and a new partition ordered and as Pts. Alex. Randall and Jos. H. Nicholson } for complts.

In Chancery 19th July 1841 - ordered that the foregoing exceptions stand for hearing on the 20th day of August next, provided that a copy of this order together with a copy of the said exceptions be served on the said defendant or their Solicitor on or before the 2d. day of August next. Theodorick Bland, Ch.

True copy - Test, Ramsay Waters, Reg. Cur. Can.

Service admitted J. Johnson for Deft. July 31st. 1841.

And afterwards to wit, on the twenty fourth day of August eighteen hundred and forty one the Chancellor passed his decree in the said cause in the words following to wit:

Nicholas L. Darnall and Richard B. Darnall
@
Francis L. Darnall et al.

In Chancery July Term 1841

This cause standing ready for hearing and being submitted upon the exceptions to the return of the commissioners appointed to make partition of the real estate mentioned in the proceedings and upon the order of the Chancellor of the 19th. of July last the proceedings were read and considered. It is thereupon this twenty fourth day of August in the year eighteen hundred and forty one by Theodorick Bland Chancellor and by the authority of this Court adjudged ordered and decreed that the return of the commissioners appointed to make partition of the real estate in the proceedings mentioned, and the partition thereof by them made be and the same are hereby ratified and confirmed - And it is further adjudged ordered and decreed that the complainant Nicholas L. Darnall shall hold in severalty and not jointly or in common with the other parties to this suit all that part of the land in the proceedings mentioned which is described in the return of the aforesaid commissioners and the plat accompanying the same as Lot No. 3 and beginning for the same (it being part of the tract or parcel of land called "Portland Manor") at a stone at the end of the first line of the part of said land as conveyed by John Darnall to Henry Darnall by deed bearing date on or about the twenty first day of September seventeen hundred and thirty six and running from thence with and bounding on the lines of said conveyance as follows to wit, North fifty degrees east forty four perches north seventy five degrees east one hundred and eighty five perches south eighteen degrees fifteen minutes east forty two perches and a half perch to a stone, thence south forty four degrees, west one hundred and twelve and a half perches to a stone thence south fifty five degrees thirty minutes west fifty six perches to a stone in the first line of said conveyance, thence running with and bounding on said line, north sixty two degrees thirty minutes west one hundred and five perches to the first beginning containing and now laid out for ninety two acres of land more or less. And it is further adjudged ordered and decreed that the complainant Richard B. Darnall shall hold in severalty and not jointly or in common with the other parties to this suit, all that part of the land in the proceedings mentioned which is described in the return of the aforesaid commissioners and the plat accompanying the same as Lot No. 2 and beginning for the same (it being part of the tract or parcel of land called "The Addition to Saint Jeromes,") at a post the beginning of the land conveyed by Morgan Hill to Robert J. Pindle by deed bearing date on or about the third day of April eighteen hundred and twenty nine and running from thence with the first line of said conveyance as follows to wit South sixty degrees thirty minutes west seven perches thence south sixty eight degrees fifteen minutes east fifty three and a half perches to a post thence north twenty two degrees thirty minutes east one hundred and eighty five perches to a post in a line of "Portland Manor" thence reversing and bounding on said line north sixty five degrees thirty minutes west seventy one and a half perches to a stone, at the end of the fifth line of lot No. 1 and thence reversing and bounding on the lines of said Lot No. 1 as follows to wit, south fifty three degrees fifteen minutes west seventy five perches to a stone thence south twenty degrees west forty perches to a stone north sixty one degrees west forty perches to a stone thence south twenty two degrees west forty eight perches to a stone thence with a straight line to the first beginning) containing and now laid out for one hundred and twenty eight acres and one rood of land more or less - And it is further adjudged ordered and decreed that the defendant Henry B. Darnall shall hold in severalty and not jointly or in common with the other parties to this suit, all that part of the land in the proceedings mentioned which is described in the return of the aforesaid commissioners and the plat accompanying the same as Lot No. 1 and beginning for the same (it being part of the tract or parcel of land called "The Addition to Saint Jeromes) at a cedar post at the end of the last line of the land conveyed by Morgan Hill to Robert J. Pindle by deed bearing date on or about the third day of April eighteen hundred and twenty nine thence running with and bounding on the given line of said conveyance as follows to wit, south forty seven degrees east one hundred perches to a stone, thence north twenty two degrees east forty eight perches to a stone thence south sixty one degrees east forty perches to a stone thence north twenty degrees east forty perches to a stone thence north fifty three degrees fifteen minutes east seventy five perches to a stone in a line of "Portland Manor," thence reversing and bounding on said line north sixty five degrees thirty minutes west one hundred and ninety seven and a half perches thence south twenty seven degrees thirty minutes west sixty four perches thence with a straight line to the first beginning containing and now laid out for one hundred and twenty eight acres and one rood of land more or less - And it is further adjudged ordered and decreed that the defendant Francis L. Darnall hold in severalty and not jointly or in common with the other parties to this suit all that part of the land in the proceedings mentioned which is described in the return of the aforesaid commissioners and the plat accompanying the same as lot No. 4 - and beginning for the same (it being a part of the tract or parcel of land called "Portland Manor") at a bounded stone the beginning of the part of said land as conveyed by John Darnall to Henry Darnall by deed bearing date on or about the twenty first day of September seventeen hundred and thirty six and running from thence with and bounding on the first line of said conveyance as follows to wit, north sixty two degrees thirty minutes west two hundred and twenty perches to a stone thence north fifty five degrees thirty minutes east fifty six perches to a stone thence north forty four degrees east one hundred twelve and one half perches to a stone in the given line of said conveyance thence running with and bounding on said line south eighteen degrees fifteen minutes east two hundred and twenty seven and one half perches to the first beginning containing and now laid out for one hundred and six acres of land more or less - And it is further adjudged ordered and decreed that the said Henry B. Darnall