Answer. She always considered him as such.

Question Did not Stone receive all the funds arising from the sale, of your deceased Husbands estate?

Answer. He was the agent to receive the funds, but Deponent does not know that the whole amount of funds have been received by him;

Question Was not part of your property, also sold by said Stone at the time of said sale;

Answer. There was a legacy left to her daughter;

Question. What was the legacy & by whom bequeathed;

Answer. A servant man & other property, all her late brother William Hoskin Smoot, died possessed of, bequeathed to her daughter by her said brother;

Question. of what kind did the property consist of which was sold by said Stone belonging to you.

Answer. A horse, one cart & oxen, house hold & kitchen furniture and plantation utensils, all the funds arising from these sales were given to said Stone?

Question. For what purpose were the funds arising from the sale of your own, and your infant daughters property given to said Stone;

Answer. For the purpose of paying off the claims held by John Mathews against her husbands Estate

Question Did or did not said Stone request you to permit your infant daughters property which was sold by him, to be sold for the purpose of paying off these claims.

Answer He did; this Deponent received eighty Dollars only, part of the proceeds of the sales of part of her infant daughters personal property from said Stone, the further sum of one hundred dollars was received by Deponent, but does not know whether it constituted part of the proceeds of the sale of her own or her infant daughters property to pay off a debt due Hugh Cox from her deceased husbands estate, said Cox bought personal property at the sale of her deceased husband to the amount of one hundred dollars, he refused to pay alleging he had a claim against the real estate of her late husband, which Deponent lived on, and claimed the rent from Deponent to be settled in the way of his purchase, it is the impression of Deponent that said Cox executed his note for the amount of said purchase;

Question; Do you or do you not know whether the one hundred dollars which you received from said Stone, was a part of the proceeds of your individual property;

Answer. I do not.

Question. Did or did not said Stone about three weeks previous to the sale of land, visit you, and inform you that the Sheriff was proceeding to advertise the land and that he was going about to collect money to pay off the claims for which the land was advertised;

Answer Said Stone called on Deponent & informed her that he had directed the Sheriff to advertise the land, and that he intended to go around and make arrangements or collections for the purpose of paying off the claims, he asked of Deponent information were the gentlemen resided who made purchases at the sale of the personal estate, and she gave it to him, Deponent asked said Stone if he intended to advertise all the land: said Stone told Deponent he did. which she opposed, Deponent told said Stone, it would be better to reserve the land where Miss Nancy Hawkins lived, said Stone replied, why not advertise all the land; as well as Deponent recollects Deponent observed to said Stone she wanted information, She Deponent stated to said Stone that she wanted further conversation with him, on the subject replied he wanted rest, and took his leave, Deponent did not again see said Stone till the land was sold;

Question - Had you after the conversation with said Stone last above detailed and previous to the sale of the land any communication with him on the subject;

Answer None to her Knowlege.

Question - At what time did you hold the conversation last above detailed with said Stone;

Answer - She does not recollect but it was sometime last fall and on the day which he said Stone informed Deponent, he had given directions to the Sheriff to advertise said land;

Question Did said Stone ever inform you that he had become the owner of these executions.

Answer He never did;

Question - Did said Stone ever inform you, previous to the sale of the lands that he had ceased to be your agent and attorney?

Answer. He did not.

Question - did you know the day of sale, when the lands were to be sold:

Answer - She had no notice of the day of sale:

Question by the Purchasers - When was the land first advertised for sale to your knowlege;

Answer - She does not recollect.

Question Do you know that the land was advertised more than once before it was sold;

Answer She does not know. She had been informed the land was advertised; but never saw the advertisement,

Question - Do you know that said Stone ever got from your house an advertisement to sell the land before the land was sold;

Answer. She does not recollect;

Question - Did or did not said Stone tell you, and if so, at what time that the land could not be saved;

Answer - She does not recollect, but said said Stone told this Deponent about twelve months ago the claim of John Mathews must be first paid, then to have the lands fairly brought into Market to suit purchasers, and advised Deponent to sell the personal property to pay said Mathews' claim;

Question - Did you not ask said Stone to try & save part of the land;

Answer - She does not recollect;

Question - Did or did not Mr Stone inform you the amount of the Judgments?

Answer - She does not recollect; He told her there was a large amount