AMERICAN MUSEUM.

The American Museum of Literature and the Arts, will combine the solidity of a review with the lighter miscellany of a magazine; besides impartial reviews of important works and short notices of minor literary productions by the editors, it will embrace essays, tales, historiettes, poetry, literary and scientific intelligence, and translations from standard and periodical works in other languages, contributed by some of the ablest writers of the day.

The Magazine will also contain a series of reviews of such writers as have, by their talents shed lustre upon American literature.—These reviews will be accompanied by portraits of the authors, engraved on steel by the best artists. The work will be beautifully printed, with new type, upon fine paper, and will make two volumes each year, of more than 500 pages each.

Agencies will be established in the principal cities, and arrangements made to deliver the work free of postage. Persons desirous of acting as agents, will please apply post paid Terms, $5 per annum, payable on the delivery of the first number—5 copies $20.

PROSPECTUS
OF THE
National Magazine,
AND
REPUBLICAN REVIEW.

The National Magazine and Republican Review will be published in the City of Washington, District of Columbia, on the 1st day of January next, and delivered monthly in all parts of the United States, devoted exclusively to the advancement of the great principles of the Whig party, & the the encouragement of literature and science.

The experience of the past year has confirmed in the minds of the more reflecting and sagacious of the Whig party that a vacuum exists in the periodical press of the country, in which should be combined the productions of our great statesmen on literary and scientific subjects, and those of the eminent literary geniuses of which the United States can boast so ample a share on the various subjects that presents themselves to a sound and vigorous intellect.

It cannot be doubted that the present crisis demands the publication of a work calculated to infuse and circulate true and honest political information, and counteract the direful influence exerted by a monthly periodical of a similar nature published in this city, under the auspices, and bearing the name of the enstyled Democracy of the preset day, advocating measures which if successful, are destined to moulder to ruins the fabric of our noble Constitution, by placing constructions on it to suit the caprice and advance the reachings of a corrupt ambition

The union of such principles with a general literature as have insulted common sense and honesty of the country by proclaiming the 'Martyrdom of Cilly,' rendered in a manner more detestable from the insidious way in which they are combined, tend directly to the disorganization of all that, as Americans, should be held most sacred. This combination is calculated to secure them a circulation in quarters to which they might not otherwise penetrate as well as from a certain deceptive air of high-toned philantrophy, and expansive liberality of views with which they are artfully able to invest themselves, for the purpose of stealing their way into the heads, through the unsuspecting hearts of that class on which depends the destiny and hopes of the nation—its young men—Whilst the more experienced sagacity of older heads can never hesitate a moment in recognizing the real naked deformity of these principles of Modern Radicalism, under all the fair seeming disguises they may assume, yet to the young they are replete with a subtle danger of the most pernicious character.

The National Magazine and Republican Review is designed, and will be conducted with these and other high important considerations in view, calculated to correct misconstructions, and inculcate the correct political principles on which are based the views and practice of the great Republican Whig party, as well as for the encouragement & maintenance of genuine polite literature. The publishers will neither spare expense in the mechanical department of the work, nor their utmost efforts to render the Review useful to the public in a literary point of view, and honorable to the country and cause which it is destined to espouse as a National work.

The period is fast arriving when the country will emerge from the dominion of a party that has come into power under the corrupt influence of a misled popular prejudice, and which is advocated and sailed under the broad and corrupt motto of office seekers, 'To the victors belong the spoils of the vanquished,' being alike anti-Republican, unconstitutional, and a foul stain upon the free institutions of the country, that can only be eradicated by the triumph of the principles which govern the Republican Whig party of the present day.

The advocates of the principles alluded to, who have stood foremost in defence of the Constitution and laws, when they were as diminutive as a party could be, exerting the strength of a Leonidas battling with the host of Xerxes, and have nearly succeeded in rescuing the Government from the grasp of corruption, will deem it their imperative duty to continue their efforts, and it cannot better be done than by supporting a periodical of high standing for sound political principle and literary worth—and such a one will be found in the National Magazine and Republican Review.

The success of the Magazine will therefore depend, in a measure, on the great body of the opponents of the present administration, whose interest it will be to aid in its permanent establishment. And it will be equally binding on the talented and patriotic band of leading Whigs to spare neither time or labor to the explanation and advocacy of the true and only principles on which the Government can prosper, and on the success of which depends the great experiment of Republican Government.

Having made these few remarks on the political cast of the publication, we feel confident that its utility will be readily perceived by the public and fully appreciated. In addition to the political features, the following will be the principal subjects on which the Review will treat, from the pens of the most celebrated writers of the present day?

Reviews and Critical Notices will occupy a portion of its pages, thereby giving rise to genius, and censure to such productions only as are richly deserving of it.

Engravings of Distinguished Statesmen.—If the work should receive the same encouragement as is usually extended to periodicals of a literary and scientific character the subscribers to the Review will not only find their numbers embellished with these desirable plates, but also with many other valuable improvements.

A Sketch of the Proceedings of Congress will be given at the close of each session, in which will be explained the cause and effects of all prominent acts and measures, compiled by a gentleman of acknowledged ability and opportunity to arrange and collect such matters as will prove both interesting and instructive.

Election Returns will be given in a tabular form, embracing all elections of importance in the various States, as early as practicable after the reception of official returns.

Essays and Tales will also form an important part of the work, and all original articles of this character will receive prompt attention. The object of the publishers, next to enhancing the good cause in which they have embarked, will be to furnish the reader with such matters as will both instruct and amuse, such as Sketches and Reminiscences of events too minute for history.

Biographical & Historical Sketches of distinguished personages, &c

TERMS.

The National Magazine and Republican Review will be published in monthly numbers of eighty octavo pages each, on fine paper, with new and handsome type, and in the most approved mechanical and typographical appearance, at the moderate price of Five Dollars a year, payable in all cases in advance, or on the delivery of the third number, without respect to persons.

Any person forwarding ten respectable subscribers, and becoming responsible for the amount of their subscriptions for the first year, shall receive a copy gratis as long as they may continue subscribers.

The publishers will be responsible for all moneys forwarded by mail, in case of miscarriage, provided the certificate of the postmaster shall be secured, and copies fowarded accordingly.

If a subscriber shall not order his subscription to be discontinued at the expiration of the year, shall be considered as wishing the Review continued, which shall be forwarded, and the subscription money expected on the receipt of the third number, as in the first instance.

No subscription taken for a less term than one year.

All communications, post paid, addressed to the publishers, at their residence, Georgetown, D. C., will receive prompt attention.

Publishers of newspapers who will copy the foregoing Prospectus, will receive a copy of the work, in exchange, and also confer a lasting favor upon the proprietors.

LADYS' BOOK,
AND
Ladies' American Magazine;

Published by the same Proprietor for nearly ten years.

EDITED BY

MRS. S. J. HALE AND MISS LESLIE.

Publisher and Associate Editor,

LOUIS A. GODEY.

Eighteenth and Nineteenth Volumes.

With a circulation double the extent of any other monthly of the same nature. Not a State or Territory in which may not be found this popular publication, The Lady's Book, and as it has emphatically been termed, by a number of the contemporary press,

THE LADY'S NATIONAL MAGAZINE,

Is issued monthly in the city of Philadelphia SEVENTEEN VOLUMES have already been published, and in a very short time it will in itself comprise a library of the contribution of the Most Celebrated Writers of the Age.

This work is intended principally as a repository for the Lady Writers of America,

Most of whom of any eminence contribute to its pages—and it is conducted upon the same liberal principles as in former years—paying for original contributions, in the most liberal manner, thus securing a

GALAXY OF FEMALE TALENT

Which can not be, or at least is not, employed by any other Publisher. As an evidence of what kind of persons use the Lady's Book as a vehicle to convey their productions to the public, reference may be made to the cover of any of the Nos. lately published, as it would take up too much room to give all the names.

MRS. HALE AND MISS LESLIE

Still occupy the same stations that they did in a former year, and we shall also have it in our power to convey to the public some of the delightful effusions of

MRS. SIGOURNEY.

One feature in the work which has given so much satisfaction, the

SPLENDID COLOURED PLATES OF

Fashions,

Will be continued.—These are engraved and coured in a Superior Manner, and arranged expressly for the Lady's Book.

ALSO,

TWO PAGES OF MUSIC
Will be given monthly.

These embellishments alone are more than worth the extraordinary low price at which the book is put. The Subscriber looses no opportunity to aid his work with pictoral embellishments, poetical effusions, works of Fiction, and sound moral articles, that make it a desideratum in every family. His whole attention is given to the conducting of the Book, assisted by the Ladies previously mentioned—hence its superiority.

Portraits, on Steel, of the most celebrated Female Writers

Of our country, form part of the work. In addition to the Plates of Fashions, the June and December Nos. contain beautiful

TITLE PAGES ENGRAVED ON STEEL.

Terms—$3 per annum, the money positively to be received before a single No is sent. Two copies for $5.

The Publisher of the Lady's Book begs leave to call the attention of his Subscribers to his various other publications, most of them by Ladies. He would mention first, a work on Cookery, by one of the editors, Miss Leslie, a work which has passed through many editions, and is still in the greatest demand in large cities. It is an invaluable auxiliary to housekeeping.

This valuable work contains nearly one thousand receipts, and no book on the subject of cookery, &c. has been more highly praised or is more deserving of it, than the one now offered. The subscriber has a few copies done up in Nos. with paper covers, for the convenience of sending by mail—and done up in that manner purposely to oblige patrons of the Lady's Book, who may reside at a distance from large cities. Price $2.

NOVELS.

HEALTH SECURED BY THE USE OF THE HYGEIAN VEGTABLE UNIVERSAL MEDICINES,

As formerly prepared under the supervision of the late Mr. THOMAS MOAT, Vice President of

The British College of HEALTH, LONDON.

Manufactured in this country in their original purity by H. SHEPHEARD MOAT eldest son of the above.

Which have obtained the approbation and recommendation of Thousands, who have been cured in Consumption, Cholera Morbus Inflamations, internally or externally, and all diseases of the Liver, Yellow Fever, Gout-Rheumatism, Lumbago, Tic Doloreux, Dropisy, St. Vitus's Dance, Epilepsy, Apoplexy Paralysis, Palsy, Green Sickness, and all obstructions to which the Female form is so distressingly liable, and which send so many of the fairest portion of the creation to the untimely graves; Small Pox, Measel, Whooping Cough, Scarlet Fever, Asthma Jaundice, Gravel, Stone, and all Urinary Obstructions, Fistula, Piles, Structures, Ruptures, and Syphilies in all its stages; Constipated Bowels, Worms, Scurvy, Itching of the Skin, Kings Evil and all Cutaneous Disorders; in short, every Complaint to which the human frame is so direfully subject, under all their varied forms and names, as the Hygeian conviction is, that MAN IS SUBJECT TO ONLY ONE REAL DISEASE, that is, in the IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD, from which springs every Complaint that can possibly assail his complicated frame, and that it is the perpetual struggle of this vital, pure stream of life, (the gift of Almighty power) to disencumber itself of its vicious, acrid humors, with which it has become commixed

This valuable medicine, being composed only of vegetable matter, of medicinal herbs, and warranted on oath, as containing not one particle of mercurial, mineral, or chemical substances, (all of which are uncongenial to the nature of man and therefore destructive to the human frame,) is found to be perfectly harmless to the most tender age, or weakest frame, under every stage of human suffering, the most pleasant and benign in its operation, and at the same time the most certain in searching out the root of every complaint, however deep, and of performing a cure that was ever offered to the world. This wonderful effect, too, is produced by the least trouble to the patients, with the least possible tensation of pain exhaustion of bodily strength, and without the fear of catching cold, or attention to dress or diet, in any way different from their accustomed habits.

These Pills cure in all cases, and cannot be taken to excess. Experience, which is the touchstone of all human knowledge, has long borne testimony to the fact, and extensive use of them has already verified its truth in this country.

These medicines cure by purging, and yet the weak, the feeble, the infirm, the nervous, the delicate are in a few days strengthened by their operation, because they clear the body of its bad humors, and invariously produce sound sleep. They are the safest and most efficacious Medicine to take to sea; preventing scurvey, costiveness, &c

The operation of this mild Medicine, which conveys immediate conviction of its utility, from the first dose is as beneficial to the mind as the body; first calming then curing all Mental derangements, Eccentricities, Nervous Affections, Irritability and Restlessness, from whatever source; complaints which have hitherto not been properly understood, as the Hygeists have found them all to proceed from acrimonious humours in the blood, and, happily for the present and future race of mankind, discovered a cheap and universal mode of purifying, curing, and preventing.

The being cured of any disease, infirmity, or sore, is now no more a dubious or uncertain procedure—perseverance in the Vegetable Universal Medicines will always restore nature to her due course. The litesary and sedentary of both sexes, whose pursuit so much impair the faculties, will find a sure remedy in the Universal Medicines for preserving the energy and sprightliness of the imagination, and improving their health; old age will be attained by the use of them, and passed free from pain and infirmities.

They are not enveloped with the mysteries of other medicines; they only require to be persevered in with sufficiently large doses, and the patient will come off well; when a disease is obstinate, patients frequently do not take doses large enough.

The medicines are comprised in three different articles only, viz: in two kinds of pills, of different strength or power, designated by No 1, and No 2; the first is a powerful, but most mild and gentle aperient, or opening medicine, detaching and partially removing the billious ropy humors, while the No 2 Pills carry off those and the serious acid and putrid humors, incidental to the body; and act together as a ferret in a warren, never resting until every avenue of the human frame is thoroughly searched, and cleansed of its impurities.

The Vegetable Cleansing Powders are of great assistance to patients, and facilitate the evacuation of bad humors; they soften, cleanse, and detach the acrimoni phlegm; are cooling and allay thirst. One, two or three powders may be taken throughout the day, mixed in a half tumbler of water.

The pills are sold in 25 cent boxes, and packets of $1, $2 and $3 each. The Powder in boxes 37½ cents.

CAUTION—Medicines of such great virtue as these, have been, and will be most certainly counterfeited.—To protect those desirous of obtaining the Genuine Hygeian Medicines, every packet has a fac simile of the signature of H. Shepheard Moat, on one side, and on the other a yellow label, with the written signatures for the district, and the actual seller of the medicine.

The publications in proof of the Hygeian Theory, are:

Morrisonian, 2 vols 8vo—price $2.75 per vol
The Family Adviser, 3 vols. 8vo—$1 per vol
Practical Proof, containing many attested cures, price 37½ cents. And just published.
The Mother's Book of Hygeian Midwifery, A. Shepheard Moat, of New York.

☞Respectable parties may be appointed bygents on liberal terms, by applying to the General Depot, No 3½ South Seventh Street, three doors below Market street Philadelphia—and at No 10 North street, Baltimore, nearly opposite the Post Office where the Genuine Medicine may always be obtained.
