POETRY.

THE BROTHERS.

BY MRS. ABDY.

Oh! brother, we have met again! what tedious years have past
Since we strayed upon yow breezy hills in careless boyhood fast·
We parted, earth elate with hope, wide seas between us rolled;
I sought in sultry eastern climes to gather heaps of gold,
And you consumed the midnight oil in themes abstruse and deep,
Striving to climb the topmast height of learning's thorny steep;
We roam once more, dear brother, in our native glades and bowers,
And surely hopes were never crowned so brilliantly as ours.

I come enriched with countless wealth from India's spicy shores,
And in brilliant pomps and luxuries diffuse my lavish store,
While you the homage and the praise of learned men command,
And claim a noble rank amid the wise ones of the land·
Yet, brother, are we happy when we sit beside the hearth?
Do we breathe the tones of joyfulness, or smile the smiles of mirth?
No, no; your brow bespeaks a heart too ready to repine.
And well I know the feeling is reflected back in mine.

Dear brother, to our loved pursuits our constant thoughts we gave,
And never seemed the tenderness of faithful friends to crave;
Yet gathered classic treasures and I sought for Mammon's spoil.
Uncheered by woman's gentle eye, by woman's kindly smile,
We gained our wish—but barren is the scene that round us lies;
We boast not friendship's cordial joys, or love's endearing ties;
We never thought of others in the summer that has gone,
And we stand, in life's dull wintry eye, unloved, unblest, alone.

Oh! if a parent's bliss were ours, how happy might we be,
Surrounded by the dear ones we had fondled on our knee!
With fatherly delight I might deck some blushing girl
In the brightly flashing diamond, or the softly gleaming pearl;
While you through learning's labyrinth might lead your ardent son
To grasp still higher honor's than his gifted sire had won;
Our wives might smile beside us in their tenderness and truth.
And welcome, in their offspring, a second brighter youth.

Oh! brother, we have toiled in vain—we have not met success
Of life's great aim—we have not reached the goal of happiness;
Yet our cold and selfish vanites still bind us to the sod,
Nor dare we put the world aside, and give ourselves to God;
The gentle charities of earth—the ties of wedded love—
These smooth the path of man below, and guides his way above;
But we never sought them, brother, and our vaunted wealth and fame
End in a splendid lonely hearth—a proud and empty name!

Crab-apple Eloquence.—The following jury speech was perpetrated in Pike county, Illinois, by a Buck-eye lawyer of those parts. It was upon a case of a dead cow.

Gentlemen of the jury—It are one thing for a man to be brought up, and it are another thing for him to think he are, as for that are man, (his opponent) I don't think he war ever brought up at all, but jist naturally fetched down on a raft! He have said a great deal about vexatious suits, and sich; but, gentlemen, if he had come down to this court, and hadn't found no suits on the docket, I guess there'd be another sort of vexation then; and vexatious or not, the gentleman gits many fees out on 'em as any body else. He have told you that we have not proved our cow to be worth a single cent, and that you don't know that she wer worth any thing Now this are not the idea of a sound and legal lawyer, but ar the notion of a mushroom! Sir, there never war a cow since the days of old Adam that war not worth a single cent; for if she warn't worth nothing for a breed cow, she ar worth something for her hide and taller, and the tail goes with the hide! He have said much more about our evidence. Now this are not a criminal case, and we arn't obliged to have prima facie evidence for the fact. I say prima facie evidence, that is, self-evident of itself! But this an't a criminal case, and we an't bound to have prima face evidence: and now I think on't, the gentleman told you that it war a civil suit for damages, and he said the law I read to you war for a criminal offence It war so, gentlemen, and I read it to you to show you what we mought have done, if we had a chose to be vexatious as the gentlemen supposed; we mought have made a criminal case, but we didn't; and now, gentlemen, I'll tell you a case that came into my head, but I don't know what it is:—a man war tucked up for steeling ducks, and they war going to find him guilty, when he proved that they war all drakes, and so they didn't have prima face evidence of the fact.—But, as I said before, gentlemen, we an't in a criminal case, and we an't bound to have prima facie evidence. The gentleman, I have said his client's are a hard case; it ar hard case gentlemen of the jury, and it ought to be; for what says the good book? It says, 'The ways of the transgressor are always hard!' and that's the reason why the gentleman's client's case are a hard one.

MATTHIAS, the imposter again.—This notorious scoundrel is again at his tricks of imposition, as we learn by the Little Rock, Arkansas Advocate. He made his entrance into that city with all the sanctity and assurance of a "man of God," and with a black flowing beard which the noblest son of Israel might envy. But alas! "how are the mighty fallen!" In less than six hours after he entered the city, Sampson like was he shorn by the unbelieving sons of Arkansas; and with his beard went his spirit of prophecy. He bore his loss like a martyr, and without attempting to teach or preach, took leave of the sacrilegious community in two days after, fully convinced that his case was an exception to that passage of the scripture which says, 'No prophet is without honor, save in 'his own country and in his own house.'

ATKINSON'S
EVENING POST
AND
PHILADELPHIA SATURDAY NEWS

A WEEKLY Family paper, devoted to Literature, Science, Arts, Foreign & Domestic Intelligence, &c. &c. published in Philadelphia, at Two Dollars per annum, payable in advance

The subscriber having recently purchased the proprietorship of the PHILADELPHIA SATURDAY NEWS, a weekly journal of wide circulation, and high literary character proposes henceforth to issue that paper in connection with his own long established and well known periodical, the EVENING POST. By the junction of these two journals, the list of subscribers to the united publication will be among the greatest in the United States. To preserve and extend this ample circulation, the subscriber is determined to make every effort which his means will allow. Among the early improvements which he proposes to introduce, will be a finer quality of paper and other mechanical changes which will tend to make the Evening Post and News one of the most elegant weekly papers which the country furnishes.

Upon the literary department of the Evening Post and News, the subscriber intends to bestow particular attention. The editorial management of the paper is committed to a gentleman of high reputed qualifications and character, and negociations are now in progress by which the aid of the best talent in the country will be secured. With these accessions to his present able list of contributors, the subscriber does not hesitate to predict that in point of literary merit the Evening Post and News will speedily take rank among the first of our periodicals.

To his own patrons, many of whom have received the Evening Post since its commencement, the subscriber offers his assurances that the same attention to the inculcation of sound morals, blended with profitable amusement and useful instruction, which in years past has secured their approbation, shall still be directed to similar results; and to the patrons of the Saturday News, he offers assurances that the spirit, variety and abundance, both of original & selected literature, shall in no degree be diminished under his control. From the latter, therefore, he confidently expects a continuance of the favors so liberally bestowed on his predecessors, which it shall be his earnest study to merit.

TERMS.

Single number of the paper for 1 year, $2
Three copies 1 year. $5

Agents who favor us with $10 in current notes will be entitled to an extra volume of the Post, and a volume of the Casket for a past year.

OF THE
American Silk Society
AND
RURAL ECONOMIST.

At a Convention which met at Baltimore on the 11th of December last, composed of a great number of gentlemen from various parts of the Union, distinguished for their public services, patriotism & practical intelligence, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted after full discussion, in the course of which a great mass of facts and valuable information was elicited.

Resolved, That it is the deliberate opinion of this Convention that Silk may be grown in all the United States, not only for domestic purposes, but as a valuable article of commercial export—thereby giving an active employment to American labour, and retaining millions of dollars in our country, that are annually sent out of it for the purchase of silken goods.

Resolved, That a National Silk Journal ought to be established under the auspices of the Executive Committee and all the funds over and above the support of said paper ought to be devoted to the advancement of the silk cause in the United States.

Under the latter resolution the subscriber has been solicited to assume the editorial superintendence of the Journal to be published by the Society, and now, with not the least abatement of that fondness (not to say passion,) for rural life, and all its pursuits which prompted him eighteen years since to issue the first number of the old American Farmer he is but too happy to salute once more his old friends and correspondents, promising to deserve new ones by the most assiduous endeavors, (not incompatible with strict attention to his official duties,) to accelerate the growth and progress of what he is convinced is destined to become a great branch of national industry, bringing into active exercise much of the now unproductive laboring power of the country, giving comfort to the widow and the orphan, by offering them suitable and remunerating employment, and making, in the aggregate, a large addition to the wealth and prosperity of our beloved Union.

Though SILK and every thing connected with its production and all improvements in machinery for its preparation and manufacture, will constitute the chief design and aim of the Journal, for the sake of the agreeable and useful variety, a considerable portion of its pages will be dedicated to the justly popular and kindred subjects of agriculture horticulture, and rural and domestic economy—Hence, the adjunctive title 'RURAL ECONOMIST.'

J. S SKINNER.

The Journal of the American Silk Society will be published monthly, in pamphlet form each number will contain thirty-two pages, printed on new type and handsome paper with a printed coloured cover

All persons friendly to the objects of the Journal will please collect at once and transmit the names and subscription money of those who may feel disposed to patronize it.

TERMS.

Two Dollars a year, or six copies for Ten Dollars, always to be paid before the work is sent All subscriptions to begin with the first number of the year, and in no case will the work be sent to any subscriber longer than it shall have been paid for.

All communications to be addressed, post paid to GIDEON B. SMITH, Corresponding Secretary of the Society

All Editors of papers who may desire to see Silk added to the list of American Staples; and who will have the kindness to give this prospectus a few insertions, will be entitled to a copy of the Journal.

R. FENNER,

General Agent for Pennsylvania, Maryland Delaware, &c. No. 34 south at three doors below Market st., Philadelphia, and No. 10 North st. Baltimore, near the Post Office.

HEALTH SECURED BY THE USE OF THE HYGEIAN VEGETABLE UNIVERSAL MEDICINES,

As formerly prepared under the supervision of the late Mr. THOMAS MOAT, Vice President of The British College of HEALTH, LONDON.

Manufactured in this country in their original purity by H. SHEPHEARD MOAT eldest son of the above.

Which have obtained the approbation and recommendation of Thousands, who have been cured in Consumption, Cholera Morbus Inflamations, internally or externally, and all diseases of the Liver, Yellow Fever, Gout Rheumatism, Lumbago, Tic Douloreux, Dropsy, St. Vitus's Dance, Epilepsy, Apoplexy Paralysis, Palsy, Green Sickness, and all obstructions to which the Female form is distressingly liable, and which send so many of the fairest portion of the creation to the untimely graves; Small Pox, Measles Whooping Cough, Scarlet Fever, Asthma Jaundice, Gravel, Stone, and all Urinary Obstructions, Fistula, Piles, Structures, Ruptures, and Syphilies in all its stages; Constipated Bowels, Worms, Scurvy, Itching of the Skin, Kings Evil and all Cutaneous Disorders in short, every Complaint to which the human frame is so directly subject, under all their varied forms and names, as the Hygeian conviction is, that MAN IS SUBJECT TO ONLY ONE REAL DISEASE, that is, in the IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD, from which springs every Complaint that can possibly assail his complicated frame, and that it is the perpetual struggle of this vital, purest stream of life, (the gift of Almighty power to do self cancumber itself of its vicious, acrid humors, with which it has become contaminated

This valuable medicine, being composed only of vegetable matter, of medicinal herbs, and warranted on oath, as containing not one particle of mercurial, mineral, or chemical substances, (all of which are unoegenial to the nature of man and therefore destructive to the human frame) is found to be perfectly harmless to the most tender age, or weakest frame, under every stage of human suffering, the most pleasant and benign in its operation, and at the same time the most certain in searching out the root of every complaint, however deep, and of performing a cure that was ever offered to the world It is wonderful effect, too, is produced by the least trouble to the patients, with the least possible tension of pain exhaustion of bodily strength, and without the fear of catching cold, or attention to dress or diet, in any way different from their accustomed habits.

These Pills cure in all cases, and cannot be taken to excess Experience, which is the touchstone of all human knowledge, has long borne testimony to the fact, and extensive use of them has already verified its truth in this country.

These medicines cure by purging, and yet the weak, the feeble, the infirm, the nervous, the delicate are in a few days strengthened by their operation, because they clear the body of its bad humors, and invariously produce sound sleep. They are the safest and most efficacious Medicine to take to sea; preventing scurvey, costiveness, &c

The operation of this mild Medicine, which conveys immediate conviction of its utility, from the first dose is as beneficial to the mind as the body; first calming then curing all Mental derangements, Eccentricities, Nervous Affections Irritability and Restlessness, from whatever source; complaints which have hitherto not been properly understood, as the Hygeists have found them all to proceed from acrimonious humours in the blood, and, happily for the present and future race of mankind, discovered a cheap and universal mode of purifying, curing, and preserving.

The being cured of any disease, infirmity, or sore, is now no more a dubious or uncertain procedure—perseverance in the Vegetable Universal Medicines will always restore nature to her due course. The literary and sedentary of both sexes, whose pursuit so much impair the faculties, will find a sure remedy in the Universal Medicines for preserving the energy and sprightliness of the imagination, and improving their health; old age will be attained by the use of them, and passed free from pain and infirmities.

They are not enveloped with the mysteries of other medicines; they only require to be persevered in with sufficiently large doses, and the patient will come off well; when a disease is obstinate, patients frequently do not take doses large enough.

The medicines are comprised in three different articles only, viz: in two kinds of pills, of different strength or power, designated by No 1, and No 2; the first is a powerful, but most mild and gentle aperient, or opening medicine, detaching and partially removing the bilious ropy humors, while the No 2 Pills carry off those and the serious acid and putrid humors, incidental to the body; and act together as a ferret in a warren, never resting until every avenue of the human frame is thoroughly searched, and cleansed of its impurities

The Vegetable Cleansing Powders are of great assistance to patients and facilitate the evacuation of bad humors; they soften, cleanse, and detach the acrimonious phlegm; are cooling and allay thirst One, two or three powders may be taken throughout the day, mixed in a half tumbler of water.

The pills are sold in 25 cent boxes, and packets at $1, $2 and $5 each. The Powder in boxes 37½ cents.

CAUTION—Medicines of such great virtue as these, have been, and will be most certainly counterfeited—To protect those desirous of obtaining the Genuine Hygeian Medicines, every packet has a fac simile of the signature of H. Shepheard Moat, on one side, and on the other a yellow label, with the written signatures for the district, and the actual seller of the medicine.

The publications in proof of the Hygeian Theory, are:

Morrisonian, 2 vols 8vo—price $2.75 per vol
The Family Adviser, 3 vols. 8vo—$1 per vol
Practical Proof, containing many attested cures, price 37½ cents And just published.
The Mother's Book of Hygeian Midwifery, A. Shepheard Moat, of New York.

☞ Respectable parties may be appointed Agents on liberal terms, by applying to the General Depot, No 34 SOUTH SEVENTH STREET, three doors below Market street Philadelphia—and at No 10 North street Baltimore, nearly opposite the Post Office where the Genuine Medicine may always be obtained
