following depositions taken before them to wit:

"Joshua T. Clarke being sworn and examined on the part of the plaintiff at a read oak and stone on the plat at the letter I, says that tree is the beginning of a tract of land called Burgess Delight and last bounded tree of a tract of land called Clarkes Fancy.—

Saml. Fowler, Shff. P. G. Coty.—

Joshua T. Clarke being sworn and examined on the part of the plaintiff at a white oak, on the west bank of Patuxent River on the plat at the letter C says that the white oak is the third bounderry of a tract of land called Burgess Delight.—

Saml. Fowler, Shff. P. G. Coty."

Nathan Waters of Henry, being sworn and examined on the part of the plaintiff at a stone on the plat at G. says the stone is the beginning of that part of Hickory Thickett conveyed by Charles Carroll to Philip Green as reputed and acknowledged to be by the persons interested in the beginning and location of said land.—

Saml. Fowler, Shff. P. G. Coty.

Joshua T. Clarke being sworn and examined on the part of the plaintiff at a stone on the plat at the letter G says that in the year 1812 he this deponent obtained a deed from Philip Green for part of Burgesses Delight part of Hickory Thickett, and part of Clarkes Fancy, and at the time of his making the purchase the land was surveyed, and that said the stone was made a corner and that in the year 1813 he this deponent sold to Walter S. Clarke, two hundred acres part of the above named three tracts of land and after the sale it was laid off to Clarke from the above described stone and this deponent further saith that after the termination of a suit in Prince George's County Court between Doctor James Macgill and the Messrs. Waters and others that he understood that according to the decision of the Court a corner was established a short distance south of the stone and further sayeth that Walter S. Clarke did move his fence south to or near where the fence now stands, and was the extreme northwest corner of Walter S. Clarks possession and enclosure at the time of the sheriffs levy and sale in the case Holmes vs. Walter S. Clarke.—

Saml. Fowler, Shff. P. G. Coty.—

"Joshua T. Clarke being sworn and examined on the part of the plaintiff sayeth that the land contained within the following limits was the land in the possession of Walter S. Clarke, at the time of the sheriffs levy and sale in the case of Holmes vs. Walter S. Clarke, viz: running southerly from a post at the north west corner of Caleb Clarks enclosure on the plat at the letter A. with a fence to or near a Mulberry tree in the first line of Burgesses Delight then with the said line to the end thereof, then up the branch with the second line of the said tract, to a white oak the third bounderry of said tract then with part of the third line, to the 1st. line of part of Hickory Thickett conveyed by Charles Carroll to Philip Green then with said line reversed to the stone the beginning of said part then with a fence to the post first mentioned.—

Saml. Fowler, Shff. P. G. Coty."

Nathan Waters (of Henry) being sworn and examined on the part of the plaintiff sayeth that a post on the plat at the letter A. is at or near the place that was decided by Court in the case Doctor James Macgill vs. Waters and others about the year 1823 or 4 to be the north west corner of the land in the possession of Walter S. Clark and that the said Clarke previous to the termination of the suit had his fence further north, near a stone on the plat at the letter I and after the suit was ended, removed his fence at or near where it now stands. And this deponent further sayeth that the land within the following limits viz: the beginning at the above described post and running in a Southerly direction and nearly with a fence enclosing the land now occupied by Caleb Clarke, to or near a

Mulberry tree in the first line of Burgesses Delight then with the said line to the end thereof then with the second line to a white oak, the third bounderry of said tract then with part of the third line to the end of the first line of part of Hickory Thickett conveyed by Charles Carroll to Philip Green then with the said line reversed to a stone the beginning of said part then with a fence to the beginning post is the land that was in the possession of Walter S. Clarke, at the time of the sheriffs levy and sale in the case Holmes vs. Walter S. Clark.—

Saml. Fowler, Shff. P. G. Coty.—

Joshua T. Clarke being sworn and examined on the part of the plaintiff sayeth that Jacob Green died seized of the land devised by his will to Philip Green.—

Saml. Fowler, Shff. P. G. Coty.—

Doctor Charles Duvall being sworn and examined on the part of the plaintiff saieth that a short time after the sale of the land in dispute conveyed by the sheriff to Belmear, he was present when Walter S. Clarke and his counsel desired Joshua T. Clarke to give to him Walter S. Clarke a second deed for the land as now surveyed by the surveyor as the land in dispute, and the deponent says that Walter S. Clark, consented to, and did sign a relinquishment of all claim to and for a certain part of a tract of land called Clarks Fancy which he the deponent hath since sold to a certain Walter Bowie as pointed out on the plat.; Whereupon the parties aforesaid by their attornies aforesaid, pray leave of the Court here to amend the said plats and certificates returned to the Court here in this cause, and to add thereto if necessary, by the fourth Monday of April next. and to them it is granted; and the same are delivered to the Sheriff and surveyor aforesaid for that purpose.— At which mentioned fourth Monday of April being the twenty fifth day of the same month in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty six come again into the County Court here the parties aforesaid by their Attornies aforesaid. Thereupon further process of and upon the premises aforesaid between the parties aforesaid by consent of the said parties and their attornies aforesaid and by order of the Court here, is further continued till the third Monday of November next.— At which mentioned third Monday of November being the twenty first day of the same month in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty six, come again into the County Court here the parties aforesaid by their attornies aforesaid. Thereupon further process of and upon the premises aforesaid between the parties aforesaid by consent of the said parties and their attornies aforesaid, and by order of the Court here, is further continued till the fourth Monday of April next.— At which mentioned fourth Monday of April being the twenty fourth day of the same month in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty seven and the day until which this cause was further continued come again into the County Court here the parties aforesaid by their attornies aforesaid; thereupon further process of and upon the premises aforesaid between the parties aforesaid by consent of the said parties and their attornies aforesaid and by order of the Court here is further continued till the second Monday of October next at which mentioned second Monday of October being the ninth day of the same month in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty seven, and the day until which this cause was further continued; come again into the County Court here the parties aforesaid by their attornies aforesaid; thereupon further process of and upon the premises aforesaid between the parties aforesaid by consent of the said parties and their attornies aforesaid and by order of the Court here is further continued until the first Monday of April next.— At which mentioned first Monday of April