POETRY.

LOOK NOT ON WINE.

Look not upon the wine when it is red.
when it giveth its color in the cup.

PROVERBS XXIII. 31

Look not on wine; although the cup
Be crimsoned with its ruby stain;
Look not:—'tis filled with wormwood up,
And blood, and burning tears of pain—
Its flash is as the red bolt's glow,
Lightning the paths of death and woe.

Look not on wine: Circean spell
Is breathed upon the purple grape:
Changing to phantoms horrible
The godlike mind, the godlike shape,
And dooming with its poisonous breath
The soul to everlasting death.

Look not on wine: its rainbow glow
Reflected is from falling tears;
But ah! it is no peaceful bow
Of promise, in Life's storms and fears—
But is a messenger of wrath,
A fiery meteor on Life's path.

Look not on wine! Oh, who can tell
The victims of its Moloch shrine;
Or speak the soul destroying spell
That mantles o'er the clustered vine—
The withered hearts—the glories fled—
The tears—the blood, that it has shed.

Look not on wine! Your ruddy youth,
Oh! barter not, and spotless fame,
And conscious dignity and truth,
For premature old age and shame—
And heaven, and hope, and all that's thine
For short lived joys Look not on wine!

THE TULIP.

I have less love for thee, thou gorgeous flower,
Than many a hedgerow weed; for thou dost seem
So haughty and unbending, so elate,
Rising alone upon thy pillar-stem,
And looking ever upward, as if naught
Beneath thy turbaned head were worth a g'ance
Oh, thou art a courtier, Tulip! and thine eye
Looks ever to the fount whence favours come,
With greedy avarice. Thou would'st, methinks,
Be a fit emblem for some beings here,
Who proudly flaunt it in as gay attire,
And lift themselves disdainfully as thou;
Like thee, their gaudy show is all their wealth;
In both alike we find a blackened core—
Thou hast no perfume THEY no gentle deeds
To minister sweet incense to the mind
That wastes a thought on them.

Thou hast far warmer eulogists than I,
In thine own radiant climes thou brilliant one!
And I do all, and other than my wont,
To hold harsh thoughts, when any flower is near:
They are the music of mine eyes, and soothe
Like the ear's melody, each angry power
That fain would stir up discord in my soul;—
They are so beautiful, I am all love
When I do gaze on them.
Thou wilt not frown,
Nor shut thy painted leaves in angry mood
To punish mine offence? Thou will not flee
Home to thy brighter land? Though there thou art
The happiest of all Token Flowers that bring Delicious dreams unto the love-lorn maid,*
Telling her in thy silent language, how,
E'en like thy flaming tints, her Selim's heart
Glows with devotion. Thou art honoured there,
Where Sultans hold the "Tulip Feast," mid all
That lavish luxury' fantastic dreams
Or Royal sensuality can ask.
There, amid turbaned courtiers like thyself
And Harem beauties, charming but the eye,
Thy garish, scentless flowers are in place,
But in mine own fair garden plot, methinks,
Save a few lowly ones of gentlest hues,
I would not cherish Tulips.

* A Tulip is, in oriental emblem language, a declaration of love. The name is derived from the word Tulipian, a turban. The feast of tulips is celebrated in the east with great magnificence and luxury.

MARYLAND.

Talbot County, Orphans' Court.

17th day of November A. D. 1837.

On application of Richard Spencer, Executor of John D. Green late of Talbot county deceased—It is ORDERED, That he give the notice required by law for creditors to exhibit their claims against the said deceased's estate and that he cause the same to be published once in each week for the space of three successive weeks in both of the newspapers printed in the town of Easton.

In testimony that the foregoing is truly copied from the minutes of proceedings of Talbot County, Orphans' Court, I have hereunto set my hand and the seal of my office affixed this 17th day of November in the year of our Lord eighteen hundred and thirty seven.

Test, JAS PRICE, Register,
of Wills for Talbot County.

In compliance with the above order

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN,

That the subscriber of Talbot County has obtained from the Orphans' Court of Talbot County, in Maryland, letters of administration on the personal estate of John D. Green, late of Talbot county deceased. All persons having claims against the said deceased's estate are hereby warned to exhibit the same with the proper vouchers thereof to the subscriber, on or before the 20th day of May next, or they may otherwise by law be excluded from all benefit of the said estate.

Given under my hand this 17th day of November 1837.

RICHARD SPENCER, Adm'r.
of John D. Green, dec'd.

Real Estate for Sale.

The Subscriber will sell at private sale, the following Real Estate, belonging to the heirs of the late Rev. Lott Warfield, of Talbot County.

The property consists of a two story Brick House, situate on Washington Street, in the town of Easton, and is at present in the occupancy of Mrs. Gibbs. It is considered one of the most desirable residences in the Town.—It has a handsome Store Room in front, with large Parlor on the second floor, three well finished rooms in the attic story, together with large back building, stable, &c. in the rear.

Next door to the above property is a frame Dwelling now in the occupancy of Mr. Thomas Beaston. This House has also a Store Room in front, and is considered a very desirable stand for business.

Also a Farm situate in King's Creek, Talbot County, distant about 6 miles from Easton, formerly the residence of the late Mr. Daniel O. Elliott, and at present occupied by George Dudley, Esq. This Farm contains from 150 to 200 acres of land, and is well adapted to the growth of wheat and corn.

Also another Farm in the same neighborhood, called Parker Park and Frances Plain, containing about one hundred and fifty Acres, and at present under Rent to Mr. Richard Arringdale. A further description of the above property is unnecessary, as it is presumed those wishing to purchase will view the premises. Any further information in regard to the above property may be obtained by application to Joseph Turner, Esq. of Talbot county. For terms apply to

VALUABLE.

TIMBER LAND. FOR SALE.

THE subscriber will sell at private sale, that valuable Tract of LAND, called "Batchelor's Forrest," the property of the heirs of the Rev. Lott Warfield, deceased, of Talbot county.—The above mentioned tract contains more or less and is situated in Dorchester County, Md., 2 miles from Chickone Creek, & four miles from Vienna. It is mostly heavily timbered with oak suitable for ship building, and to an individual desirous of purchasing it would be a most profitable investment It is estimated that the sale of the refuse wood, for fire wood, would most amply repay the purchase money with a handsome interest. The soil is a light loam, well adapted to the growth of corn and other agricultural products, and after the timber is taken off might be converted into a valuable farm.

400 Acres of Land,

NEW ROUTE OF THE STEAMBOAT

MARYLAND

IN ADDITION TO HER PRESENT

ROUTES.

The Steam Boat Maryland, will leave Baltimore every Sunday morning at 7 o'clock for Annapolis, St. Michaels & Wye Landing, at as Powel's Landing, and return to Baltimore by the same Route every Monday leaving Powel's Landing at 8 o'clock, in the morning

The Boat will pursue the above and her other Routes as heretofore, so long as the weather will permit, that is to say, she will leave Baltimore every Tuesday and Friday mornings, at 7 o'clock, for Annapolis, Cambridge and Easton, and return to Baltimore every Wednesday and Saturday, leaving Easton at 7 o'clock, A. M.

THE ADVANTAGES OF THIS

NEW ROUTE,

will be obvious to the Citizens of St. Michaels and the neighbourhood, the upper part of Talbot, Queen Anns and Delaware, after a short trial The intercourse between Annapolis and Baltimore and their respective places of residence, will certainly be rendered more expeditious, safe & convenient than any heretofore offered to them. It is to be hoped therefore, encouragement will be given to the owners of the Boat to continue this route.

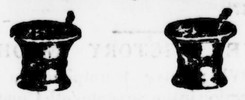

ADVANTAGES.

So long as the Steam Boat shall continue the above routes, St. Michaels will get the news &c. from Baltimore and Annapolis, every Sunday and Wednesday; Centreville every Monday, Wednesday and Saturday; Cambridge every Tuesday and Friday; and Easton, every Monday, Tuesday and Friday.
