POETRY.

From the Philadelphia Saturday News.

We introduce to our readers to-day, the production of a gifted sister of a late lamented and distinguished officer of our navy.—'The Wish' breathes the true spirit of poetry, and such as we should be pleased to welcome often to our columns.

THE WISH.

BY S. W. PERRY, SISTER OF THE LATE COMMODRE, O. H. PERRY, U. S. NAVY.

Oh! were I yonder planet fair,
Through the wide arch of heav'n to soar;
Or might her gentle empire share,
A mortal with a spirit's power.

Enrob'd in train of silv'ry light,
Bedeck'd with many a starry gem;
Half hid in veil of ether bright,
And crown'd with crescent diadem.

High on the feath'ry clouds I'd sail,
And glance o'er all the scene below;
And far on forest, hill and dale,
My glit'ring beams of life bestow.

The hoary Alpine tops I'd climb,
Where steps of man yet never dare,
Where icy pillars rise sublime,
And hang my diamonds sparkling there.

Or wind through deepest glens my way,
Where silence dwells in endless sleep,
Or on the foaming cat'ract play,
Or through the forest pathway creep.

But most where youthful lovers rove,
When dew drops bend each flow'ry stem.
By rippling stream, or rustling grove,
My smiles should bless the scene for them.

And where the widowed mourner sighs,
I'd gently steal and linger near,
Win sleep to soothe her tearful eyes,
Or all her lonely vigil share.

And say I've seen that distant grave,
Where her fond steps must never stray;
And where its dewy flow'rets wave,
Nightly should beam my trembling ray.

To the lone sailor I would come,
Over the pathless, billowy deeps,
Where, musing on his far off-home,
His silent watch he pensive keeps.

For him I'd chase the midnight gloom,
The waves in sheeted silver spread;
For him the dancing spray illume,
And rays of soft effulgence shed.

When rushing winds are raging high,
And hoarsely roars the ocean storm;
And thro'ning sea, and black'ned sky,
The wide and dread expanse deform;

My struggling beams should seek him where
His reeling bark is tempest driv'n,
Burst through the storm his hopes to cheer
And point his fainting trust to Heaven.

LAND FOR SALE.

The subscriber having had bad health, for the last ten years, so much so as to deprive him from attending to his Farms, which is necessary to his interest, and being desirous to close his affairs as soon as possible, will dispose of the following property, below its value.

The farm on which Mr. Ezekial H. Cooper, resided, for the last two years, about five miles from the Trappe, and one or one and a half from Choptank river,

Containing 434 1-2 Acres.

This Farm is laid off in three fields and three lots, the latter is very fine land, capable of producing 150 Barrels of Corn—one of them well set in Clover,—the fields fine land to improve,—there is a new well of first rate water near the Dwelling, and also a fine mineral spring about 300 yards from the Dwelling. A large quantity of WHITE OAK TIMBER AND WOOD, can be spared, enough I presume, to pay nearly double the amount of the purchase, which is convenient to deliver on the river,—the situation is considered to be as healthy as any in the neighborhood.

This Farm, was formerly in two, and persons wishing to purchase, can divide it with convenience. I have not rented this Farm for the present year owing to the difficulty of getting seed wheat, and possession can be had on the disposal of it.

Also, one half of the adjoining Farm, containing

150 Acres, more or less,

Belonging to the late Dr. Edward Harris' heirs and myself, with a good supply of

TIMBER,

And is rented for this year to Mr. Edward V. Davis. A part of the purchase money is required to be paid, and the balance on such credit as may be agreed to, and on the payment of the purchase money a good and sufficient deed will be given.

Persons not acquainted with these Farms, by application to Mr. Martin Goldsborough, will be shown them,—not being able myself, as I am confined to my room. For terms apply to

E. P. ROBERTS & SANDS & NEILSON

Having purchased the Establishment of the FARMER & GARDENER.

Successor to the

AMERICAN FARMER,

And being desirous to place it within the reach of every agriculturist in the United States, have concluded to reduce its subscription price from five dollars, to two dollars and a half, per year, from and after the beginning of the next volume, which will commence in May next.

It is now nearly eighteen years since the American Farmer was first established. Prior to its institution, there were no paper exclusively devoted to agriculture in the country, and it will not be arrogating any thing but what it deserves, to say, that, as it was the pioneer in the good work, the labors of its former conductors must have been productive of much solid advantage to those for whose benefit it was established. In continuing its publication, the present proprietors flatter themselves that its pages will be found to contain matter at once calculated to instruct & interest the agricultural reader. So far as they are concerned, they are determined to conduct it with industry, unflinching perseverance, & with undivided attention to the great and important purposes which called it into existence. They feel certain that none of its patrons will have cause to complain, at the end of their subscription year, that they have left any effort unessayed to render it worthy of their confidence and support.

In reducing its subscription price, they have ventured upon an experiment full of risk and responsibility, and as they have done so under the influence of motives which they must be permitted to say should commend it to a greatly increased subscription—as they can allone look to that as the source of their remuneration—and as in so doing, their labor will be much increased—they appeal to its present patrons to aid them in giving it an extended circulation. They are confident that those who now honor them with their support, can, without personal inconvenience, in their own immediate neighborhoods, and among their persons' friends, by using their deserved influence, procure such an addition to their present list of subscribers, as will not only realize their fondest expectations; but place them under renewed obligations of interest and gratitude, to render the Farmer and Gardener a welcome visitor to the fireside of every farmer and planter.

The farmer and Gardener will at once be a faithful repository of original communications from practical agriculturists and horticulturists, and of judicious selections from every other available source. Foreign, and domestic agricultural, and scientific works, will be constantly resorted to, for the purpose of furnishing materials calculated to advance the prosperity and happiness of the country, and of adding to the intelligence of the American husbandman.

In fine, whatever concerns the business, of the farm, domestic animals of all kinds, newly invented implements of husbandry, those of approved utility now in use, together with the principles and practice of agriculture, horticulture, and gardening generally, will be regularly and conscientiously noticed. The prices of produce in this market, and the value of bank notes will be weekly laid before its readers.

With a view of keeping their patrons advised of all superior breeds of animals already introduced or which may be hereafter imported, they will sieze the earliest opportunity of translating all such information to the columns of their journal.

TERMS, &c.

Price two dollars and fifty cents per annum or all subscriptions paid in advance, or within one month from the date of subscription—all subscriptions which remain unpaid beyond that period, will be charged at the rate of three dollars per year.
