POETRY.

From the Green Thistle No 2

Mr. Pickwick—'As I vas a comin' down street this mornin,' a thinking of my mother inslaw, and the old 'un and the shepherd, a big loafer, went to shoot a little hinnocent dog, right afore my face. So I goes up to him 'Mr. Snook,' says I 'My name ain't Snook,' says he 'Vel,' said I, 'my name ain't Walker, and if so be, Mr. Varmint, that you harms that ere dog, vy, your name will be a thing of no consequence at all,' says I, 'for the hannimal's as good a man as yourself, Mr Snook, and he ain't one bit more afraid of vater.' 'My name ain't Snook,' says he. 'Well then go on,' says I, 'and the next dog you meets take off your hat, and make a low bow to him, cos, ye see, he is the properer hanimal of the two,' says I. Vell I comes home, I sets down and writes this ere little hafecting ditty. So not another word, as the hexecutioner said ven he cut the rope afore the speech was done.'

AN APEAL TO THE DOG KILLER

Loafer, spare that dog!
Touch not a hair of limb!
In youth he fought for me,
And now I'll fight for him.
What injury doth he,
That in his fated head,
The Mayor's stern decree
Must lodge a junk of lead.

My old and faithful dog,
Whose name and wide renown
Have frightened many a rogue;
And would'st thou shoot him down?
Loafer! thy wrath forbear!
Let Honesty go free—
Though mad, he would beware
Of such a thing as thee.

When but an idle boy,
Often with him I roved;
In all their gushing joy,
Him too, my sisters loved;
And him my brothers car,
The fond caress would give,
Loafer! who sent thee here?
Go! let that old dog live.

My heart strings round thee cling,
Close as thy hide, old friend!
Thy honors I will sing,
Thy bite and fame defend.
Old dog! the Mayor brave!
And, Loafer, leave the spot,
While I've a hand to save,
Thy gun shall harm him not.

PUBLIC SALE OF VALUABLE LANDS IN TALBOT COUNTY E. S.

BY VIRTUE of the authority vested in the subscriber, by the last will and testament of Samuel Harrison, late of Talbot County, deceased, on THURSDAY, the 28th day, and on FRIDAY, the 29th day of the present month (September,) will be sold by public auction the Lands and Tenements hereinafter mentioned and described:—

FIRST.—At the front door of the Court House, in Easton, between the hour of TEN o'clock, in the forenoon, and FIVE o'clock, in the afternoon, of Thursday, the 28th inst., as follows—

No. 1. The Farm now in the tenure of Mr. Nathan Harrington, situate on Broad Creek, consisting of the tract called 'Hookland Addition,' containing one hundred and forty five acres and part of the tract of land, called 'Old Woman's Folly,' containing twenty four acres and one quarter of an acre,—the first parcel thereof being arable and the latter in timber.

No. 2. The Farm, which also lies on Broad Creek, on the opposite shore to that on which the above mentioned Farm is situated, consisting of parts of the tracts called 'Rest Content,' 'Goodwin's Addition' and 'Enlargement,' containing one hundred and thirty-three acres now in the tenure of Mr. Nicholas Marshall

N. B. The situation of these two farms commanding beautiful water views and possessing every advantage desirable in a permanent country residence, needs on to be seen to excite the competition of purchasers. ☞ The relative position of these two places and the short and easy navigation to Baltimore, would render the purchase of both together a valuable acquisition to a man of enterprise and capital enough to establish a store, with grain boats, &c.

No 3 The Small Farm, situate near the Town of St Michael's and in the neighbourhood of the well known Estate of the deceased called 'Canton,' being a part of the tract called 'Hap Hazard' and containing fifty-four acres.

No 4. That beautiful FARM, whereon the late Wm Harrison, of James, formerly resided situate on Broad Creek, consisting of the tracts of parts of the tracts called 'Hooper Ensel,' Dorothy's Enlargement,' &c., containing one hundred and eighty six acres, more or less. On this place is a commodious and neat Dwelling HOUSE, with other good improvements, and for healthiness and other advantages of situation, it is highly desirable as a permanent residence.

No. 5. That large and valuable ESTATE, situate on Wye River, and near the Old Church, at Wye Mills, consisting of the tracts called 'Witton,' Lobb's Crook,' 'Sweet Hope,' &c., containing nine hundred and eighty three acres. The Dwelling HOUSE and Farm HOUSES on this land are new and commodious and particularly the Barn, which is of great size and built in the most durable manner The large quantity of land and its capability of advantageous division into two farms, which may be both located on the River, induce the suggestion of a joint purchase by two individuals who may desire to establish residence on such valuable lands, and a subsequent division agreeably to their mutual views: Or, the subscriber, having entire discretion, would contract with two jointly, by private sale, or lay off and sell the land by parcels, on suitable proposals being made to him

No 6 That valuable FARM, situate in the Chapel District & in Tuckahoe, called 'Farmer's Delight,' which was formerly the residence and estate of Edward Roberts, Esq., deceased, containing five hundred and thirty seven acres and one half an acre. This Farm contains a large quantity of the very best meadow land, and abounds with good timber. The BUILDINGS are convenient and only require repairs.

No. 7. The FARM and FISHERY, situate on Tuckahoe Creek, consisting of parts of the tracts of land called 'Advantage' and 'Berry's Range,' and containing one hundred and six acres.

SECONDLY—At the Steam Mill, in the Town of St. Michael's, between the hours of TEN o'clock in the forenoon and FIVE o'clock in the afternoon, of FRIDAY, the 29th instant, as follows:—

The Steam, Grist, and Saw Mill, situate in the town of St. Michael's, and on the margin of St Michael's River, and all the machinery, apparatus and fixtures thereto belonging together with a fee simple title in the lot of ground, heretofore commonly used with the same. This Mill is of a ten horse power, and capable of manufacturing 20 barrels of flour per day.—The buildings are of the most durable materials and of the best workmanship A more particular description need not now to be given, as it is presumed that every person desirous of making a purchase will previously inspect the premises and have the advice of competent judges, and it is thought that the whole establishment will bear the best of such an examination. The BRICK STORE-HOUSE AND LOT, situate in the Town of St. Michaels, opposite the Church, and now occupied by Mr Rigby Valiant, together with so much of the lot of ground, adjoining thereto, as has been heretofore used with the store House, which will be particularly designated and shown on the day of sale.

No. 10. The Brick DWELLING HOUSE and LOT, situate in St. Michael's, near the Steam Mill There is a brick store house attached to the dwelling, 20 feet square and fronting on the street.

No. 11. A HOUSE and LOT in St. Michaels's, situate on the East side of Talbot st, running 60 feet in front and 120 feet back; formerly held by Meredith Marshall, deceased.

No. 12. A Frame DWELLING HOUSE and LOT, situate in St. Michael's, and now occupied by Mr. John Sinclair.

No 13 A HOUSE and LOT, situate in St. Michael's, formerly the property of John Merchant, fronting about sixty feet on the street.

No. 14. A HOUSE and LOT, in St. Michaels, formerly the property of Peter Anderson.

No. 15. The fee simple in the lot ground situate in St. Michael's, whereon the store house of Capt Thomas Auld stands, the same being leased to him.

No. 16. The HOUSE and LOT, situate in St. Michael's distinguished in the Town plat as No. 42 containing half an acre, but subject to the Dower of Mrs. Deborah Fairbanks.

No. 17. The fee simple of the Lot of ground, situate in St. Michael's on which the Wind-Mill of Wrightson Fairbank stands.

No. 18. Two unimproved Lots, in St Michaels's adjoining the last above mentioned Lot

The above mentioned lands and tenements will be sold on the following terms:—One fourth of the purchase money shall be paid at the time of sale or within sixty days thereafter, and the residue with interest by instalments, in one and two years, from the day of sale, bonds with such security as may be approved by the subscriber being given; the purchase money remaining a lien on the land. Persons desirous of purchasing such property are invited to a particular and personal view.

THIRDLY At the Steam Mill in St. Michael's on the said 29th inst, between the hours of 10 and 5 o'clock, will be sold sundry valuable horses, cattle, sheep and hogs, and various farming utensils, and on the next succeeding day, (Saturday, the 30th inst.) at 10 o'clock, in the forenoon, at Rich Neck, the late Dwelling place of the deceased. The Sch. George and Mary of 23 tons burthen, in good condition; also sundry parcels of lumber, building materials, blacksmith tools, bars of iron, corn in the ears, &c. &c.

The terms of the sale of the above mentioned personal property will be as follows—the cash shall be paid on all sums under five dollars, and for all sums above that amount there shall be a credit of six months, notes with sufficient security being given for the payment of the same, with interest from the day of the sale, before the delivery of any part of the property.

JOHN LEEDS KERR,
Executor and Trustee

Easton, Sept. 9, 1837

Commissioner's Sale.

By an order of Queen Ann's county court the subscribers will sell at public sale, at 12 o'clock, on Tuesday the 26th day of September next, in the town of Centreville part of the Real Estate of the late Charles G. Browne, consisting of a valuable Farm situated on Wye River, in said county and containing

379 ACRES.

This farm is bounded for a considerable distance by the river, containing about 400000 cord hills of arable land of the best quality, an extensive

and a sufficient portion of

Wood Land.

The terms of sale are as follows $200 to be paid on the day of sale, and the balance of the purchase money in six, twelve and eighteen months for the proportions of these heirs who are of age, and for those who are minors, as they shall respectively arrive at the age of twenty one years—the purchaser to give bond with approved security for payment of the purchase money as aforesaid, and the whole of the interest annually. Upon the ratification of the sale by the court, and the payment of the whole purchase money, the commissioners will give a deed to the purchaser, and not before.
