In the name of God Amen. I Smith Hawkins of Charles County and State of Maryland being at this time in ill health but of sound disposing mind memory and understanding (thanks to Almighty God for the same) do make this my last will and testament in manner and form following to wit; It is my will that my lands shall be divided into two parts by an East and West line drawn to intersect a spring known by the name of The White Marsh Spring" all that part which lies to the North of the said line - I give and bequeath unto my beloved wife Ann Hawkins for & during her natural life - she to furnish comfortable board and lodging to all my daughters during their single lives while they shall chuse to remain with her, and after the death of my said wife; It is my will that the said land shall belong to my son Henry and to his heirs forever, subject Nevertheless to the same duty of affording kind treatment and comfortable board and lodging to my daughters (Page 2) while they shall continue single and chuse to remain with him, The lands lying on the South of the said East & West line, It is my will shall be devided into two equal parts as nearly as may be, regard being had to quantity and quality by two disinterested persons to be mutualy appointed by my sons Henry and John. and when the said land shall be so devided, it is my will that my son John shall have his choice and whichsoever part he shall chuse, shall belong to and remain unto him and his heirs forever, the other part I give and bequath to my son Henry for and during the period of the natural life of my before mentioned wife and after her death to my son John and his heirs forever, It is my will that my son Henry shall not commit waste on the land last devised to him but shall use the same with discretion and good oeconomy. To my
