vs.
Isabel Clarke.

2d. Exception - Action of Ejectment in Prince George's County Court - At the trial of this cause the plaintiff to maintain the issue joined on his part offered in evidence to the Jury the locations and explanations made by him upon the plats, and then read in evidence the patents of "Burgess' Delight" and "the Jory Thickett", and proved that said tracts are properly located upon the plats and proved that all all those parts of said tracts, which are included in the lines drawn upon the plats shaded yellow, were regularly conveyed by divers mesne conveyances, to one Walter S. Clarke, and then read in evidence the record of a Judgment recovered by William Holmes against the said Walter S. Clarke at April Term 1814 of this Court and the record of a fiat or a Scire facias on the said judgment at April Term 1814 and then read in evidence to the Jury the following transcript of the record of a Judgment of the Court of Appeals which is follows.

"Maryland Set.

At a Court of Appeals of the State of Maryland one of the United States of America begun and held for the Western Shore of the said State at the City of Annapolis on the second Monday in June being the ninth day of the same month in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty eight and in the fifty second year of the Independence of the said United States.-

Present,

The Honorable - John Buchanan Chief Judge; Richard T. Earle, Wm. B. Martin, John Stephen, Stevenson Archer, Thomas B. Dorsey - Judges -

Thomas Harris, Clerk

Among others were the following proceedings to wit:

Walter S. Clarke
vs.
Francis Belmear.

Be it remembered that now here, on the first Monday in December being the third day of the said month, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty seven the Chief Judge and Associate Judges of the first Judicial District of Maryland in pursuance of the directions of the act of Assembly in such case made and provided transmit to the Court of Appeals here the record of proceedings of a plea which was lately depending before them in the County Court of Prince George's, between Francis Belmear plaintiff and Walter S. Clarke defendant, and wherein the said County Court gave judgment for the said Francis Belmear against the said Walter S. Clarke, and from which said judgment the said Walter S. Clarke appealed to the Court of Appeals here the tenor of which said record of proceedings is in form following to wit:
