POETRY.

THE HUNTER,

Merrily winds the hunter's horn,
And loud the bays of the dogs replying,
When before the shout of the fleet-foot morn
The shadows of night are flying.

Sullen the bear in the deep green wood,
And proud the stag that roams the forest,
And noble the steed with his warlike blood,
That exults when the toil is sorest.

Fair is the land of hill and plain,
And lonely hills in misty mountains;
And the crags where eagles in tempest reign,
And glittering lakes and fountains.

These are the joys that hunters find,
Whate'er the sky thats bending o'er them,
When they leave their cares on their beds behind,
And earth is all fresh-before them.

Day ever chases away the night,
And wind pursues the wave of ocean
And the stars are brother like hunters bright.
And all is in ceaseless motion.

Life is a chase, and so 'tis a joy,
And hope foretells the hunter's morrow;
'Tis the skill of a man and the bliss of boy
To gallop away from sorrow.

LOVE.

BY CHARLES SWAIN, THE MANCHESTER POET

Love! I will tell thee what it is to love!
It is to build with human thoughts a shrine.
Where hope sits brooding like a beautious dove;
Where time seems young, and life a thing divine.
All tastes, all pleasures, all desires combine,
To consecrate this sanctuary of bliss.
Above, the stars in shroudless beauty shine;
Around, the streams their flowery margins kiss;
And if there's heaven on earth, that heaven is surely this!

Yes, this is love, the steadfast and the true,
The immortal glory which hath never set;
The best, the brightest boon the heart e'er knew;
Of all life's sweets, the very sweetest yet!
Oh, who but can recall the eve they met,
To breathe in some green walk, their first young vow,
While summer flowers, with moonlight dews were wet,
And winds sighed soft around the mountain's brow,
And all was rapture then, which is but memory now!

MARL FOR SALE.

The subscriber having made arrangements for disposing of the valuable shell marl, which exists on his estate in Talbot County, informs the Agricultural community, that he is now ready to deliver, of the above article, any quantity that may be required, by giving him timely notice.

The Marl may be taken from the banks at the price of one cent per bushel cash.

The fertalizing properties of calcareous marl are now so well known, that it is unnecessary to advert to the subject—in reference to this deposite it may be stated that it consists of Sea shells, with very little admixture of earth, and contains from 2 to 4 times the quantity of lime that is contained in the best English Marl.—Those wishing to purchase will please address William B. Smyth, Easton, Md. Vessels going for it will pass up the Great Choptank until the Dover Bridge appears in sight—they will then come to Barker's landing where they will find the lands of the undersigned on the west bank of the river.

WILLIAM B. SMYTH.
April 7, 1838

The following is an extract from the report of the Geologist appointed by the state of Maryland to make a minute geological survey of the State.

'But perhaps the most valuable beds of shell marl in this part of Talbot county, inasmuch as they may be made extensively available to the public demands for the article, are those which were fully described in the preceeding report. They occur three miles below Dover bridge, forming the high bank from fifteen to twenty feet above tide, being one compact mass of fossil shells, and extending nearly a mile along the river, on the farms of the late Col. Smyth and Mr. Atkinson. These beds are in contiguous strata, apparently successive and consist of vast accumulations principally, in the ascending order, of oyster shells succeeded by clam shells intermixed with other marine shells, scollop, clam and scollop, and uppermost principally of scollop. Endeavor was made to bring these beds into notice, with a view of enlisting them into public service, by giving to their proprietors what was deemed proper directions for extracting the materials, and salutary advice as to a just estimate of its value, in order to secure a constant and permanent disposal of it. The subject is now in progress of experiment. South of these banks on the Choptank, no other deposite of marl is known to occur.'

The Cambridge Chronicle, Centreville Times, Kent Bugle, and Delaware Journal will copy the above, 3 times and send their accounts to this office for collection.

THE THOROUGH BRED STALLION,

Sassafras,

For compactness of form, strength and fine action, he challenges comparison with the first horses of the country. In his colour, a beautiful mahogany bay, he cannot be surpassed. To be admired, it is only necessary that he should be seen.

His Pedigree, (as will be seen by the annexed statement from General Forman) is equal to that of any horse in our country. A cross from him and our best country mares, for saddle, gig, and carriage horses, could not be surpassed, if equalled, by breeding from any other horse in Maryland.

TERMS.

5 dollars the Spring's chance, 8 dollars to insure a mare to be in foal, 3 dollars the single leap, and 25 cents in each case to the groom, payable as follows; the spring's chance on or before the 1st Sept. next, the insurance on or before the 1st Feb. 1939, the single leap at the time of putting the mare to the horse.

A mare insured, and parted with before known to be in foal, the insurance to be paid.
