But none against owing, dear help mate, on you?

And is it then vanished?—that 'hour (as Othello
So happily calls it) of love & direction,' (1)
And must we, like other found doves, my dear fellow,
Grow good in our old age, and cut the connection?

GOVERNMENT.

Even so, my beloved Mrs. Bank, it must be,—
This paying in CASH (2) plays the devil with wooing,—
We've both had our swing,—but I plainly foresee,
There must soon be a stop to our bill-ing and cooing.

Propagation in reason—a small child or two—
Even Reverend Malthus himself is a friend to:
The issue of some folks is moderate and few—
But ours [yours] my dear corporate Bank, there's no end to!

So,—hard as it is on a pair who've already
Disposed of so many pounds, shillings and pence;
And in spite of that pink of prosperity, Freddy, (3)
Who'd even in famine cry 'd—n the expense!'

The day is at hand, my Papyria (4) Venus,
When, high as we once used to carry our capers,
These soft billets-doux we've now passing between us,
Will serve but to keep Mrs. C—tts in curl-papers;

And when—if we still must continue our love,
After all that is past—our amour, 'tis clear,
(Like that which Miss Danae managed with Jove.)
Must all be transacted in bullion, my dear!

For the Easton Gazette.

Mr. Graham:—Having understood from an advertisement in your paper, that the annual examination of the pupils of the Easton Academy would take place on Thursday and Friday the 17th and 18th inst., a recurrence to early and pleasing associations, induced me once more to cross the threshold of that building, within whose walls my infant ideas, were first taught to shoot. Entering the classical Department, I found one of the junior classes undergoing a pretty rigid scrutiny, at the hands of their venerable looking preceptor, the result of which was that the boys rendered no trifling account of their labors during the past academical year. The several classes were called up & examined according to their respective grades from the lowest to the highest, and all acquitted themselves, in a manner highly creditable to their instructor and gratifying to the friends of liberal education. To those persons in this and the adjoining counties, who have sons to be educated, it must be a source of great satisfaction, to be informed, that the Trustees in placing Mr. Shanley at the head of the Academy, have secured the services of an experienced teacher, an accomplished scholar, a man of high moral worth and one every way calculated to redeem the department over which he presides, from the comparative insignificance, into which of late years it seems to have fallen.

On Friday, I attended the examination of the English school. The boys from the smallest children to lads of fifteen & eighteen years of age, exhibited a thorough acquaintance with the different branches in which they had been taught. The examination was not a mere matter of question & answer, taken verbatim from the book by which the memory alone was brought into action, but the interrogatories went to the understanding, appealed to the pupils for the application of principles, and the answers given were invariably ready and sensible. Mr. Pearson the teacher in this department, is a native of our own county—a young gentleman whose merit alone has brought him into notice—he is certainly a scholar and possesses in an eminent degree, the uncommon talent of imparting his own information to his pupils. Under the auspices of Messrs. Shanley and Pearson the Academy must flourish and its friends have a right to expect the patronage of the public.

A Friend to Education.

PRINCE GEORGE'S COUNTY.—ROBERT BOWIE, one of the nominated Whig candidates for the Legislature having declined a poll, the Convention has been called to meet again on the 26th inst for the purpose of filling the vacancy.—Md. Repub.

Neapoliton Indemnity.—The Bank of America has given notice that the net proceeds of the 4th instalment, amounting to the sum of $285,547 30 will be paid to the claimants on and after the 25th instant—being at the rate of nearly 12 1-4 per cent. on the amount awarded in the certificates.

Florida.—The St. Augustine Herald states that Gen. Jessup has engaged the services of 1000 Indians of different nations, for the ensuing campaign against the Seminoles

The volunteer force called for by Genl. J. from Florida, has been raised and is now rapidly organising. At Newnansville there were about 600 men already concentrated.

From the Leesburgh (Va.) Genius of Liberty.

AMERICAN SILK.

We have received a beautiful specimen of American Sewing Silk, manufactured from the native Mulberry, and reeled and twisted on a common wheel, by a Lady of this County, who had never before mentioned any such work. This proves the extreme simplicity of the manufacture; that expensive houses, and fixtures, are not necessary for that moderate quantity of silk which a great majority of our farmers could raise, by patient industry applied to the plain and simple means within their reach.

The New York Express says that the Collector of that Port has addressed a letter to the Secretary of the Treasury, asking him to postpone the sale of goods that have been in the Public Store three months or more, and which are subject to cash duties

The same paper says that the return freights, from England particularly, are worse than was ever known. Some of the finest freight ships come home with less than twenty pounds freight and several of the Packets with less than two hundred pounds. Were it not for the great number of steerage passengers going both ways, the business would be very ruinous.

Ink Spots.—It is perhaps not generally known that a piece of blotting paper crumpled together to make it firm, and just wetted, will take ink out of mahogany. Rub the spot hard with the wetted paper, when it instantly disappears, and the white mark from the operation may be immediately removed by rubbing the table with a cloth.
