POETRY.

THE DAUGHTER'S REQUEST.

BY MRS. ABDY.

My father, thou hast not the tale denied—
They say that, ere noon to-morrow,
Thou wilt bring back a radiant and smiling bride
To our lonely house of sorrow.
I should wish thee joy of thy coming bliss,
But tears are my words suppressing;
I think on my mother's dying kiss,
And my mother's parting blessing.

Yet to-morrow I hope to hide my care,
I will still my bosom's beating,
And strive to give to thy chosen fair
A kind and courteous greeting.
She will heed me not, in the joyous pride
Of her pomp, and friends, and beauty:
Ah! little need has a new-made bride
Of a daughter's quiet duty.

Then gavest her costly gems, they say,
When thy heart first fondly sought her:
Dear father, one nuptial gift, I pray,
Bestow on thy weeping daughter.
My eye, even now, on the treasure falls,
I covet and ask no other,
It has hung for years on our ancient walls—
'Tis the portrait of my mother!

To-morrow, when all is in festal guise,
And the guests our rooms are filling,
The calm meek gaze of those hazel eyes
Might thy soul with grief be thrilling,
And a gloom on thy marriage banquet cast,
Sad thoughts of their owner giving,
For a fleeting twelvemonth scarce has past,
Since she mingled with the living.

If thy bride should weary or offend,
That portrait might awaken feelings
Of the love of thy fond departed friend,
And its sweet and kind revealings;
Of her mind's commanding force, unchecked
By feeble or selfish weakness,
Of her speech, where dazzling intellect
Was softened by christian meekness.

Then, father, grant that at once to-night,
Ere the bridal crown's intrusion,
I remove this portrait from thy sight
To my chamber's still seclusion:
It will nerve me to-morrow's dawn to bear,
It will beam on me protection,
When I ask of Heaven, in my faltering prayer,
To hallow thy new connexion.

Then will walk, father, in pride and glee,
To renew the ties once broken,
But nought upon earth remains to me
Save this sad and silent token.
The husband's tears may be few and brief,
He may woo and win another,
But the daughter clings in unchanging grief
To the image of her mother!

NOTICE.

By virtue of an order of Caroline County Court, issued at March Term, eighteen hundred and thirty eight, the Commissioners named in a commission issued out of said Court, to view, value, or otherwise divide &c, the real estate of Nimrod Barwick, late of Caroline County, dec'd, among his heirs and legal representatives, will sell at Public Sale, at the front door of the Court House, in the Town of Denton, on Tuesday the 15th day of May next, all the real estate of the said Nimrod Barwick, dec'd, lying and being in Caroline County, which said estate lies in three separate farms, viz.

MARL FOR SALE.

The subscriber having made arrangements for disposing of the valuable shell marl, which exists on his estate in Talbot County, informs the Agricultural community, that he is now ready to deliver, of the above article, any quantity that may be required, by giving him timely notice.

The Marl may be taken from the banks at the price of one cent per bushel cash.

The fertalizing properties of calcareous marl are now so well known, that it is unnecessary to advert to the subject—in reference to this deposite it may be stated that it consists of Sea shells, with very little admixture of earth, and contains from 2 to 4 times the quantity of lime that is contained in the best English Marl.—Those wishing to purchase will please address William B. Smyth, Easton, Md. Vessels going for it will pass up the Great Choptank until the Dover Bridge appears in sight—they will then come to Barker's landing where they will find the lands of the undersigned on the west bank of the river.

WILLIAM B. SMYTH.

April 7, 1838

The following is an extract from the report of the Geologist appointed by the state of Maryland to make a minute geological survey of the State.

"But perhaps the most valuable beds of shell marl in this part of Talbot county, inasmuch as they may be made extensively available to the public demands for the article, are those which were fully described in the preceeding report. They occur three miles below Dover bridge, forming the high bank from fifteen to twenty feet above tide, being one compact mass of fossil shells, and extending nearly a mile along the river, on the farms of the late Col. Smyth and Mr Atkinson. These beds are in contiguous strata, apparently successive and consist of vast accumulations principally, in the ascending order, of oyster shells succeeded by clam shells intermixed with other marine shells, scollop, clam and scollop, and uppermost principally of scollop. Endeavor was made to bring these beds into notice, with a view of enlisting them into public service, by giving to their proprietors what was deemed proper directions for extracting the materials, and salutary advice as to a just estimate of its value in order to secure a constant and permanent disposal of it. The subject is now in progress of experiment. South of these banks on the Choptank, no other deposite of marl is known to occur."

The Cambridge Chronicle, Centreville Times, Kent Bugle, and Delaware Journal will copy the above, 3 times and send their accounts to this office for collection.

THE THOROUGH BRED STALLION

Sassafras,

The subscriber has procured the service of this noble animal, for the citizens of Talbot and the adjoining counties for the present season.

For compactness of form, strength and fine action, he challenges comparison with the first horses of the country. In his colour, a beautiful mahogany bay, he cannot be surpassed. To be admired, it is only necessary that he should be seen.

His Pedigree, (as will be seen by the annexed statement from General Forman) is equal to that of any horse in our country. A cross from him and our best country mares, for saddle, gig, and carriage horses, could not be surpassed, if equalled, by breeding from any other horse in Maryland.

TERMS.

5 dollars the Spring's chance, 8 dollars to insure a mare to be in foal, 3 dollars the single leap, and 25 cents in each case to the groom, payable as follows; the spring's chance on or before the 1st Sept. next, the insurance on or before the 1st Feb 1839, the single leap at the time of putting the mare to the horse.

A mare insured, and parted with before known to be in foal, the insurance to be paid.

JAMES HARWOOD.

Easton, April 21, 1838

PEDIGREE.

SASSAFRAS was bred by me; he was got by Wade's Gedolphin; his dam, Rosalia, got by the imported horse Express; his grand dam, Betsey Bell, by McCarty's Cub; his great grand dam, Temptation, by Heath's Childers; his g. g. grand dam, Maggy Lauder, by Doctor Hamilton's imported horse Figure; his g. g. g. grand dam by the imported horse Othello; his g. g. g. g. grand dam by Spark who was imported by the first Governor, Ogle. Gedolphin was got by Col. Baylor's Gedolphin, out of a Shark Express was got by Post-Master, out of a Syphon mare, and was imported. Cub was got by Yorick, his dam by Silver Legs, out of the imported mare Moll Brazen, Heath's Childers was got by Baylor's Fearnaught, his dam an imported mare. Figure was imported by Doctor Hamilton. Othello, imported by Governor Sharp was got by Crab, out of Miss Slamerkin Spark was imported by the first Governor Ogle.

SASSAFRAS is much approved as a foal-getter. His produce have been remarkable for their good form, good disposition, and truth in harness. Gedolphin, the sire of Sassafras, had

1 cross of old Diomede, (sire of Sir Archy,)
2 crosses of old Shark, imported,
2 crosses of Old Fearnaught, imported,
1 cross of Kitty Fisher,
1 cross of Jinny Dismal.

T. M. FOREMAN.

Sassafras's stands, for the season, other than Easton, will be stated in posting-bills.
