revelation, induced all the world to look forward with the warmest anticipations for the appearance of some great personage to emancipate mankind from the yoke of tyranny under which the whole world was then groaning.

The misapprehension of revelation led to this mistake. The expected Messiah, or the anointed one, was not sent to deliver man from political servitude, but from the tyranny of sin —from the despotism of his Satanic Majesty —yea, to deliver the whole human family from the galling yoke which sin had riveted upon their souls. The scriptures promised a spiritual Saviour, the world looked for a political deliver, and this mistake appears to have pervaded every BOSOM PREVIOUSLY TO THE ADVENT OF THE LORD JESUS CHRIST.

EASTON HOTEL.

situate in the town of Easton, on the Eastern Shore of Maryland, at present, and for some years past, occupied by Mr. Solomon Lowe. This establishment is universally admitted to be the largest and most convenient for a Public House, of any on the Peninsula and to a man well calculated to conduct it, an opportunity will be offered for doing a very extensive and profitable business, more especially if he has a sufficient capital to carry it on advantageously.

Easton is known as a town of considerable trade, and the Steam Boat Maryland, which plies twice a week between Baltimore, Annapolis, and this place considerably increases the business, and of course adds very much to the value of this establishment, by the constant intercourse of travellers from the different counties on the Western and Eastern shores, and elsewhere with these places.

Possession will be given on the first day of January next. Persons wishing to rent are invited to come and view the premises. The terms, which will be moderate, will be made known by application to the subscriber.

The subscriber does not consider himself bound to purchase property for the accommodation of the Public. He therefore solicits his friends and the public generally, who intend, or are in the habit of crossing Dover Bridge, to come as nearly prepared with silver as the state of the times will justify, and not to leave Easton with their pockets full of rag corruption, under the expectation, of filling them with specie, as he is determined not to be imposed upon longer, by their going over without paying, under the pretence of not being able to make the change. It would take more trouble to collect these sums than three times the amount would be worth.
