Israel Griffith surviving partner of Henry B. Griffith. vs. James B. Dixon and Thomas M. Harris.	Be it remembered, That heretofore to wit, on the seventeenth day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty seven Israel Griffith surviving partner as aforesaid by Joseph I. Speed and Somerville Pinkney his attorneys prosecuted and sued forth out of the Court of Appeals here, a writ of the State of Maryland of Venditioni Exponas to Francis Stevens the late Sheriff of Calvert County directed, in the words and figures following to wit.

Maryland, &c. The State of Maryland, To Francis Stevens late Sheriff of Calvert County
Seal greeting. Whereas at a County Court begun and held Prince Frederick in and for Calvert County on the second Monday in May in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty two a certain Israel Griffith surviving partner of Henry B. Griffith by Judgment of the said Court recovered against a certain James B. Dixon and Thomas M. Harris as well the sum of five hundred dollars current money for his damages which he had sustained by reason of the non performance of a certain promise and assumption to the said Israel Griffith by them before that time made as the sum of seven dollars and thirty three and two third cents for his costs and charges by him about his suit in that behalf laid out and expended whereof the said James B. Dixon and Thomas M. Harris are convict as by inspecting the record of proceedings of the same Court brought before the Court of Appeals for the Western Shore at the City of Annapolis by reason of errors alleged to have been therein manifestly appears: and whereas it hath been adjudged in the said Court of Appeals at the City of Annapolis aforesaid on the first Monday in December in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty three that the said judgment given in form aforesaid be in all things affirmed and ratified and that the said Israel Griffith might have execution against the said James B. Dixon and Thomas M. Harris for as well the damages costs and charges aforesaid as adjudged unto him in the said County Court as also for the sum of ten dollars and seventy seven cents for his damages costs and charges by him sustained by reason of delaying the execution of the judgment aforesaid by means of the prosecuting a certain appeal by the said James B. Dixon and Thomas M. Harris before the said Court of Appeals for the correcting of errors of and upon the premises whereof the said James B. Dixon and Thomas M. Harris are convict as of record it like appeareth: And whereas also on the twenty third day of December in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty three you were commanded, that of the goods and chattels lands and tenements of the said James B. Dixon and Thomas M. Harris being in your bailiwick you should cause to be made the damages costs and charges aforesaid and that you should have those sums before the said Court of Appeals to be held at the City of Annapolis on the second Monday in June then next, to render unto the said Israel Griffith the damages costs and charges aforesaid: on which said second Monday in June in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty four you made return to the said Court of Appeals, that by virtue of the said writ to you directed for that purpose, you had taken a piece or parcel of land called and known by the name of Dividing Branch supposed to contain two hundred acres more or less, of the lands and tenements of the said James B. Dixon and Thomas M. Harris in your bailiwick being to satisfy unto the said Israel Griffith the damages costs and charges aforesaid in the said writ mentioned, which said lands and tenements remained in your hands unsold for want of bidders, so that the said damages costs and charges you could not have as you were by the said writ commanded; therefore you are hereby commanded, that the said lands and tenements so as aforesaid taken you expose to sale, and the money therefrom arising you have before the said Court of Appeals to be held at the City of Annapolis on the first Monday in December next, to render unto the said Israel Griffith the damages costs and charges aforesaid and all such costs as have accrued on the said writ of fieri facias and how you shall execute this writ you make appear unto the said Court of Appeals at the place and on the day aforesaid and have you then and there this writ. Witness the Honourable John Buchanan Esquire Chief Judge of the said Court of Appeals twelfth day of June in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty seven. Issued the 17th day of October eighteen hundred and thirty seven.

(Speed, Pinkney) Richard M. Gill, Clerk.

Which said writ of Venditioni Exponas was thereon endorsed as follows to wit. Damages five hundred dollars current money costs seven dollars thirty three and one third cents Court of Appeals costs Ten dollars seventy seven cents additional costs four dollars and twenty eight, contingent additional costs if land sold under this writ, nine dollars and twenty five cents. To be released on payment of three hundred and thirty seven dollars and twenty one cents with interest from the first of October eighteen hundred and twenty nine till paid and the above costs.

And now at this day, to wit, the said first Monday in December being the fourth day of the said month in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty seven and the return day of the foregoing writ comes into the Court of Appeals here the said Israel Griffith surviving partner as aforesaid by Joseph I. Speed and Somerville Pinkney his attorneys aforesaid and the State Sheriff of Calvert County aforesaid to whom the said writ was in form aforesaid directed, to wit. Francis Stevens gentleman makes return thereof to the Court here, thus endorsed to wit. "Lardy"
