has a knowledge the terms of sale were settled and fixed by said Moore without consulting said defendants, that she has no knowledge of his consulting and never heard him say that he had consulted them that she does not know that she would have been likely to know that he might have consulted them without her knowing it?

9th. To the ninth Inty. she answers that she has a knowledge of the sale of certain property mentioned in the will of Aquila Hall and devised to be sold for the benefit of the deponent and her brother Edward one of the defendants in this cause that she does not recollect the time but that it was sold before the death of her mother and it was sold to Duckett and expressly to satisfy the claim of her brother Edward that she has knowledge how her brother Edward's part was appropriated - that said Philip Moore paid her brother Edward his portion of the money to enable him to purchase a farm on the Falls Turnpike road.

To the cross Interrogatories she answers as follows: - 1st To the first cross Inty. she answers that she never stated that said Philip Moore had purchased said farm in controversy either for herself or for any one else that she never stated to said William F. Giles, that he had purchased said farm for her that deponent stated to Mr. Giles, that she believed it to be the intention of Mr. Moore to purchase said farm for her - That deponent never claimed it as her property - That she has no recollection of having consulted said Giles on the subject of recovering said farm?

2d. To the second cross Inty. she answers that her sisters Maria and Charlotte the defendants never to her knowledge held any real estate except what they acquired under the will of their and deponents father, Aquila Hall?

3d. To the third cross Inty. she answers that they have sold part of their real estate that they sold their long green farm to Mr. D. S. Carr, and another farm to their brother William Hall?

4th. To the fourth cross Inty. she answers that said Philip Moore, did certainly converse freely with deponent in regard to his pecuniary and business transactions as far as he would converse that he was in the habit of conversing with deponent frequently?

5th. To the fifth cross Inty. she answers that she did know the amount or what he told her to be the amount of his indebtedness that she first knew while said Philip Moore was on his death bed, that his indebtedness amounted to eighty thousand dollars for Andrew Hall, as she now remembers?

6th - To the sixth cross Inty. she answers that said Moore told deponent expressly that Andrew Hall had ruined him that he had endorsed deponent thinks and believes for him to the amount of $80.000, that he never told deponent what he (said Moore) owed on his own account - That she believes that this might have been ten or twelve days before his death?

7th. To the seventh cross Inty - she answers that she has not frequently but has sometimes and very seldom conversed with her sisters the defendants Charlotte and Maria in relation to this suit, that there is no understanding between them that if they recover the farm in dispute in this cause it shall be deponents; and deponent cannot see that she can have any right to claim it?

8th - To the eighth cross Inty. she answers, that she never to the best of her knowledge was present when Philip Moore made any contract or agreement with any person relative to any business or property of the defendants Charlotte and Maria Hall?

9th - To the ninth cross Inty. she answers that her knowledge of the agency of said Philip Moore, for said Charlotte and Maria is not derived from conversation with said Charlotte and Maria - that deponent has had no conversation with them on the subject?

10th. To the tenth cross Inty. she answers that she cannot say that she ever saw any contract made by said Moore for the defendants Maria and Charlotte Hall?

11th. To the eleventh cross Inty. she answers that said Moore never consulted with deponent about buying or selling any property nor the making of any contract for borrowing or lending any money, or any other purpose?

12th. To the twelfth cross Inty. she answers that said Moore, did not inform her when he had bought any property or borrowed or paid any money that when he sold property deponent of course knew it as she had to sign the deed for it?

13th. To the thirteenth cross Inty. she answers that she had no conversation with said Moore in regard to said farm?

14th. To the fourteenth cross Inty. she answers that she knows of her own knowledge that said Moore, did receive money for the defendants Charlotte and Maria that she does not know the time that he received it in the bank, she believes that she was not present but that said Moore told her that he had received it that the moneys so received was received from Mr. Parker who purchased the farm that was sold to her brother William.

15th To the fifteenth cross Inty - she answers that she never has had any conversation with them on the subject of this suit?

16th To the sixteenth cross Inty. she answers that her knowledge is not obtained from conversations had with said Charlotte and Maria Hall?

17th. To the seventeenth cross Inty she answers that she came to this office to attend this commission and give evidence on yesterday in company with her sister Charlotte Hall, and was here alone for a considerable time before any of the other parties on the commission attended, but she had no conversation with her as to the evidence she would give in this cause?

18th. To the eighteenth cross Inty. she answers that she had no conversation with her sisters in regard to their determination to resist the claim of the complainants to the property in controversy?

19th. To the nineteenth cross Inty. she answers that she never was present at any business transaction between said Moore and the defendants Charlotte and Maria Hall?

20th. To the twentieth cross Inty. she answers that she does not know that said Moore ever sold any property for the said defendants without their knowledge?

21st. To the twenty first cross Inty. she answers that she not know that the said Moore ever took possession of any farm of the defendants Charlotte and Maria Hall?

22d. To the twenty second cross Inty. she answers that she knew that her fathers estate was very much involved at the time of his death and that said Philip Moore paid a part from the monies received from the sale of the personal estate.

23d. To the twenty third cross Inty. she answers that she is positive that the defendants Charlotte and Maria or either of them did not state that the farm in dispute was Philip Moores and after his death that it was deponents property?

24th - To the twenty fourth cross Inty - she answers that the greater part of the very large real estate which said Philip Moore owned in the City of Baltimore at the time of his death belonged to his first wife, who was Celiss Giles and by whom it was conveyed to the said Moore, that she died -