John Johnson Clk.

Henry L. Schubly & Henry Lewis (vs)
Richard Ragan & T. D. Macgill & others

Be it remembered, that now here on the first Monday in December being the second day of the said month, in the year of our Lord, one thousand, eight hundred and thirty three, Chancellor of Maryland, in pursuance of the Directions of the act of Assembly in such case made and provided, transmit to the Court of Appeals here, the record of Proceedings of a cause, which was lately depending before him in the court of Chancery, between Henry L. Schubly and Henry Lewis Complys, and Richard Ragan, T. D. Macgill and others, defendants

and

and wherein the said Court of Chancery passed a decree for the said Richard Ragan, T. D. Macgill & others, against the said Henry L. Schubly & Henry Lewis, and for their said decree the said Henry L. Schubly and Henry Lewis, appealed to the court of Appeals here, the tenor of which said record of proceedings is in words following to wit,

The record bound up in book P.T. No. P.B.

And now come into the court of Appeals here, as well the said Henry L. Schubly & Henry Lewis by Franklin Anderson & William Price, their attorneys, as the said Richard Ragan, T. D. Macgill & others, by Nathaniel Williams, their attorney; and thereupon, on motion, of the said Richard Ragan, T. D. Macgill & others by their attorney aforesaid, it is ruled by the Court here, that the said Henry L. Schubly & Henry Lewis, assign the errors in the record of proceedings aforesaid, or in the giving the decree aforesaid to as aforesaid brought before the court of appeals here, for correcting the errors supposed to be therein, or Judgment by the Court of appeals here, will be entered against them in default thereof, And the said H. L. Schubly & Henry Lewis, by their attorney aforesaid say that in the record of Proceedings aforesaid, and also in the giving of decree there is manifest error in this, to wit, that by the record aforesaid it appears that the decree aforesaid in the cause, aforesaid given, was made said Richard Ragan, T. D. Macgill & others, against the said Henry L. Schubly, & Henry Lewis, when by the law of the land, that decree ought to have been given for the said Henry L. Schubly & Henry Lewis, against the said Richard Ragan, T. D. Macgill & others, therefore he the said there is manifest error, and they pray that the decree aforesaid for that error and other being in the record of proceedings aforesaid, may be reversed annulled, and held entirely as void, and that they the said Henry L. Schubly & Henry Lewis, may be restored to all things which they have lost by execution of the said decree, and that the said Richard Ragan, T. D. Macgill & others may rejoin to the errors aforesaid, &c. And thereupon it is ruled by the Court of appeals here, that the said Richard Ragan, T. D. Macgill & others, join in the errors by the said Henry L. Schubly & Henry Lewis above assigned in the record of Proceedings aforesaid, or judgment by the court of Appeals here, will be rendered against them, in default thereof, And the said Richard Ragan, T. D. Macgill & others, by their attorney aforesaid, pray that a day may be given to them, to join in the errors, by the said Henry L. Schubly & Henry Lewis, above assigned in the record of proceedings aforesaid, until the 2d Monday in June next, and to them it is granted; the same day is also given to the said Henry L. Schubly and Henry Lewis,

At which said second Monday in June being the ninth day of the said Month in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred & thirty four, which said day was given to the said Richd. Ragan, T. D. Macgill & others, to join in the errors by the said Henry L. Schubly & Henry Lewis, above assigned, come again into the Court of Appeals here, the parties aforesaid, by their attorneys aforesaid, and the said Richard Ragan & T. D. Macgill & others, by their attorney aforesaid say their is no error in the record of proceedings aforesaid, nor in the given of the decree aforesaid, and they pray that the Court of appeals here will
