the shield of corporate immunities, and conducted by persons irresponsible to the Government and the people? It is believed that a considerate and candid investigation of these questions will result in the conviction that the proposed plan is far less liable to objection, on the score of Executive patronage and control, than any bank agency that has been, or can be, devised.

With these views, I leave to Congress the measures necessary to regulate, in the present emergency, the safe-keeping and transfer of the public moneys. In the performance of constitutional duty, I have stated to them, without reserve, the result of my own reflections. The subject is of great importance; and one on which we can scarcely expect to be as united in sentiment as we are in interest. It deserves a full and free discussion, and cannot fail to be benefitted by a dispassionate comparison of opinions. Well aware myself of the duty of reciprocal concession among the co-ordinate branches of the Government, I can promise a reasonable spirit of co operation, so far as it can be indulged in without the surrender of constitutional objections, which I believe to be well founded. Any system that may be adopted should be subjected to the fullest legal provision, so as to leave nothing to the Executive but what is necessary to the discharge of the duties imposed on him; and whatever plan may be ultimately established, my own part shall be so discharged as to give to it a fair trial, and the best prospect of success.

TWENTY FIFTH CONGRESS.
EXTRA SESSION.
PROCEEDINGS OF YESTERDAY.
September 4.

Reported for the Baltimore Chronicle.

IN SENATE

MONDAY, September 4 1837.

At 12 o'clock, the Vice President called the Senate to order, about 38 Senators being in their seats.

Mr. King of Alabama, presented the credentials of C. C Clay, a Senator from Alabama, for six years from the 4 th day of March last. The credentials were read.

Mr. Rives presented the credentials of W. H Roane, appointed a Senator from Virginia for six years

Mr. King of Alabama, presented the credentials of R. A. Strange of North Carolina, for six years.

The new Senators were then qualified and took their seats.

Mr. King, of Alabama, moved the following order:—

Ordered that a Message be transmitted to the House of Representatives, to inform that House that a quorum of this body has assembled and is ready to proceed to business.

Mr. Wright moved the appointment of a committee to join such committee as the House may appoint to wait on the President and inform him that the two Houses have organized and are ready to receive such communication as he may be pleased to make to them

These resolutions were adopted.

Mr. Grundy moved that the Senate proceed to the election of Sergeant-at-Arms.

Mr. Clay moved to amend, so as to comprehend also the office of Door keeper; which was agreed to.

The motion as amended was then agreed to.

The Senate then proceeded to ballot for Sergeant-at-Arms, when there appeared—for M. Haight, a unanimous vote.

The Senate then proceeded to ballot for Door keeper, to fill the vacancy caused by the election of Mr. Haight, to be Serjeant at Arms, when there appeared on the third ballot 24 votes, (out of 40) for E. Wyer, and he was elected accordingly.

The Senate adjourned at 1 o'clock.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,

MONDAY, September 4.

This being the day fixed by the President's Proclamation for the meeting of the 25th Congress, the House was called to order at 12 o'clock precisely by Mr. Franklin, Clerk of the last House.

Mr. Franklin read the Proclamation in pursuance of which this Congress was convened, and proceeded to call the House, by States, from the Clerk's Roll

Mr. Cushing, of Massachusetts, before answering to his name, entered a Protest against the organization of the House under the direction of an individual not a member of the body, and before the legality of the election of the members of the House, severally, had been tested. The Clerk's Roll, he objected, was made from newspaper reports.

The call was then proceeded in until the State of Mississippi was announced, when

Mr Mercer, of Virginia, after some remarks, upon the mode in which the gentlemen from Mississippi had been elected, and the declaration of his opinion that they were not legally members of the 25th Congress, submitted the following Resolution:

Resolved, That sufficient evidence has not been offered to show that Messrs. Claiborne and Gholson are entitled to seats in this House.

Messrs. Gholson and Claiborne briefly resisted the motion as derogatory to the rights of the State of Mississippi, whose members they contended were duly elected.

The motion was laid on the table.—Yeas 135—Nays 5.

Mr Smith, of S. C., moved that Lewis Williams, of N. Carolina, as the oldest member of the House, be requsted to take the Chair—laid on the table.

The call was then concluded and 224 members answered to their names.

ELECTION OF SPEAKER.

At half past 2 o'clock, on motion Mr. Petriken of Penn., the House proceeded to the choice of a Speaker.

Messrs. Hamer, McKennon, and Jones were appointed Tellers.

When upon the first ballot, the vote stood as follows:

For James K. Polk,	116
John Bell,	103
James Garland,	1
John W Patton,	1
John Pope,	1
Nathaniel Jones,	1
Blank.	1
	224

One hundred and thirteen only being necessary to a choice, and Mr. Polk having 116 votes, he was declared to be duly elected, and was conducted to the Chair by the Hon. Messrs Lincoln and Lewis Williams.

The Speaker returned his thanks to the House in a brief address

The members then appeared and were qualified, by States

Mr Franklin was re-elected Clerk, and the House adjourned.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE.

We received this lengthy document on Thursday night last, from our Post Office, at about 8 o'clock The mail, we understand, arrived before dark, but it takes our active obliging and polite Post Master, a long time to open a mail, be it large or small. The first side of our paper was struck off before we received the Message, we are therefore forced to divide it—the remainder shall appear in our next.

By the papers received by the Steam Boat last evening, we learn that Thos. Allen, Esq Editor of the Madisonian, was elected printer to the House of Representatives, on the 13th ballot,—the settlement of this question has occupied the house for three entire days—on the last ballot the vote stood thus—

For Blair and Rives,	101
Gales and Seaton,	9
Thomas Allen,	113

The Vanites, in this county, are following in the track of their brethren in Dorchester, by endeavoring to get out an Independent Ticket, as they call it, composed of Whigs; but it wont do Gentlemen

We hold all politicians to be enemies to the Whig party who attempt to disturb its unity destroy its organization and defeat its nominations"

[From the Cambridge Chronicle of Saturday.]

Some of the Van Buren men in this county are extremely concerned lest there should not be a ticket of Independent Whigs in opposition to the nomination of the Convention. But they need not be uneasy.—No Whig of intelligence will suffer himself to be made an instrument of by the Van Buren party, for the purpose of destroying the harmony and union of our party. The Whigs well know that the Van Buren party are in the minority, and their only hope of success is in the division of our party Knowing this fact, he must be a poor Whig indeed, who will lend his aid in establishing those principles which he condemns.—But suppose four men could be found, so recreant to the interest of their own party, what prospects would they have of being elected. I venture to say, that there is not a man in the Whig party, however popular he may be, that could obtain fifty whig votes, if he should come out in opposition to the nominated ticket The Whigs of this county are fighting for principles, not men, and they will desert any man, whose acts have a tendency to prevent the establishment of those principles. No gentlemen, we are fully competent to manage our own concerns; at any rate, we shall not go to our opponents for advice. The gentlemen who are now candidates, are all men of good sound understanding, farmers it is true, but not the less valuable citizens on that account Their interests are identified with the interests of the great mass of the people. If elected, they will make good and safe members.

At a general meeting of the Whig committees, from the several election districts of this county in Easton, on Tuesday the 26th August, the following gentlemen were nominated and recommended to the voters of Talbot county, as suitable persons to represent them in the next house of Delegates, viz:—

For the Easton District—John B Kerr
For the Trappe District—John Boyle,
For the Chappel District—F E. Jump

And Josiah Chaplain, Esq. was nominated and recommended as a suitable person for the station of County Commissioner for the Trappe District.

The committee then adjourned to meet again in Easton, on Tuesday, the 5th of September inst. to nominate a candidate for the House of Delegates and a county Commissioner, for the St Michaels District.

On Tuesday the 5th inst. the Committees met in Easton, according to adjournment, and unanimously nominated and recommended to the voters of Talbot county the following gentlemen as suitable persons to represent them in the respective stations for which they were selected, viz:—

Spry Denny for the House of Delegates from the St Michaels District, William Towsend as county Commissioner.

The following resolution was then unanimously adopted.

Resolved, That the persons composing this General Committee will use all fair and honorable means to secure the election of the aforesaid nominees.

FOSTER MAYNARD, Ch'm.
Wm R Price, Secretary.

Our readers, who understand the relation of the Globe to the two segments of the Van Buren party, will know how to appreciate the annexed comment of that paper upon the message. The Globe is the organ of the Levellers and Loco-Focos, and the Globe approves of the message. Put that and that together, and we may see whose councils have prevailed.—Balt Chron.

THE MESSAGE.

This important document is the boldest and highest stand ever taken by a Chief Magistrate in defence of the rights of the people.—We consider it a second declaration. If maintained by the people it will deliver them from the paramount moneyed power of Great Britain. If its principles are surrendered, our political institutions must sooner or later sink under the sordid influence which nations has conquered in another hemisphere the free spirit of the Anglo-Saxon race from which we sprung. Whatever may be the event, this Message will stand an imperishable monument of the genius, firmness, probity, and patriotism of its author.

The National Intelligencer that briefly speaks of it. There will be more anon from this quarter.

We have given up our columns to the Message of the President of the United States to Congress. It is a document confined to the special purpose for which, it appears, Congress was convened It contains very distinct recommendations, embracing substantially the scheme of which the shadow was cast before it from the banks of the St. Lawrence by a distinguished personal and political friend of the President. It is a scheme of which we have in part already expressed our opinion We have today only time and room here to say that it is not probable that it will ever receive the sanction of the Representatives of the People. What further observations we have to make upon the Message are necessarily deferred to a future day.

CONGRESS.

The Washington Globe publishes a list of the members of the House of Representatives and claims a democratic majority of 16 votes.—Nous verrons. The following is its Democratic (V. B.) majority, 16.

The people of the West have described a radiant track, in the footsteps of which the East is determined to tread. Rhode Island has shown a Whig majority of nearly a thousand votes in her late election. The votes stood for Tillinghast, 8621, and for Cranson, 3618; for Pearce, 2569 and for Howard 2501; scattering, 93. Three or four towns not included in this statement, reduces the Whig majorities, 55 votes; but one remains to be heard from. Mr. Tillinghast arrived in this city yesterday, and as much anxiety was felt to ascertain from his own lips the result of the canvass, he at the request of a number of gentlemen, appeared at the Exchange, was received with great cheering, and addressed the assembled multitude in a few appropriate words. There was a meeting of the Whigs here last night, at which resolutions were passed expressive of their satisfaction at the intelligence from Rhode Island, and one providing for a grand salute of a hundred guns to be fired on Saturday next in honor of that State.

Nat. Gazette.

ANOTHER REJOICING.

On Saturday at noon, the Whigs of Philadelphia (city and county) made another demonstration of joy, at the success of the people The great victory in Rhode Island was acknowledged by the discharge of four hundred guns, from four vessels, anchored in the Delaware off Chesnut street, and decorated with innumerable flags on one of which was RHODE ISLAND REDEEMED.' Great praise is due to the gentlemen who superintended the fete, and to those who allowed the use of their ships for such a glorious occasion.

The vessels used, were the Excel, owned by Messrs. Palmer & Hale; the Chester, commanded by ship captains, and owned by Mr D. B. Stacey; and two tow barges, owned by Messrs. C. & F. King. Meantime Captain Joseph Hand, in the cutter Union, fired a national salute while passing in front of the city.

TREASURY DRAFTS.

The New York Journal of Commerce says—'One reason for the high price of Treasury Drafts has been the purchase by the U. S. Bank of $2,000 000, to meet the first payment for the government stocks. That movement we believe is completed.'

At a meeting of the Banks yesterday a majority voted to fix the rate of interest on mutual balances, at 5 per cent, but some of the minority refused to agree to so high a rate.—ib

The Richmond Whig copying from the Richmond Enquirer the subjoined article, remarks that 'Biddle must be a most finished ——— to buy up the Treasury Drafts to offset the claims of the Treasury against him.' We do not know with what epithet the editors of the Whig would supply their ———; but imitating their discretion, we add our opinion that Mr. Biddle would have been a consummate ——— not to have availed himself of the obvious means, presented by the Treasury itself, of meeting the engagements of the Bank to the Treasury.—Nat. Intel.

QUERIES to those who can best answer them.

1st. Is it true, that the Exchange Bank has presented the Treasury drafts, (on the 3d instalment,) which it obtained from the Treasurer of Virginia, amounting to about $450,000 minus 117,000—to the Banks of New York &c. for payment in specie—and that they have since been protested for non-payment?

2d Is it true, that the Exchange Bank has subsequently sold the Protested Drafts to the Bank of the United States—the said Bank pledging itself to pay the Exchange Bank the interest on the amount? And when is the amount to be called for, and in what funds is it to be paid?

3d. Is it true, that Mr. Biddle intends to hold up these drafts by way of offset to the payment of the instalment of a bout a million of dollars, which the Bank of the United States is bound to pay to the Government of the United States, in October, on account of the debt which it owes to the Government, on behalf of the old Bank of the U S?

4th Is it true that the North Western Bank of Virginia has made a similar arrangement with the Bank of the U. S. on account of similar drafts, to the account of about $200,000?

And if these Banks of Virginia have made such an arrangement with the Bank of the U. States, what are we to think of their course—as well as of the course of the U. S. Bank, which thus shaves the protested transfer drafts of the Government, for the purpose of paying its bona fide debt, sometime due to, and withheld from, the U. States?

SPECIE GOING ABROAD

We think it was the Philadelphia Inquirer that a few days since stated distinctly that the government of the United States had been engaged in shipping specie to Europe; if we mistake not a Philadelphia vessel was named as the packet by which the silver went. It appears to us that a measure of such importance should be further investigated. The people ought to know who it is that sends away the specie. If the administration is coming into the market to make purchases and sales, and especially to do those acts for which the Globe has denounced the merchants in good round terms, the people ought to be informed of the fact, in order that they may know who are their competitors. Will the Inquirer give us further information.

U S Gazette.

The facts are exactly as we stated.—If denied by any of the Van Buren Papers, the evidence will be produced and our paragraph confirmed in every essential particular. Our allegation was that the Government had obtained from the Mint in Philadelphia, $90,000 in new coin, and had despatched that coin to Europe for circulation there. This too, in the very teeth of all the abuse which the Globe is heaping upon our merchants for their efforts to save the credit of the country, by making good their foreign obligations The draft was drawn by the Secretary of the Treasury in favor of the Barrings of England. The money was deposited with the agent of the English house on Saturday, transferred to a Steamboat on Sunday, taken down the river and put on board the ship Pocahontas; the whole in new half dollars never in circulation here, but sent for circulation to the English market. Will the Globe or any other authorized paper venture to contradict this statement?

Phil. Inq.

The New Orleans True American denies the existence of the yellow fever in that city to any great extent. The city, it says, is as healthy now as it ever was at this season of the year.

DEATH OF A WHIG MEMBER OF CONGRESS.—We regret to learn from the Nashville Banner, that Col James Standifer, the Member elect of Congress, for the 4th District, in Tennessee, died near Kington, E. T., on Sunday morning, the 20th inst. on his way to Washington. Letters to Gov Cannon, received in Nashville on the 23d inst. communicated the melancholy event.

BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS.—We were shown yesterday morning, a counterfeit one dollar note on the corporation of this city. They may be easily detected—not being as long or as wide as the original note, and the whole execution being palpably inferior. The paper too is much heavier One good mark is that it is deficient in the line on which the name of the Commissioner is written, and which is very plain in the genuine bill. The one we saw had Mr. F Lucas' signature; badly imitated, but the names of all the Commissioners have doubtless been used.—Baltimore Chronicle, Sept 7

OCTOBER ELECTIONS.

The Elections for Delegates to the State Legislature is now not more than a month off, and it becomes the Whigs of Frederick County aye, and of every county in the state to be active in their endeavors to promote the success of their ticket, and to defeat the revolutionary and Shin Plaster Party. Let them receive encouragement from the process of correct opinion in all quarters of the country, and while the light is spreading over the western horizon, let it not be said that Frederick County rests in gross darkness and in error The scales are falling from the eyes of the people and the public are aware of the persons to whom the present distress is justly chargeable; the enormous expenditure of the General government, its assumption of unauthorised power—its whole interference in the currency question—the imposition of the Shin Plasters on the people, while the office holders have a currency which they sell at a premium, are all calculated to arouse the feelings of the people, and induce them to discard all agents who can declare themselves willing to sanction the Bentonian principles. Maryland has not yet sunk into the power of the radical faction, let not Frederick County show an approval of those wild doctrines which are bringing destruction and ruin upon us.—Frederick Herald.

PUBLIC SALE OF VALUABLE LANDS
IN TALBOT COUNTY, E. S.

BY VIRTUE of the authority vested in the subscriber, by the last will and testament of Samuel Harrison, late of Talbot County, deceased, on THURSDAY, the 28th day, and on FRIDAY, the 29th day of the present month (September,) will be sold by public auction the Lands and Tenements hereinafter mentioned and described:—

FIRST,—At the front door of the Court House, in Easton, between the hour of TEN o'clock, in the forenoon, and FIVE o'clock, in the afternoon, of Thursday, the 28th inst., as follows—

No 1. The Farm now in the tenure of Mr. Nathan Harrington, situate on Broad Creek, consisting of the tract called 'Hookland Addition,' containing one hundred and forty-five acres and part of the tract of land, called 'Old Woman's Folly,' containing twenty four acres and one quarter of an acre,—the first parcel thereof being arable and the latter in timber.

No. 2. The Farm, which also lies on Broad Creek, on the opposite shore to that on which the above mentioned Farm is situated, consisting of parts of the tracts called 'Rest Content,' 'Goodwin's Addition' and 'Enlargement,' containing one hundred and thirty-three acres, now in the tenure of Mr. Nicholas Marshall.

N. B. The situation of these two farms, commanding beautiful water views and possessing every advantage desirable in a permanent country residence, needs but to be seen to excite the competition of purchasers.

relative position of these two places and the short and easy navigation to Baltimore, would render the purchase of both together a valuable acquisition to a man of enterprise and capital enough to establish a store, with grain boats, &c.

No. 3 The Small Farm, situate near the Town of St. Michael's and in the neighbourhood of the well known Estate of the deceased, called 'Canton,' being a part of the tract called 'Hap Hazard' and containing fifty-four acres.

No. 4. That beautiful FARM, whereon the late Wm. Harrison, of James, formerly resided, situate on Broad Creek, consisting of the tracts of parts of the tracts called 'Hooper Ensel,' 'Dorothy's Enlargement,' &c., containing one hundred and eight-six acres, more or less. On this place is a commodious and neat Dwelling HOUSE, with other good improvements, and for healthiness and other advantages of situation, it is highly desirable as a permanent residence.

No. 5. That large and valuable ESTATE, situate on Wye River, and near the Old Church, at Wye Mills, consisting of the tracts called 'Witton,' 'Lobb's Crook,' 'Sweet Hope,' &c., containing nine hundred and eighty three acres. The Dwelling HOUSE and Farm HOUSES on this land are new and commodious, and particularly the Barn, which is of great size and built in the most durable manner. The large quantity of land and its capability of advantageous division into two farms, which may be both located on the River, induce the suggestion of a joint purchase by two individuals, who may desire to establish residence on such valuable lands, and a subsequent division agreeably to their mutual views: Or, the subscriber, having entire discretion, would contract with two jointly, by private sale, or lay off and sell the land by parcels, on suitable proposals being made to him

No. 6 That valuable FARM, situate in the Chappel District & in Tuckahoe, called 'Farmer's Delight,' which was formerly the residence and estate of Edward Roberts, Esq., deceased, containing five hundred and thirty seven acres and one half an acre. This Farm contains a large quantity of the very best meadow land, and abounds with good timber. The BUILDINGS are convenient and only require repairs.

No. 7. The FARM and FISHERY, situate on Tuckahoe Creek, consisting of parts of the tracts of land called 'Advantage' and 'Berry's Range,' and containing one hundred and six acres.

SECONDLY—At the Steam Mill, in the Town of St. Michael's, between the hours of TEN o'clock in the forenoon and FIVE o'clock in the afternoon, of FRIDAY, the 29th instant, as follows:—

The Steam, Grist, and Saw Mill, situate in the town of St. Michael's, and on the margin of St Michael's River, and all the machinery, apparatus and fixtures thereto belonging, together with a fee simple title in the lot of ground, heretofore commonly used with the same. This Mill is of a ten horse power, and capable of manufacturing 20 barrels of flour per day.—The buildings are of the most durable materials and of the best workmanship; more particular description need not now to be given, as it is presumed that every person desirous of making a purchase will previously inspect the premises and have the advice of competent judges, and it is thought that the whole establishment will bear the best of such an examination.

No. 9 The BRICK STORE-HOUSE AND LOT, situate in the Town of St. Michaels, opposite the Church, and now occupied by Mr. Rigby Valiant; together with so much of the lot of ground, adjoining thereto, as has been heretofore used with the store House, which will be particularly designated and shown on the day of sale.

No. 10. The Brick DWELLING HOUSE and LOT, situate in St. Michael's, near the Steam Mill. There is a brick store house attached to the dwelling, 20 feet square and fronting on the street.

No. 11. A HOUSE and LOT in St. Michaels's, situate on the East side of Talbot st., running 60 feet in front and 120 feet back; formerly held by Meredith Marshall, deceased.

No. 12. A Frame DWELLING HOUSE and LOT, situate in St. Michael's, and now occupied by Mr. John Sinclair.

No. 13. A HOUSE and LOT, situate in St. Michael's, formerly the property of John Merchant, fronting about sixty feet on the street.

No. 14. A HOUSE and LOT, in St. Michaels, formerly the property of Peter Anderson.

No. 15. The fee simple in the lot ground situate in St. Michael's, whereon the store house of Capt. Thomas Auld stands, the same being leased to him.

No. 16. The HOUSE and LOT, situate in St. Michael's distinguished in the Town plat as No. 42 containing half an acre, but subject to the Dower of Mrs. Deborah Fairbanks.

No. 17. The fee simple of the Lot of ground, situate in St. Michael's on which the Wind-Mill of Wrightson Fairbank stands.

No. 18. Two unimproved Lots, in St. Michaels's adjoining the last above mentioned Lot

The above mentioned lands and tenements will be sold on the following terms:—One fourth of the purchase money shall be paid at the time of sale or within sixty days thereafter, and the residue with interest by instalments, in one and two years, from the day of sale, bonds with such security as may be approved by the subscriber being given; the purchase money remaining a lien on the land. Persons desirous of purchasing such property are invited to a particular and personal view.

THIRDLY. At the Steam Mill in St. Michael's on the said 29th inst, between the hours of 10 and 5 o'clock, will be sold sundry valuable horses, cattle, sheep and hogs, and various farming utensils, and on the next succeeding day, (Saturday, the 30th inst.) at 10 o'clock, in the forenoon, at Rich Neck, the late Dwelling place of the deceased. The Ser. George and Mary of 23 tons burthen, in good condition; also sundry parcels of lumber, building materials, blacksmith tools, bars of iron, corn in the ear, &c. &c.

The terms of the sale of the above mentioned personal property will be as follows—the cash shall be paid on all sums under five dollars, and for all sums above that amount there shall be a credit of six months, notes with sufficient security being given for the payment of the same, with interest from the day of the sale, before the delivery of any part of the property.

JOHN LEEDS KERR,
Executor and Trustee.
