delphia on Tuesday. Mr. WILLIAMS was a ripe scholar and among the very ablest of the editorial corpse.

U. S. SENATORS.—John Davis, one of the able Senators of Massachusetts, is ill at Worcester and John Rugeles, a Senator of Maine was so severely injured by the falling of a portion of a bridge, as to confine him at home.

Office of the N. Orleans Bee; August 24th, 1837.

YELLOW FEVER.—We are sorry to state that this disease has increased since we announced its appearance in the city. The cases that have lately occurred have been very violent and unusually fatal.

RHODE ISLAND ELECTION.—A slip from the Newport Mercury of Thursday gives returns for Congressmen in two towns, as follows:

	Whig.		Admin.
	Cranston.	Tillinghast,	Pearce.	Howard.	Scattering.
Middletown,	67	69	23	20	2
Portsmouth,	108	108	87	86	2

Jamestown gives a Whig majority of 8, being a gain of 12 since November.

P. S. Partial returns from Newport and Tiverton, are favorable to the Whigs. In Newport at 5 o'clock P. M. the Whigs were 213 ahead; at Tiverton near the close of the day, there was a reported Whig gain of 71.

In these towns—Middletown, Portsmouth, Jamestown, Newport and Tiverton, the vote at the Presidential election stood Whig 502—Van Buren 379—Whig majority 123. If the reports in the above account be confirmed the Whigs will have in these towns a majority of 291—being a gain of 168 votes.

The contest has been a close one, and the returns are so incomplete that it would be idle to predict the result.

CONGRESSIONAL ELECTIONS.

ALABAMA.

In this State, the majority of Mr. Lawler (Whig) over his opponent (V. B) is stated by the Tuscaloosa Intelligencer at more than five hundred votes.

ELECTION OF GOVERNOR.—The Mobile Chronicle of the 22d says: "The Governor elect of Alabama is Arthur P. Bagby, Esq. of Monroe, an eminent lawyer of our State, and until lately, a distinguished member of the whig party. Mr Bagby was originally a national republican—a supporter of Mr. Adams, and a warm admirer of Mr. Clay, and, we understand, he holds on with great tenacity to his first love. The leading friends of Mr Clay in this State, although few in number, are active to secure his nomination for the Presidency, in opposition to Mr Van Buren. We presume they may look for a warm and efficient ally in Col B., who, although pledged to support Van Buren in his present administration, because he preferred the sergmajor to the drummer of the Jackson party, is not pledged, we believe, to support his re-election. The friends of Mr. Clay are now very active in every quarter of the Union to elevate him [illegible] next election and they look with no small interest to Alabama and they must be rejoiced to learn that a friend of that great tariffite has been elevated to the Gubernatorial Chair by the citizens of this State, with the tremendous majority of from 3 to 4,000 votes.

IN NORTH CAROLINA.

The Majority of Mr. Reacher (Whig) over both his opponents, is stated, in the Southern Citizen, at two thousand seven hundred and twenty-five votes.

IN KENTUCKY.

It is now reported that Mr Murray, and not Mr Campbell, is elected, against Mr Boyd, the late Administration member, in the first district of this State. It may be so.—But, be it so or not, if both gentlemen are Whigs, the result will not be varied whether one or the other has succeeded.

INDIANA.

The Cincinnati Whig of the 24th inst has the following, which settles the election in favor of Col. Boon.

A Collar Man yet Kicking.—We fear that Col Boon is yet enjoying a political life, notwithstanding our Whig friends have caused us to decapitate him.

The report that Mr. Pitcher, the opposing candidate, having passed on to Washington with a certificate of election in his pocket turns out to be incorrect.

The following statement of the official votes of the district, published in the Indianapolis Journal, and certified to by the Secretary of the State, will prove correct.—

FIRST DISTRICT.

Counties.	Ratliff Boon.	John Pitcher.
Orange,	751	427
Vanderburg,	232	872
Crawford,	235	287
Gibson,	471	984
Harrison,	446	259
Spencer,	864	219
Perry,	324	170
Dubois,	184	286
Pike,	294	256
Warrick,	471	468
Posey,	762
	4514	4467

Boon's majority 47.

A slip from the Cincinnati Post, dated Friday August 25, 8 A M. says:

☞Ratliff Boon, is reelected by a majority of forty seven. He arrived in this city this forenoon, on his way to Washington.

Henry S Fox, Esq. was yesterday presented by the Secretary of State to the President, to deliver a letter from his sovereign, announcing the demise of the late King, and her Majesty's accession to the British throne; and his new credential as Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary of the present Queen of Great Britain and Ireland.—Globe.

THE MADISONIAN.—This new journal at the seat of Government, which professes to be a supporter to the administration, has made its appearance. We have not seen it, but the high encomiums of the Whig press in relation to it, is sufficient to satisfy us the impression we formed of it, from the first, was correct. that it was a wolf in sheep's clothing. We would advise all members of the Republican party to touch not, handle not the unclean thing.—Del. (Van Buren) Gazette.

LATEST FROM MR. BENTON.

Our thanks are due to our correspondents of the Missouri Republican for despatching to us, by the Express Mail, the following letter, written by Thomas Hart Benton to a committee by whom he was invited to a dinner given at Lancaster, Ohio to Mr Allen, the new Senator from the latter State. We publish it, at full length, in order that the Missouri Senator and his friends may have no reason to complain of injustice.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 11th 1837.

Gentlemen. Your most kind invitation to attend the public dinner to be given to the Hon. Mr. Allen, on the 19th inst, has been duly received, and commands the expression of my sincere thanks both for the honor done me and the kind terms in which it has been communicated. Were it in my power to attend, it would give me great pleasure to do so; but the state of my family will require me to remain at home to the last moment, and will not afford me a spare day to stop on the road as I proceed to Washington.

I CONGRATULATE YOU, GENTLEMEN, ON THE SUCCESS OF GENERAL JACKSON'S ENDEAVORS TO IMPROVE THE CONDITION OF THE CURRENCY EXEMPLIFIED IN THE PRESENT PROSPERITY OF THE PRODUCTIVE CLASSES, and in the general capacity of the country to carry on its business, and to measure values by the specie standard, in spite of the stoppage of the banks. That event was expected to annihilate the specie standard of value—to sink the price of labor, of produce, and of property, as low as it fell after the catastrophe of 1819—to effect a revolution in the Government by scourging the country into a change of Administration,—and to humble the democracy into a supplication for the re-establishment of a National Bank to repair the evils of its own mis-government. Those fine expectations have not been realized, thanks to the Eighty millions of hard money which Gen. Jackson's policy had accumulated in the country, and which enables the government and the people to be independent of non specie paying banks, and not only save labor, produce and property from the prices of 1816, but gives them better prices than they received eight or ten years ago, in the palmy days of Bank and Federal dominion, when those who are now crying out misrule, 'tyranny,' and 'ruin,' were themselves in power. The Great Regulator in full operation and the Federal Government and the federal Bank in full concert in regulating the affairs of the country. Reduced to specie, and present prices are far better than they were in that vaunted period, which the croakers of the present day considered as the standard of perfection, and to which they labor incessantly to carry us back. What would the farmers now say to a relapse from present prices to those of 1825-6-7 8? when flour was four or five dollars a barrel, and every thing else in proportion?

Forty five years ago, it was set down on his memorandum book by Mr. Jefferson, that there was a system formed by the federal party to banish gold and silver from circulation, and to deluge the State with paper money. Every year which has since elapsed has given the proofs of the existence and continuance of that system, and the year 1837 would have seen, its success, had it not been for the 80 millions of hard money with which General Jackson had fortified the country. His policy has balked this system in the moment of its anticipated triumph; and I think that his successor is made of the stuff to sustain that policy, and that the democracy of the Union is also made of the stuff to sustain him in doing so.

Enclosed, Gentlemen, I send you a sentiment, which I hope you will find appropriate to the occasion, and to the company.

Yours, most respectfully.

THOMAS H. BENTON.

Messrs JOHN BROUGH, and others, Lancaster, Ohio.

The memory of Mr Jefferson, who wrote down in a book, 1792, what has been attempted in 1837.—The policy of General Jackson which has balked that attempt—and the PRESIDENT and the MEN who are made of the stuff to carry out the policy which Jefferson indicated, and which Jackson has been pursuing.

It was on the 11th of this present month of August 1837, that Thomas Hart Benton a Senator of the United States, ventured to write and afterwards to publish the following:

"I congratulate you, gentlemen, on the success of General Jackson's endeavours to IMPROVE THE CONDITION OF THE CURRENCY, exemplified in the present prosperity of the productive classes."

Now, we should be sorry to believe that there is, amongst the hundreds of thousands who may read this letter, a single individual so utterly ignorant and besotted as to credit this averment.—There is not, in the whole territory of the United States, ONE man, not an idiot or a mad man, who conscientiously believes that General Jackson has 'improved' the currency. It were vain and useless to attempt, at this late day, to show the relative condition of the currency now and at the time when he commenced the experiment of 'improving' it. It was, then, the best that any country ever possessed. It is now the worst. In this contrast every thing is summed up. In this one view, we see at the commencement of the experiment and we see it at the end. All else is surplusage.'

But there are other assertions of this letter equally false and monstrous. The great humbugger twice insinuates that Gen Jackson brought eighty millions of hard money into the country. Every body knows how near the truth this is.—Baltimore Chronicle.

The gale which swept along the southern coast on the 7th inst was felt in full force at Pensacola. Almost every vessel in the harbour, except the vessels of war; dragged her anchor and went ashore. On the following morning the shore is said to have presented a scene of wrecks and ruin never before witnessed. At the Navy Yard the cutter Jefferson and the receiving vessel were both driven aground.

The gale which caused so much injury on our southern coast on the 5th instant, was still more disastrous in the West Indies. Nearly all the houses at St. Thomas' and St. Johns, (Porto Rico) were destroyed by the Hurricane and Earthquake which occurred at the same time.

BALTIMORE MARRET.

Semi-weekly Report.

Office of the American, Aug. 29, 1 P. M.

Wheat.—Since our weekly report of Friday last there has been a considerable fluctuation in the Wheat market. On that day we reported sales of very prime Virginia red at $1 70, but on Saturday prices fell off rapidly, and sales of prime Virginia reds were made at $1 52. Yesterday (Monday) the market rallied under the influence of orders to buy on account of the Brandywine millers, and sales of fair to very prime Virginia reds were made at $1 45 to $1 62 1-2. We quote the range of fair to very prime reds to-day at about $1 40 to $1 50 and possibly $1 62 1-2 for very superior Virginia. We quote good to prime Md. reds at $1.50 a $1.55. Sales of family flour white Md. were made yesterday at $1,62½. About 10,000 bushels foreign were sold yesterday at $1.30 a $1,40.

Corn.—We quote white at 82 a 85 cents, and yellow at 90 a 92 cents. Sales of Virginia at 78 a 80 cents.

Rye.—We quote good to prime Md. at 65 a 70 cents.

Oats.—Have fallen—sales to-day at 31 cents.

☞Runaway.

Was committed to the goal of Talbot county, in the Town of Easton, on Tuesday the 29th day of August last by James Chaplain, Esq. a Justice of the Peace of the State of Maryland, in and for said county; as a runaway a negro man who calls himself Joseph McDaniel. Joe is about five feet, four and three fourth inches high, of a light and pleasing complexion, but has been injured in his left shoulder from a fall; Joe, has large whiskers, hair combed up high in front, and appears to be not more than thirty years of age. Joe, had on when committed a black fur hat with broad brim, about half worn, old striped cassinet trowsers, an old white vest, with brass figured buttons, and an old striped gingham roundabout, and leather shoes. Joe says he belongs to William Gist, Esq of the city of Baltimore. That his master William Gist, purchased him on the 17th day of August last, from a certain David Stewart, Esq. of the said city. That his master William Gist, permitted him to go to the Eastern Shore, with Capt. Robert Dillahay, to get work, or to go to work on his farm near the Trappe, in Talbot county, until his master came over, which he said would be about three or four weeks, that he did not go to the farm, but hired to Mr James Price, for six dollars and fifty cents per month, intending his master to draw the whole of his wages when he came over to the said Eastern Shore Md.

The owner of the above discribed negro man Joe, (if any) are hereby requested to come forward, prove property, pay all legal costs and charges, and release him from imprisonment, within the time limited by law.

Otherwise he will be discharged as the law directs.

JOHN HARRINGTON.
Sheriff of Talbot county, Md.
