the end of the said land of the said John Medley at a marked tree on the edge of a huckleberry swamp, containing two hundred acres more or less, and also the parcel of land lying in the Harbour, bounding on the south with Potomack river on the the east with Floods Creek, on the west with Kings Creek on the north with a line drawn from a branch near the Kings Bridge east into Floods Creek, containing three hundred acres more or less, and also all that parcel of land lying in the head of Kings Creek aforesaid bounded on the south with the said Creek on the west and north with the marsh and swamp of the said Creek and with a line of marked trees drawn east from a fresh run into the wood for the length of one hundred and twenty five perches, on the east with a line of marked trees from the end of the former line south until it intersects a parallel drawn from a branch into Kings Creek called Mundays branch containing three hundred acres more or less and likewise all that parcel of land lying on the west side of the marsh near the head of Kings Creek aforesaid, beginning at a marked oak near a marshy branch called Robats Branch and running north north east and north east by north by the marsh side for the length of one hundred sixty and five perches into a marked Pocketchinny tree, bounding on the north with a line drawn north west from the said Pohecoy for the length of one hundred perches, on the west with a line drawn south south west into Robats Branch, on the south with the said branch, on the east with the said Marsh containing one hundred and fifty acres more or less; and likewise all that parcel of land lying near Kings Creek aforesaid called Robats Neck, beginning at a marked oak near a branch called Robats Branch, bounding on the east and south with the said Creek, on the west with a branch called Thompsons branch, on the north with a line drawn from the head of a marshy branch called Manapicks branch, northwest into Robats branch containing and now laid out for one hundred acres more or less, all which said several parcels of land herein before expressed contain in the whole twelve hundred and fifty acres be it more or less, together with all wood, groves, mines, royall mines excepted, waters, fishings, fishing places, and all other profits and commodities in and upon the same land, saving to us and our heirs our royal jurisdiction and signing as absolute Lord and Proprietary of the said Province. To have and to hold the same unto him the said John Medley his heirs and assigns forever to be holden of us and our heirs as of our manor of East St. Mary's in free and common soccage by fealty only for all services, yielding and paying therefore yearly unto us and our heirs at our usual receipt at St. Mary's one pound five shillings in money sterling or twelve bushels and a half of good corn at the feast of the nativity of our Lord. Given at Saint Mary's under our great seal of our said Province of Maryland the twentieth day of June in the year of our Lord one thousand six hundred fifty and one.

Witness our said Lieutenant, William Stone

In Testimony that the aforegoing is a true Copy from Liber 8 B & H folio 189 one of the records belonging to the Western Shore Land Office of Maryland. I have hereto set my hand and affixed my official seal this 26th day of February 1844

John Brewer Reg. Ld. Off. W.S.

Mem.: By the next roll the aforesaid land is called "Medley".

John Brewer Reg. Ld. off. W.S.

Mr. Thomas James his patent 71 acres Coles Addition

Frederick &c. Know ye that whereas Thomas James of Saint Marys County by his humble petition to our agent for management of Land affairs within this province did set forth that he was seized in fee of and in a tract or parcel of land called Coles addition lying and being in the County aforesaid originally on the twelfth day of June anno Domini sixteen hundred and eighty eight granted unto a certain Robert Cole for fifty acres under new rent contiguous to which tract the petitioner had discovered some vacant land and being desirous to add the same, he humbly prayed a special warrant to resurvey the aforesaid tract for that intent and purpose and that on return of a certificate of such resurvey he making good rights to the vacancy added and complying with all other requisites usual in such cases might have our grant issued to him thereon, which was granted him and accordingly a warrant on the thirty first day of July seventeen hundred and fifty six unto him for that purpose did issue. In pursuance whereof it is certified into our Land office that the aforesaid tract or parcel of land is resurveyed by which it appears the same clear of elder surveys contains no more than the quantity of forty seven acres, & that there appears to be a deficiency of three acres, and that there is the quantity of seventy four acres of vacant land added, three acres part thereof is applied to make good the deficiency aforesaid, and for the remaining twenty one acres he has paid and satisfied unto Caecilius Lord Baron Proprietary agent and Receiver General for use as aforesaid the sum of one pound one shilling sterling caution for the same, as the sum of one shilling sterling for some improvements mentioned to be made thereon according to Charles Lord Baron of Baltimore our great grandfather of noble memory his instructions to Charles Carroll Esquire his then agent, bearing date at London the 12th day of September seventeen hundred and twelve and registered in our Secretary's office of our said province, together with a special warrant of our dear father's instructions bearing date at London the fifteenth day of December seventeen hundred and thirty eight and registered in our Land office. We do therefore hereby grant and confirm unto him the said Thomas James all that the aforesaid tract or parcel of land now resurveyed with the vacancy added reduced into one entire tract and still called Coles Addition. Beginning at a post erected in the second boundary of the said land, running thence north north east forty perches, north by east thirty four perches, north west fifty two perches, south eighteen degrees west seventy four perches ~~perches~~ south west by west one hundred perches, south south west twenty perches, south east eighty perches, north thirty three degrees east sixty eight perches, thence with a straight line to the beginning containing seventy one acres of land more or less, according to the certificate of resurvey thereof taken and returned into our Land office bearing date the third day of January seventeen hundred and fifty seven and there remaining together with all rights profits, benefits & privileges thereunto belonging, royal mines excepted, To have and to hold the said unto him the said Thomas James his heirs and assigns forever to be holden of us and our heirs as of our manor of Beaver Dam in fee and common soccage by fealty only for all manner of services, yielding and paying therefore yearly unto us and our heirs at our