December Term 1842.

High Court of Chancery of Maryland to take testimony in this cause all those receipts and vouchers called for which are in his possession that is to say-
In the 1st. account settled by the defendant and Scharf executors of Isaac Raven deceased there are 38 items of credits claimed and allowed five of which namely items No. 5, 13, 26, 27, and 35 are for Registers fees paid and are not produced- No. 34 is for a difference between appraisement and sale- and No. 38 is for commissions allowed.
In the 2d. account there are 19 items of credits, for 17 of which vouchers and receipts are produced- the 18th. is for Registers fees- and the 19th. for commissions.
In the 3d. acct. the executors have a credit for money paid Ann Raven Widow, the original release was filed in the office of the Register of Wills for record, and we produce an office copy the original not being under our control.-
