POETRY.

THE SLEEPING INFANT.

From Flowers of Ebor. By Thomas Crossly.

How calm thy sleep, my little one!
Gift of a hand divine!
Care has no wreath to place upon
That lily brow of thine:

Yet on thy cheek are tears of grief,
Like pearl drops on a flower;
Frail emblems of thy sorrows brief
At evening's lonely hour.

Yet thou wilt wake to boundless glee
When dewy morn appears,
Nor e'er remember'd more will be
Thy bitter evening tears.

But what are these thy hopes which share?—
Thy feeble hands which fill?—
Thou'rt grasping with a miser's care
The little playthings still;

Come yield to me each useless toy,
Till morn's young beams shall peep;—
Nay, struggle not!—can'st thou enjoy
These trifles in thy sleep?

'Tis thus with man, whom old age brings
To life's declining vale,
He weeps at Time's stern call, and clings
To trifles just as frail!

Tilghman's Island FOR SALE.

This Island is situated in the Chesapeake Bay, at the mouth of Choptank River, and contains by actual measurement 1869 acres of Land, of which at least 900 acres are heavily covered, with Yellow Pine, and White and Red Oak Timber.

It is now cultivated in three farms, all under good fencing, and well tilled—The improvements consist of three tenants houses, two large brick, and one framed quarter, three framed barns, and other necessary farm buildings. It will be sold entire or divided into two parts to suit purchasers, one fifth only of the purchase money will be required to be paid in cash, the balance to be paid in five equal annual instalments, with interest from the first day of January next, when possession will be given. This property is well worthy the attention of dealers in timber and wood, on account of its proximity to the Baltimore and other markets. The purchaser will have the privilege of seeding wheat this fall, and can obtain all the stock and farming implements on the Northern moiety of the Island at a fair price, and on a credit of twelve months. For further information apply to John H. Tilghman No. 2, South street Baltimore, or to

JOHN TILGHMAN,
Centreville, Queen Ann's county, Md.

April 1. 5t

N. B. Mr. Henry Burrows or Capt. Thos. Smith, both of whom reside on the Island, will show the premises, to any person wishing to purchase.

LAND FOR SALE.

The subscriber having had bad health, for the last ten years, so much so as to deprive him from attending to his Farms, which is necessary to his interest, and being desirous to close his affairs as soon as possible, will dispose of the following property, below its value.

The farm on which Mr. Ezekial H. Cooper, esided, for the last two years, about five miles from the Trappe, and one or one and a half from Choptank river,

Containing 484 1-2 Acres.

This Farm is laid off in three fields and three lots, the latter is very fine land, capable of producing 150 Barrels of Corn—one of them well set in Clover,—the fields fine land to improve,—there is a new well of first rate water near the Dwelling, and also a fine mineral spring, about 300 yards from the Dwelling. A large quantity of WHITE OAK TIMBER, AND WOOD, can be spared, enough I presume, to pay nearly double the mount of the purchase, which is convenient to deliver on the river,—the situation is considered to be as healthy as any in the neighborhood.

This Farm, was formerly in two, and persons wishing to purchase, can divide it with convenience. I have not rented this Farm for the present year owing to the difficulty of getting seed wheat, and possession can be had on the disposal of it.

Also, one half of the adjoining Farm, containing

150 Acres, more or less,

Belonging to the late Dr. Edward Harris' heirs and myself, with a good supply of

TIMBER,

And is rented for this year to Mr. Edward V. Davis. A part of the purchase money is required to be paid, and the balance on such credit as may be agreed to, and on the payment of the purchase money a good and sufficient deed will be given.

Persons not acquainted with these Farms, by application to Mr. Martin Goldsborough, will be shown them,—not being able myself, as I am confined to my room. For terms apply to

E. P. ROBERTS & SANDS & NEILSON

Having purchased the Establishment of the FARMER & GARDENER.

Successor to the

AMERICAN FARMER,

And being desirous to place it within the reach of every agriculturist in the United States, have concluded to reduce its subscription price from five dollars, to two dollars and a half, per year, from and after the beginning of the next volume, which will commence in May next.

It is now nearly eighteen years since the American Farmer was first established. Prior to its institution, there were no paper exclusively devoted to agriculture in the country, and it will not be arrogating any thing but what it deserves, to say, that, as it was the pioneer in the good work, the labors of its former conductors must have been productive of much solid advantage to those for whose benefit it was established. In continuing its publication, the present proprietors flatter themselves that its pages will be found to contain matter at once calculated to instruct & interest the agricultural reader. So far as they are concerned, they are determined to conduct it with industry, unflinching perseverance, & with undivided attention to the great and important purposes which called it into existence. They feel certain that none of its patrons will have cause to complain, at the end of their subscription year, that they have left any effort unessayed to render it worthy of their confidence and support.

In reducing its subscription price, they have ventured upon an experiment full of risk and responsibility, and as they have done so under the influence of motives which they must be permitted to say should commend it to a greatly increased subscription—as they can a lone look to that as the source of their remuneration—and as in so doing, their labor will be much increased—they appeal to its present patrons to aid them in giving it an extended circulation. They are confident that those who now honor them with their support, can, without personal inconvenience, in their own immediate neighborhoods, and among their persona' friends, by using their deserved influence, procure such an addition to their present list of subscribers, as will not only realize their fondest expectations; but place them under renewed obligations of interest and gratitude, to render the Farmer and Gardener a welcome visitor to the fireside of every farmer and planter.

The farmer and Gardener will at once be a faithful repository of original communications from practical agriculturists and horticulturists, and of judicious selections from every other available source. Foreign, and domestic agricultural, and scientific works, will be constantly resorted to, for the purpose of furnishing materials calculated to advance the prosperity and happiness of the country, and of adding to the intelligence of the American husbandman.

In fine, whatever concerns the business, of the farm, domestic animals of all kinds, newly invented implements of husbandry, those of approved utility now in use, together with the principles and practice of agriculture, horticulture, and gardening generally, will be regularly and conscientiously noticed. The prices of produce in this market, and the value of bank notes will be weekly laid before its readers.

With a view of keeping their patrons advised of all superior breeds of animals already introduced, or which may be hereafter imported, they will sieze the earliest opportunity of translating all such information to the columns of their journal.

TERMS, &c.

Price two dollars and fifty cents per annum or all subscriptions paid in advance, or within one month from the date of subscription—all subscriptions which remain unpaid beyond that period, will be charged at the rate of three dollars per year.

TO THE PUBLIC.

I hereby forwarn all persons from receiving a sealed bill of mine, to Thomas Cloud, bearing date 17th March 1837, for $100 00. —Also another sealed bill of mine, to said Cloud, of same date for about $60 or 70. As I am determined to resist the payment of the same, the said Cloud having swindled the subscriber out of the same and since absconded.
