daughters of Maryland, and the Old Dominion. Almost every State in the Union was represented by some fair sprite adorned with beauty and all the glittering ornaments fashion and wealth could bestow. Here was an angel, a fallen one, appearing in the dance, with "——— her fairy foot

That fell like snow on earth, as soft and mute," there another in the crowd, crowned with flowers,—with

"Lilies such as maidens wear
In the deep midnight of her hair."

a third, fresh from Paris, expressing

"——— The soft, betraying air
That women loved and flattered, love to wear," a fourth, melancholy and out of place with a cheek like

"the lady lilly, paler than the moon,"

a fifth, in contrast like

"the red rose, fragrant with breath of June,"

and so on to the end of a very long chapter.

While I write in the midst of noise and confusion, a dozen hours after leaving the scene of the festivity, all around me I am hearing elegant and eloquent compliments bestowed upon the "Emperor of all the Russias." His Minister has given him a good name, and scores of guests and friends have drank the healths of both Emperor and Minister, wishing to each the comfortable age of a thousand years. St. Petersburgh has eclipsed Paris, but the Frenchmen here say it can't be done again, nous verrons.

EASTON GAZETTE.

EASTON, (MD.)

SATURDAY MORNING, DECEMBER 29.

Another of those deeply distressing accidents, of which there have been so many records of late, occurred in the family of Mr John Nicols, of Caroline county, on Saturday last, the 22d inst. His little daughter, three years of age, was most shockingly burnt, by her clothes taking fire, (the exterior garment being cotton) so that she expired after lingering for 24 hours in severe agony. How many more accidents of this sort, so very painful even to relate, must occur, before the importance of substituting a woollen for a cotton winter dress, for children at least, will be acknowledged and acted on?

We insert to-day an extract from Mr. Kennedy's New Novel, "Rob of the Bowl."—The scene is laid in St. Mary's County in this State, before the revolution. It is said to be the best American Novel that has appeared.—The work will, no doubt, be read with unusual interest by every Marylander.

Both Houses of Congress, in consideration of the intervention of Christmas day, adjourned over from Saturday to Wednesday.

HARRISBURG AFFAIRS.

THE HOPKINS HOUSE RECOGNIZED BY THE SENATE.

We are indebted to the kindness of the agents & conductor of the Susquehanna Railroad for a slip from the office of the Harrisburg Reporter, under date of Dec. 25, from which we learn the important facts that the Hopkins branch of the House of Representatives refused on Monday, to accede to the propositions of the Cunningham branch, and that the Senate, on the next day, by a very decided vote, determined to recognize the Hopkins or Van Buren division and appointed a committee to inform it that the Senate was organized and ready to proceed to business. The Senate sat on Tuesday until five o'clock.

[Balt. Chron.

U. S SENATOR FOR OHIO.—The Loco Focos in Ohio have, to the fullest extent, recognised their union with the Abolitionists; and elected to the Senate of the U. States an Abolitionist of the first water—no less a personage than BENJAMIN TAPPAN, who in addition to his being an abolitionist has the great merit of being the brother of the high priest of the fanatics, ARTHUR TAPPAN, of New York! The Richmond Enquirer was pleased to say that it would hear of the non-election of Mr. MORRIS without displeasure. He is defeated. Is it pleased with the change?

THE EASTERN SHORE RAIL ROAD.

We find the following notice of this road in the last Centreville Times:

THE RAIL ROAD.—We have been politely furnished by Gen. Emory, the President, with the first annual report of the President and Directors, to the stockholders of the Eastern Shore Rail Road Company, made on the 6th of Dec. 1838.

The Treasurer's statement shows the receipts of the year from private Stockholders and from the State of Maryland to be $73,699 00, and the disbursements to be $32,498 60, leaving a balance of $41,200 40.

The whole line of the road was put under contract for clearing, grubbing, excavation, &c. on the 24th of September last, and the report expresses the belief that within two years from this time two thirds of the northern part of the Road will probably fall below the first estimate of costs.

The company has had considerable difficulties to contend with in the shape of forfeited stock for non-payment, and an entangling alliance with L. D. Teackle but those difficulties having been arranged, it is presumed matters will now go on successfully.

SIX DAYS LATER FROM ENGLAND.

The Packet ship Gladiator, Capt. Broton, arrived on the 22d December.—The Editors of the New York Daily express are put in possession of London papers to Monday 12th November The news is not of very striking interest.

The last aggregate average price of Wheat, was 65s. 10d. per qr.; duty 21s. 8d. The average for the week, ending Nov., 2, was 69s. 5d.; and Oct. 26, 66s. 4d.

The Baltimore Republican has been discontinued for want of patronage.

It was established about the year 1825, we think, by Dabney S. Carr, upon a fund raised by the old Jackson party. Mr. Carr, after expending the fund in the management of the paper, resigned his Editorial office and was appointed Naval officer at $3000 a year, and was succeeded. if we recollect right, by Henry S. Sanderson, Esq., who left it for the office of Sheriff; a post which he found more lucrative than that of the publisher of a partizan journal. Messrs. Bines & Wilson, then became the publishers, but soon gave it up, Mr. Bines having been furnished with a snug place in the Custom House. Samuel Harker succeded him, and after laboring at the oar for several years, was pensioned with a clerkship in the Post Office at Washington. John Busk then became the proprietor and under his control, the machine has stopped.

It has given offices to no less than four of its ostensible proprietors. Why should such a preparatory school be discontinued?—Baltimore Chronicle.

Correspondence of the Balt. Patriot.

WASHINGTON, Dec, 21, 1838.

The House of Representatives has just brought its first night sitting to a close—at half past eight o'clock.

Mr. Wise spoke for upwards of six hours uninterruptedly and to the last was vivacious and energetic.

The subject was the following resolution moved some days ago by Mr. Cambreleng.

Resolved, That so much of the communications of the President of the United States, of the 8th of December, 1838, as relates to the default of Samuel Swartwout be referred to a select committee, and that so much as relates to the adoption of further measures for increasing the public security against similar defalcations be referred to the Committee of Ways and Means.

Mr. Wise was entitled to the floor; but gave way to Mr. Garland, of Va. who sent to the table the following amendment which he said he would offer as soon as he obtained the floor:

Resolved That so much of the President's message as relates to the defalcation of Samuel Swartwout, late Collector at New York, be referred to a select committee of nine members, to be chosen by ballot; and that said committee do further inquire into the alleged defalcation of Wm. M Price. late District Attorney of the same city; and into any other defalcations or abuses in reference to the collection, safekeeping and disbursement of the public money.

That said committee have power to send for persons and papers, that they report all facts connected with such defalcation, which they may deem pertinent; and what further legislation, if any, may be necessary to prevent the same in future.

JUDGE WHITE was prophetic in his Knoxville Speech, delivered during the summer. He seems fully to understand the character of the President, and the influences which control him. Let the reader note the aptness of the description here given:

"Do not deceive yourselves by thinking that the Executive project for uniting the purse with the sword is to be abandoned. No such thing. It will be renewed, again and again, so long as the most distant hope of success continues. The present Executive knows full well he has no distinctive character of his own. That he must conform to the will and wish of those who placed him in his present high station. He knows the means by which he acquired it, and must act out his part.

Remember that the miserable Lizzard can reach the pinnacle of the same spire on which the Eagle proudly perches himself; but the process by which he reaches it, is very different. The latter, trusting to his native strength and his own good wings, fearlessly soars aloft and proudly perches himself on the summit, in view of all beholders. While the other degraded reptile, stealthily and cautiously creeps up, clinging to, and ascending, that side of the column which will screen him best from observation, until he reaches the pinnacle, and then slyly peeps over, ready to shrink back when he finds himself discovered.

"Do you ask what then is to be done, when a political lizzard has taken possession of the station which ought alone to be occupied by the Eagle? My answer is ready. Through the ballot boxes, keep steadily switching him until he descends to that level which it is the interest of mankind he should occupy."

Another Runaway Sub-Treasurer.—Catch him! Catch him!!—We learn from the W. Reserve Chronicle, that A. Jarvis, the Van Buren Postmaster at Hart's Grove, Ashtabula county, Ohio, one of the noisiest and busiest Loco Focos in the State, has runaway with all the money in his possession. He is advertised as having probably made for Texas. Our Sub-Treasury system is a capital thing for that young republic. It's transferring to her, through the agency of our abandoning Post Masters, all the revenue of our country.—[Lou. Jour.

THE GENERAL BROWN.—The New Orleans Bulletin of the 10th inst. states, that the number of lives lost by the explosion on this boat, is ascertained to have been thirty-five. Out of twenty-nine cabin passengers only nine escaped. There were five ladies on board, who being in the after cabin, were not injured.

Negro Insurrection.—We copy the following from the Nashville Banner of the 8th inst.

The Franklin Record, received last night, contains, a long account of a concerted plot, entered into by a large number of negroes of Williamson and Rutherford counties, to murder all the whites they could on a certain day and take possession of the counties, elect officers to suit themselves, etc etc. One of the black rascals, a preacher, the property of Mr. Wm. L. King, of Williamson, passed by the title of General. But he had a rival in the person of another rascal in Rutherford, who has been electioneering for Sheriff of the county, when the whites should have been exterminated.

AMERICAN SILK SOCIETY.

December 12, 1838.

The Society having convened at half past three, P. M.

Dr. Gibbons of Delaware offered the following resolution, which was adopted:—

Resolved That in the judgment of this Society, there are no occupations that promise more to ameliorate the moral and physical condition of large portion of our population, and to elevate them on the scale of intellectual and moral worth, than those involved in the culture of silk. Poor children, indigent females, the lame and infirm of both sexes, and all ages, will find in this branch of industry employment lucrative, healthy and moral. That the philantropic and humane, with those of the clerical and learned professions, in promoting by their influence & example, the culture of silk will add another to the many already existing of their devotion to the best interests of our people, and will deserve the thanks of their fellow citizens, and of this Society.

By Mr. Kinsmon of Pennsylvania:—

Resolved, That the Executive Committee are hereby instructed to take measures to procure the formation of State Societies, and that they have authority to elect to the office of Vice President, each President of a State Society, if in their judgment they shall deem it expedient before the next annual meetings.

By Doctor Cox, of Maryland:—

Resolved, That the Executive Committee be requested to prepare an abstract of the proceedings of the Convention and of the society, to be presented to both Houses of Congress.

Resolved, That when this society adjourns, it adjourn to meet in the city of Washington, on the 2d Wednesday after the first Monday in December, 1839. The Society then adjourned.

From the Farmer and Gardener.

HIGHFIELD COCOONERY.

That part of the community who feel interested upon the subject of silk growing in the United States, are respectfully invited to visit the above establishment during the summer of 1839. It is probably as large, if not larger, than any other cocoonery in Pennsylvania, and constructed upon the most approved plan, situated on very elevated land in Germantown, Penn. 6½ miles from Philadelphia; it commands one of the most extensive and beautiful inland views in the vicinity of this city.

Letters addressed to the Proprietor of Highfied cocoonery, Germantown, Pa. containing important information relative to any of the branches of the silk growing and reeling arts, will be thankfully received and filed for the inspection of visitors. Patentees of all kinds of machinery for reeling and manufacturing silk, for cutting the leaves, for hurdles, &c., and others who have not patented their inventions, are invited to deposit one or more of their machines at the above establishment, where they shall be taken good care of, exhibited free of any charge, and orders forwarded to their owners for such as may be desired by visitors, or promptly returned whenever called for.

All varieties of silk worm eggs, or mulberry trees, if only ten or a dozen, will be thankfully received and carefully propagated. Should the machinery deposited warrant the expense, it is intended to put a small steam engine upon an entire new plan, combining great simplicity, power, and very little bulk, for the purpose of propelling it: the Piedmontese reel, recommended by the Convention of delegates from all parts of the union assembled at Baltimore, Dec. 11th 1838, shall be procured and put in motion, if possible to be had; and also Gay's celebrated machinery for manufacturing sewing and other silks.

The proprietor expects to have a very large number of the genuine Morus Multicaulis trees for sale next summer, and upon as long credit as may be desired, provided good security be given for payment at such time as may be agreed upon: and as he is perfectly independent as regards his own pecuniary means, he hopes that patriotism and an ardent desire to promote the culture of silk in the United States will be conceded to influence him, at least as much as self-interest. Therefore let not the poor man fear repulse when asking for a few trees on a reasonable credit; all the security asked of such will be his own note—provided he can show from respectable neighbors and friends satisfactory testimonials of honesty, sobriety and industry.

Great Excitement in BOSTON.

TREMBLING AMONG THE MEDICAL FACULTY!!!

We learn that the distinguished Dr. Watson, 276, Washington street, and Dr S. C. Hewitt, the celebrated bonesetter, 297 Washington street, (two of the most skillful practitioners in Boston,) have witnessed the happy effects of Godicke's Matchless Sanative in several cases which have come under their observation, have given the general Agent of his great modern medicine, permission to refer to them through the public journals. It is with pleasure, we notice such acts of disinterested benevolence, and this noble generosity of Drs H. and W. bespeak their genuine philanthropy.

We understand, Dr Watson is of the opinion that as the Sanative has created such a tremendous excitement among the Medical Faculty, it must be something extraordinary, and far superior to the common nostrums of the day—and there cannot be a doubt, but when the virtues of this great specific shall be duly appreciated by Physicians, they will frankly acknowledge it to be the most valuable addition which has been made to the Materia Medica since the days of Hippocrates

We further learn that the General Agent of the Sanative has the liberty to refer his fellow citizens to Dr Hewett, for two very interesting cases which came within the knowledge of the Doctor. One of the cures as we learn, was effected upon a young lady afflicted with 'Lumber Abscess'—and so serious was her complaint, that she was unable to submit to Dr. H's usual mode of treatment in such cases. He advised her to try the Sanative, she did so, and before taking one phial, was entirely cured and not a vestige of her disease remains!! Another, a gentleman aged 45, pronounced by all who knew him to be in a confirmed CONSUMPTION,' was wonderfully restored to health by the use of only one phial of the SANATIVE —and is now well and about his daily business as usual!

We think the open and candid course pursued by Dr's. Watson and Hewett richly entitle them to the lasting gratitude of the public—although they may have the whole phalanx of the Medical Faculty pouncing upon them.

After reading the above, and the following extracts from letters addressed to Dr Rowland, by his agents, who can for a moment doubt the powers of the mighty Sanative?

Amherst, N. H Jan. 1, 1838.

Dr. Rowland—I sold a phial of the Matchless Sanative to a gentleman who was in a Confirmed Consumption pronounced PAST ANY RELIEF and confined to his room—he had settled his affairs and prepared to meet his fate. He has not taken a whole bottle, and says his health is perfect, that he is entirely well, and imputes the cure to the sanative and to nothing else. Many others who have taken it make similar statements.

Yours respectfully, &c

THOMAS M. BENDER.

Orland Post Office, Maine,
March 30, 1838

Dear Sir:—The Matchless Sanative has had a wonderful effect in several cases in this town. I sold a phial to a man who had been sick with Consumptive and Rheumatic complaints for 4 or 5 years, and who was unable to dress himself when he commenced taking it He has recently sent me word that he felt quite well, could dress himself without any trouble, and thinks he shall wholly recover.

Yours, in haste,

R TRUSSEL P. M.

Rush Post Office, Monroe Co. N Y.
March 14, 1838.

Dear Sir—In 48 hours after I received the package of Sanative, I sold all of it—and have come to the conclusion that it must be all that it is recommended to be. It is sufficient to say, that the benefit derived from a short use of it, has convinced the most prejudiced of its utility. The enclosed money you will pass to my account, and I wish you to send me more of the Sanative as soon as convenient.

Respectfully, &c.

JOHN B CROSBY, P. M.

Haverhill, Mass. March 26, 1838.

Dear Sir—Numerous cases have come to my knowledge in which the Sanative has proved very beneficial—and one case in particular, in which it performed a wonder. I can procure you a good certificate from the patient if you wish Please credit me with the enclosed money, and forward me more of the Sanative by the bearer

Yours truly,

THOS G. FARNSWORTH.

Cornwall Post Office, Vt. April 6, 1838.

Dear Sir—The Matchless Sanative is very highly esteemed in this quarter, and is getting into general use.

Yours &c.

SAMUEL EVERTS. P. M.

Westfield Post Office, N. Y. Feb. 16, 1838.

Dear Sir—Several pressing cases demand the Sanative at whatever expense it can be sent to me. It has effected some astonishing cures already, and I cannot wait for the package you say is on the way. I wish you would send me half a dozen phials by MAIL, and I will put the extra price of postage on the Sanative. Dont fail to send by the mail, as it will come by weight at 91 per ounce for postage, and I shall expect it in 12 days from date.

Yours &c.

ORRIS NICHOLS, P. M.

Hartford, Ct. April 12, 1838.

Dear Sir—My daughter, who had a distressing cough, raised a great deal of matter, and who was afflicted with palpitation of the heart has taken a phial of the Sanative and is now WELL. Others also bear testimony to its good effects.

Yours respectfully,

C. R. COMSTOCK.

Plymouth, Mass. Feb. 6, 1838.

Dear Sir—I have abundance of matter to tell you concerning the Sanative, where it has performed cures when those who have bought it, had scarcely any faith in its efficacy. We have one person now able to attend to her domestic concerns, who was at the time she commenced taking it confined to her chamber and prostrated on her bed.—I will tell you more when I see you.

Repectfully, &c.

ISAAC B. RICH.

Beaver Post Office, Pa. March 1, 1838.

Dear Sir—Since I last wrote you, I have seen several persons who have been using the Sanative and in every case it has proved itself, worthy the name it bears. A young man, Robert Mellhery had been wasting away in a seated consumption for the last two years—and by using this medicine about six weeks, his cough, pains, &c. left him entirely, and he is now so well as to be about his ordinary business.

Indeed sir, from the rapidity of the sales, the value of the Sanative may be safely determined. I am wholly out, have daily calls for it, and wish you would forward me more as soon as possible.

Yours, &c.

☞ The above powerful and invaluable medicine is doing wonders in this section of the country, as well as in others. Applications for it have been made in various places in this vicinity. A young lady in this town has been restored from a consumption and confirmed in health by the use of it—No mistake. She had been visited by various physicians, but all to no purpose. One phial of this medicine produced the long desired effect.

A few more bottles of this efficacious medicine may be found at the Post Office if applied for soon.

From Timothy George, Esq. Orrington Me.

"My wife has been considered of a consumptive habit for two years, attended with a severe cough, but has always or generally attended to her domestic concerns until the forepart of last winter, when she had a sudden and severe attack of pain in her side, and distressed for breath I immediately called upon one of our best Physicians, who attended cartully upon her, and I was well satisfied with his treatment of her case, though her distress was partially alleviated, there was no hope of her recovery, her Doctor told her that she had the consumption, and that her LEFT LUNG WAS PARTIALLY CONSUMED, and seemed to despair of her recovery, as well as myself, we calculated she could not continue but a short time, he left her nothing but sleeping powder to command her rest, when providentially I fell in with those Sanative Drops, and though she was altogether faithless the first drop she took gave her some relief, she continued taking them exactly according to the directions, her appetite was soon restored to a child's appetite, and she continued gradually to recover so that I do not know but her health is now as good as it has been since we married say ten years.

N. B. She took about one and one half bottles when she called herself well.

HEAR YE!

THE MATCHLESS SANATIVE (sold by DUTTON, CLARK, & Co., Agents for Brattleboro' Vt.) has effected many cures of diseases so obstinate as to resist the skill o. Physicians and the power of other remedies The following are a few of the testimonials of the efficacy of this medicine, which they now cheerfully lay before the public. Many more individuals can be referred to by them as having been greatly benefitted by using the Sanative.

Certificate from Thos Crosby of Brattleboro.

This certifies that my daughter has for a long time been in a decline, and has tried many medicines without effect. She has made use of the Matchless Sanative, which has greatly relieved her It restored her appetite and sleep, which she had not before enjoyed for a long time. I would cheerfully recommend to all suffering with consumptive complaints.

THOMAS CROSBY.

Brattleboro, March 13, 1838.

Certificate from Henry Clark, Esq. of Brattleboro.

This certifies that I had suffered for many months from an obstinate cough which resisted a great variety of medicines, until I used a bottle of the Matchless Sanative, which removed it entirely in the course of two or three weeks and restored me to excellent health.

HENRY CLARK.

Brattleboro, March 12th, 1838.

Certificate from Samuel Cutting, Esq. of Guilford, Vt.

I, Samuel Cutting, of Guilford, Vt. would certify that I have suffered for more than two years past from a severe lung complaint, attended with severe pain in my side & back, & with general debility. I have used a great variety of medicines from various Physicians in this vicinity, and received advice from the most eminent Physicians of Boston, without the least benefit I am now using the last bottle of the Matchless Sanative, which medicine has greatly relieved me. The pain in my side is comparatively well, and my strength has gained very much. I feel confident that the Sanative alone has afforded me the relief, and I would cheerfully recommend it to all who are suffering with lung complaints, and advise them to try the medicine without delay.
