, and possession can be had on the disposal of it.

Also, one half of the adjoining Farm, containing

150 Acres, more or less,

Belonging to the late Dr. Edward Harris' heirs and myself, with a good supply of

TIMBER,

And is rented for this year to Mr. Edward V. Davis. A part of the purchase money is required to be paid, and the balance on such credit as may be agreed to, and on the payment of the purchase money a good and sufficient deed will be given.

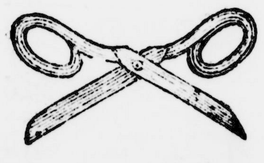

Persons not acquainted with these Farms, by application to Mr. Martin Goldsborough, will be shown them,—not being able myself, as I am confined to my room. For terms apply to

New Weekly Paper

Which is to supercede the Salmagundi and News of the Day.

PUBLISHED EVERY WEDNESDAY

BY C. ALEXANDER, PHIL'D.

Commenced on the first of January 1837.

$500 in Premiums for original Tales, founded on facts connected with the early history of our country.

☞ 25 Biographettes of Distinguished Public characters, accompanied by well executed Portraits, engraved by a talented Artist.

☞ 10 copies of this Journal forwarded by mail to any direction ordered, during one year by remitting a ten dollar note.

☞ Who will deny therefore that the American Weekly Messenger the title selected for the new paper, is not the cheapest vehicle of intelligence that has ever been offered to the public?

READER!

There is in this city, at present no less than four family papers, published every Saturday all of mammoth size, and each conducted with ability and tact. Persuaded that these periodicals are sufficient to supply the actual want of the public, we should have abandoned the fondly cherished desire of entering the list again, with the odds so much against us, if we were not fully impressed with the belief that we shall succeed in rendering our Journal (which makes its appearance on an intermediate day of the week) a necessary link in keeping up the chain of important events which are constantly and hourly transpiring to swell the columns of our new-journals. That we may be properly understood, we herewith present you with a brief analysis of the character and design of our publication:

The Weekly Messenger

Is printed on fine white paper of the largest class, with a clear legible type, and is published every Wednesday, at two dollars per annum to single subscribers. ☞ A five dollar note will pay for four subscriptions for twelve months, forwarded in advance—and an agent, (acting for himself or others, by sending a ten dollar note, will be furnished with ten copies of this Journal for one year.

Original Tales.

One of the popular features of this new enterprise will be the encouragement of American literature that our Journal, therefore, shall be supplied with interesting Tales, we appropriate, every year, Five Hundred Dollars, to be divided into premiums, for the best Tales, descriptive of events connected with the early History of our Country.

Biographettes.

Every other week we publish a sketch of the Life of some distinguished public character accompanied by correct engraved portrait. A gentleman of well known abilities has been engaged to supply this department of our Journal.

European News.

The latest intelligence from abroad is procured from the London and Paris papers, which we receive by the regular packets—a minute and comprehensive knowledge of the leading subjects of interest, which transpires in England and France, is forwarded to us in letters from especial correspondence.

Domestic News.

An Epitome of the most prominent events which are constantly multiplying in our own country is carefully made up—and as a chronicle for future reference will be found of invaluable advantage.

Original Poetry.

We are promised contributions from several persons whose taste lead to cultivate an acquaintance with the muses; a lady of Philadelphia, who is distinguished for her beautiful and chaste compositions has been secured as a regular correspondent. Abundant means, which we shall profit by, are always accessible for obtaining the choicest selections.

Theatrical Notices.

Some part of our columns is appropriated to matters concerning the drama—the liberality of the American public towards the stage has wisely established it as a national amusement its concerns and interests therefore legitimately belong to a well conducted newspaper.

Sporting Affairs.

The Turf, particularly we feel ourselves called on to attend to—all other topics that may be considered of interest to sportsmen generally will meet with our especial care.

Bank Note and Stock Register.

Authentic information will be obtained, to enable our readers to form a correct estimate of the value of Stocks and the rates of discount—we are well aware of the exciting interest which prevails at all times regarding the fluctuations in this extensive branch of business.

The Salmagundi.

An amusing melange of Light Reading we be judiciously selected every week, that we may, gratify the tastes of our numerons readers, whose good sense and liberal dispositions lead them to relish whatever pertains to sterlin and genuine humor. No expense will be spared in supplying appriate embellishments for the subjects which shall be chosen.

The Songster's Manual.

Under this title, we devote a part of a column every number to the most pleasing ballads of the day—many of them will be set to music. This is considered a gratifying addition to the uncommon attractions which we have managed to adopt for the prosperity and success of our NEW Journal.

The publisher is well known to the reading public—a connection with them for upwards of twenty years has largely increased his facilities of usefulness, and he is satisfied with the means he now possesses and his already very extensive subscription list, that this new enterprise, offering such powerful inducements for patronage, will meet with the most unequivocal manifestation of public support and approbation.

The terms have been already stated—it may be well to repeat that ten copies of the weekly Messenger will be sent to any part of the United States for one year, by forwarding a ten dollar note, free of postage.—The paper is published punctually every Wednesday morning

☞ All letters, postage paid, addressed to CHARLES ALEXANDER, Athenian Buildings, Franklin Place, Philadelphia, will meet with the earliest attention. A Postmaster's certificate of the mailing of any specedrum will be a sufficient guarantee of the ipteliea such remittance.
