on his farm last spring, and notwithstanding the drought, he says in a letter to a friend, that he raised from 110 to 120 bushels of shelled corn to the acre, and 370 bushels of potatoes. So much for a change of seed. C. P.

EASTON GAZETTE.

EASTON, (MD.)

SATURDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 10.

BALTIMORE CITY COURT.—The motion for a new trial in the case of William Stewart, assigned for Wednesday, was not called up.

WHIG VICTORY IN THE CITY OF NEW YORK.

BY the Steam Boat Maryland, last night, we received Baltimore papers of yesterday.—They contain the cheering intelligence of the election of the entire Whig ticket in the city of New York by a majority of 1500, being a Whig gain of 1000 votes since the last election. Four Whig members of Congress are elected, being a gain of two, and the Whig Senator in the first Senate district also a Whig gain.

NEW JERSEY ELECTION.—A letter to the editor of the New York Courier, dated at Trenton, Oct. 31, 6 P. M. says that the Governor and Privy Council had at that moment decided the votes for Congress.—The whole Whig ticket, six members, is elected by an average majority of 287.

Whig.		Loco Foco.
Randolph	28,283	Dickerson	27,951
Maxwell	28,239	Force	27,813
Halstead	28,192	Vroom	27,990
Stratton	28,252	Ryall	27 930
Yorke	28,177	Kille	27,924
Ayerigg	28,150	Cooper	27,954

Average Whig majority in the State, 287.

OHIO ELECTION—THE RESULT.—Full returns have been received from this State; and they show that Shannon's majority for Governor over Vance is 4807—being nearly 1500 less than the majority claimed by the Globe for the Loco Foco candidate.

The State Legislature stands as follows:

SENATE.—V. Buren	19.	Whigs	17.
House. do.	38.	do.	34

Making an Administration majority of six on joint ballot.

We have already stated that in the Delegation to the next Congress there will be 11 V. B. men and 8 Whigs.

NEW JERSEY.

We learn from Trenton that the Legislative committee appointed to enquire into frauds at the late election, have made considerable progress in their labors—fraudulent votes have been discovered and proved, enough to defeat the election of the Council-man for Cumberland county. It is though that a new election will be required for members of the Lower House in that county.—[U. S. Gazette.

[From the Harrisburg (Pa.) Telegraph, Oct. 31.]

THE INVESTIGATION.

The Locos, who are alarmed and trembling, are using every exertion to induce a belief that there will be no investigation into the frauds of the late election, and the mention of it is a mode to soften the anguish of defeat.

This is not true. An investigation is determined upon, and will be gone into; and any of the friends of Ritner, who made bets and gave them up before it takes place, to say the least, are guilty of doing foolish acts.

The investigation however, will be made to put the people upon their guard against frauds and corruptions hereafter, for if allowed to pass unexposed, the elective franchise is all at an end—the rights and liberties of the people will be given up to the hands of worthless unprincipled, and abandoned demagogues.

The November No. of the Lady's Book was yesterday received, "all drenched in a shower" and immediately laid aside lest it should fall to pieces under our rough handling. We learn however from an advertisement extricated from its dripping leaves, that the enterprising proprietor has secured, in addition to Miss Leslie and Mrs. Hale the valuable assistance of Mrs. Sigourney, Grenville Mellen, Richard Penn Smith and Joseph C. Neal—A strong Editorial Corps.

BALTIMORE CITY COURT.

This morning Geo. McCruchy, indicted under the law of the last session of the Legislature relating to elections, for an assault on Boyce Sutton, a legal voter, and obstructing him in the exercise of his right of suffrage, was convicted and sentenced to three months imprisonment and to pay a fine of $100. The Court in passing sentence remarked, that this being the first case of the kind upon which they had been called to act, they fixed the smallest fine and term of imprisonment prescribed by the law.—[Balt. Patriot of Saturday.

The Cumberland Civilian says that on Tuesday night, (the 6th inst.,) Mr. JOHN BURRIDGE, living on the line of the Canal, about five miles below Cumberland, was so seriously beaten with clubs and stones, by some of the laborers on the canal, that his life was considered in imminent danger. On the following day Col. Thurston, with Captains King and Hallers Companies, marched down the line and arrested thirteen of those supposed to have been conspicuous in the outrage.

From the New York Gazette.

Letters were received by the Northern Mail of yesterday, informing that the millers in the interior of this State had agreed to suspend business for the season on the 10th inst. rather than pay the high prices demanded for Wheat by the farmers. The market on Saturday for Flour was rather heavy, but without any variation in prices.

FROM TEXAS.

A slip from the office of the New Orleans Bulletin, dated the 27th ult. says:—The steamer Columbia, Capt. Wade, landed at our wharf last night at half past seven o'clock, having left Galveston, Texas, on the 24th inst. late in the afternoon. The voyage to the, Balize was made in thirty three hours and forty minutes. To the politeness of the clerk we are indebted for the Houston Telegraph, dated the 20th. The editor urges the necessity of raising additional recruiting companies, and stationing them on the frontier to protect the settlements. The citizens of those sections, he remarks, are still calling loudly for aid, and every messenger from the West is bringing intelligence of new depredations committed by marauding parties of Mexicans. Information had just reached Houston that a party of about nineteen surveyors, who had ventured far up into the Indian country to locate land claims, have been nearly all massacred by the Wacoes, Ironies and Keachies. They had repeatedly warned by the friendly Kickapoos that they were watched by a large band of hostile Indians, and they "must quit making marks," or they would be attacked. They gave no attention to these friendly motions, and shortly afterwards were surrounded by about a hundred infuriated savages and all were killed except four. They, however, fought desperately to the last, and fell surrounded by the dead bodies, of their assailants.

It is stated by a gentleman who had just arrived at Houston from Goliad, that three Texian citizens had lately arrived at that place, having escaped from the prisons of Matamoras. One of them is Carnes, who was captured on the Nueces about a year ago, & it was reported had been killed at one of the small towns on the Rio Grande, a few months since. They state that Mr. Brenan, the former representative from Goliad, is in prison at that city.

The above are the only items of interest we could glean from the Telegraph. From passengers on the Columbia, we learned that the country was quiet and going ahead in the march of improvement and population

Stealing no Robbery.—A case of larceny or abstraction of a somewhat singular character, was decided in Camden, N. J. a few days since. The particulars are thus given in the Camden Mail:

On Tuesday morning of last week Mr. Bate of Camden, discovered his mulberry tree nursery had been visited, and many of his best trees had been taken up and carried off. The loss being one of some value, prompted an immediate search for—what shall we call him? for one court declared him no robber, and the other would not agree that he was a trespasser; so that we shall call him man, and by the tracks in the fresh soil and along the road, and sprinkling of the leaves from the bushes, Mr. Hagg the Constable, traced him to a cellar, where in the trees were found! So far, so good; our city court being in session at the time, it was but short work to have the individual thus clearly marked out, arrested, a bill found for larceny, and the person arraigned for trial. But "oh, the glorious uncertainty of the law," it is LARCENY to rob your neighbour's hen roost, LARCENY to take his pick axe, hoe or barrow; but although law is claimed to be the "perfection of reason," it is not larceney to enter your neighbor's mulberry orchard, and take thence a hundred dollars worth of his best trees! The ingenuity of counsel learned in the law, exposed the montrosity of sending a man to prison for merely stealing mulberry trees; and under the charge of the court, upon a strictly legal point, the prisoner was acquitted!

LADYS' BOOK,

AND

Ladies' American Magazine;

Published by the same Proprietor for nearly ten years.

EDITED BY

MRS. S. J. HALE AND MISS LESLIE.

PUBLISHER AND ASSOCIATE EDITOR,

LOUIS A. GODEY.

Eighteenth and Nineteenth Volumes.

With a circulation double the extent of any other monthly of the same nature. Not a State or Territory in which may not be found this popular publication, The Lady's Book, and as it has emphatically been termed, by a number of the contemporary press,

THE LADY'S NATIONAL MAGAZINE,

Is issued monthly in the city of Philadelphia. SEVENTEEN VOLUMES have already been published, and in a very short time it will in itself comprise a library of the contribution of the MOST CELEBRATED WRITERS OF THE AGE.

This work is intended principally as a repository for the Lady Writers of America,

Most of whom of any eminence contribute to its pages—and it is conducted upon the same liberal principles as in former years—PAYING for original contributions, in the most liberal manner, thus securing a

GALAXY OF FEMALE TALENT

Which can not be, or at least is not, employed by any other Publisher. As an evidence of what kind of persons use the Lady's Book as a vehicle to convey their productions to the public, reference may be made to the cover of any of the Nos. lately published, as it would take up too much room to give all the names.

MRS. HALE AND MISS LESLIE

Still occupy the same stations that they did in a former year, and we shall also have it in our power to convey to the public some of the delightful effusions of

MRS. SIGOURNEY.

One feature in the work which has given so much satisfaction, the

SPLENDID COLOURED PLATES OF

Fashions,

Will be continued.—These are engraved and coloured in a SUPERIOR MANNER, and arranged expressly for the Lady's Book.

ALSO,

TWO PAGES OF MUSIC

Will be given monthly.

These embellishments alone are more than worth the extraordinary low price at which the book is put. The Subscriber looses no opportunity to aid his work with pictoral embellishments, poetical effusions, works of Fiction, and sound moral articles, that make it a desideratum in every family. His whole attention is given to the conducting of the Book, assisted by the Ladies previously mentioned—hence its superiority.

Portraits, on Steel, of the most celebrated Female Writers

Of our country, form part of the work. In addition to the Plates of Fashions, the June and December Nos. contain beautiful

TITLE PAGES ENGRAVED ON STEEL.

TERMS—$3 per annum, the money positively to be received before a single No. is sent. Two copies for $5.

The Publisher of the Lady's Book begs leave to call the attention of his Subscribers to his various other publications, most of them by Ladies. He would mention first, a work on Cookery, by one of the editors, Miss Leslie, a work which has passed through many editions, and is still in the greatest demand in large cities. It is an invaluable auxiliary to housekeeping.

DIRECTIONS FOR COOKING,

IN ITS VARIOUS BRANCHES BY Miss LESLIE.

Third Edition, with Improvements, and Supplementary Receipts.

NOTICES.—'This is the most complete manual of cooking which has yet been published. All the processes of preparing meat, vegetables, and pastry, all the secrets of the dishes which have a thousand times delighted our palates and puzzled our brains, are here laid open to every one who chooses to pry into them; and every housewife who is furnished with this key, may provide her table with a variety of delicacies which heretofore have been thought inaccessible but through the skill of professed cooks.—Saturday News

'This is the book for housekeepers. Full of useful information connected with the subject of gastronomy.'—Boston Post.

'And this real housewife book, which ought to hold a middle place between the parlour and the kitchen, is the work of Miss Leslie, whose delightful pen has so often enriched the elegant literature of our country. This volume contains the art of cooking, preparing, and carving the whole list of eatables, from the egg to the apple. The book is a perfect vade mecum for the housekeeper, and we should think would be in demand for the soundness of its culinary doctrine, and the simplicity of its precepts.'—U. S. Gazette.

'Being independent of the kitchen, and unqualified for an umpirage in culinary proprieties, we handed the book to a good housewife, who pronounces it worthy the Authoress—the best compliment that could be bestowed on it.—Nat. Gaz.

This valuable work contains nearly one thousand receipts, and no book on the subject of cookery, &c. has been more highly praised or is more deserving of it, than the one now offered. The subscriber has a few copies done up in Nos. with paper covers, for the convenience of sending by mail—and done up in that manner purposely to oblige patrons of the Lady's Book, who may reside at a distance from large cities.
