POETRY.

From the Public Ledger.

MORUS MULTICAULIS.

An American Song, adapted to the Year 1839, and sung by Silk Amateurs, in all parts of the United States– Quakers included.

What ho! ye poets—hither bring
Your harps, and strike each golden string!
My summons to you all is:
Come! waken up your lazy drones,
With all your loudest, sweetest tones,
And make them stir their rusty bones
For Morus Multicaulis.

Sing how 'twas lately that I found,
Stretched prostrate on the frozen ground,
A sober, honest Quaker;
And when I asked the reason why
He chose so low and cold to lie,
He bolted up, and glided by,
As car glides by the breaker:
But as I caught his spacious brim,
And still to know beleaguered him,
He moaned: "Forsooth! my fall is—
That I, in knocking off 'a boot,'
Have in a jiffy bruised my foot
Against a frosty, sapless root
Of——Morus Multicaulis."

I saw a Priest rise to declaim,
And thus he spoke, with eye of flame:
(He high on Zion's wall is)—
"Dear flock! beware of naughty pelf!
The man that loves it hates himself,
O! lay your idols on the shelf,
For——Morus Multicaulis."

I saw a Levite pass this way,
And as he passed, I heard him say:
"Lord! sin my grief and thrall is!
O, Lord! look thou in mercy down—
O! turn away thy dreaded frown—
And spare our wicked, crazy town
From——Morus Multicaulis."

I saw a Doctor riding by,
And leering with a lustful eye,
Where yonder tree so tall is:
A sick man begged him for a dose—
He gave him, first, a look morose,
And this proscription: "Take corros Sub.——Morus Multicaulis."

A Lawyer, turning o'er his books,
In search of quibbles and of crooks,
Roared out: "My case like gall is:
If action will not, I must—lie.
Defendant we must snub with 'Sci.'—
We'll see who'll make this cause go by,
Through—Morus Multicaulis."

A Merchant, lounging, stick in hand,
I saw behind his counter stand,
Where yonder pendant shawl is:
And as a lady sought the price,
He bowed, "We have them, very nice—
We'll serve you, madam, in a trice,
With——Morus Multicaulis."

I saw two haus-ton Ladies meet,
Who bragged of children in the street:
"Your son more sweet than doll is:"
"O! do not mention it, my dear—
He is too sick to live, I fear—
He's had the fever all the year.
The———Morus Multicaulis."

A Pedagogue, whose blockhead stool
Is oft the terror of his school,
In learning's aid a maul is,
But yesterday gave out to spell
A lesson that the class knew well;
Ye oft these words amid them fell:
'Boys!——Morus Multicaulis.'

A Sailor on the wakeful deep,
Awake himself while others sleep,
Can tell when brewing squall is:
But one who lately trod the deck,
And saw far off a cloudy speck,
Sang out. 'Hallo! ahoy! that wreck
Of——Morus Multicaulis.'

A Fisherman came shouting past,
Slouching and grinning in the blast;
I asked: 'Tell what your bawl is,"
He answered, with a swaggering roll,
By stretching out a ten foot pole,
And said, 'I'm fishing for a shoal
Of——Morus Multicaulis.'

I saw a Farmer at his plough,
Who murmured, with a rugged brow,
'Covered my land with pall is:
'Tis fruitless, for 'tis black at night:
No—no! I'm wrong, as sand 'tis white,
My only hope to bring it right.
Is——Morus Multicaulis.'

Thus a Mechanic, toiling hard,
Burnt with the sun, with roof-falls hard:
'I'll work ten hours, nor less
Nor more I'll budge an inch,
Put on the screws! think ye I'll flinch?
It takes this critter for a pinch
At——Morus Multicaulis."

A Statesman, rising in his place,
And setting like a flint his face,
Began. "Sir, we are lawless
Except our party come to rule,
And turn from office..you poor fool,
That silly ape, the stupid mule,
That——Morus Multicaulist."

I saw a sage Phrenologist
Open on sconce his daily fist,
Who said; "Within this Hall is
A growing lot of bumpy mind;
'Nervous'—'Lymphatic'—both combined,
'Sanguine' and 'Bilious' here you find
For——Morus Multicaulis."

I saw a Soldier in the field,
Who off for Maine his legions wheeled;
His cry for cannon ball is:
Beneath the floating banner's fold
I see his step and bearing bold;
He bids the rattling drum be rolled
For——Morus Multicaulis.

An Editor came bouncing near,
With devil flouncing in his rear:
"My aim to lay this brawl is"—
Aloud he spoke: "Good folk, be still;
I'll raise the devil with my quill,
And he shall stuff you to the fill
With——Morus Multicaulis."

But should for me all muses sing,
And thus Pegasus spread his wing,
Their music rayther small is;
But smaller still, I guess, will be
The warbling of the minstrelsy
Of traders in the wond'rous tree—
The Morus Multicaulis.

JOURNAL
OF THE
American Silk Society
AND
RURAL ECONOMIST.

At a Convention which met at Baltimore on the 11th of December last, composed of a great number of gentlemen from various parts of the Union, distinguished for their public services, patriotism & practical intelligence, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted after full discussion, in the course of which a great mass of facts and valuable information was elicited.

Resolved, That it is the deliberate opinion of this Convention that Silk may be grown in all the United States, not only for domestic purposes, but as a valuable article of commercial export—thereby giving an active employment to American labour, and retaining millions of dollars in our country, that are annually sent out of it for the purchase of silken goods.

Resolved, That a National Silk Journal ought to be established under the auspices of the Executive Committee, and all the funds over and above the support of said paper ought to be devoted to the advancement of the silk cause in the United States.

Under the latter resolution the subscriber has been solicited to assume the editorial superintendence of the Journal to be published by the Society, and now, with not the least abatement of that fondness (not to say passion,) for rural life, and all its pursuits, which prompted him eighteen years since to issue the first number of the old American Farmer, he is but too happy to salute once more his old friends and correspondents, promising to deserve new ones by the most assiduous endeavours, (not incompatible with strict attention to his official duties,) to accelerate the growth and progress of what he is convinced is destined to become a great branch of national industry, bringing into active exercise much of the now unproductive laboring power of the country, giving comfort to the widow and the orphan, by offering them suitable and remunerating employment, and making, in the aggregate, a large addition to the wealth and prosperity of our beloved Union.

Though SILK and every thing connected with its production and all improvements in machinery for its preparation and manufacture, will constitute the chief design and aim of the Journal, for the sake of the agreeable and useful variety, a considerable portion of its pages will be dedicated to the justly popular and kindred subjects of agriculture, horticulture, and rural and domestic economy.—Hence, the adjunctive title 'RURAL ECONOMIST.'

J. S. SKINNER.

The Journal of the American Silk Society will be published monthly, in pamphlet form, each number will contain thirty-two pages, printed on new type and handsome paper, with a printed coloured cover.

All persons friendly to the objects of the Journal will please collect at once and transmit the names and subscription money of those who may feel disposed to patronize it.

TERMS.

Two Dollars a year, or six copies for Ten Dollars, always to be paid before the work is sent. All subscriptions to begin with the first number of the year, and in no case will the work be sent to any subscriber longer than it shall have been paid for.

All communications to be addressed, post paid, to GIDEON B. SMITH, Corresponding Secretary of the Society.

All Editors of papers who may desire to see Silk added to the list of American Staples; and who will have the kindness to give this prospectus a few insertions, will be entitled to a copy of the Journal.

HEALTH SECURED BY THE USE OF THE HYGEIAN VEGTABLE UNIVERSAL MEDICINES,

As formerly prepared under the supervision of the late Mr. THOMAS MOAT, Vice President of

The Britih College of HEALTH, LONDON.

Manufactured in this country in their original purity by H. SHEPHEARD MOAT eldest son of the above.

Which have obtained the approbation and recommendation of Thousands, who have been cured in Consumption, Cholera Morbus Inflamations, internally or externally, and at diseases of the Liver, Yellow Fever, Goul Rheumatism, Lumbago, Tic Doloreux, Dropsy, St. Vitus's Dance, Epilepsy, Apoplexy Paralysis, Palsy, Green Sickness, and all obstructions to which the Female form is qe distressingly liable, and which send so many of the fairest portion of the creation to the untimely graves; Small Pox, Measels Whooping Cough, Scarlet Fever, Asthma Jaundice, Gravel, Stone, and all Urinary Obstructions, Fistula, Piles, Structures, Ruptures, and Syphilies in all its stages; Constipated Bowels, Worms, Scurvy, Itching of the Skin, Kings Evil and all Cutaneous Disorders in short, every Complaint to which the human frame is so direfully subject, under all their varied forms and names, as the Hygeian conviction is, that MAN IS SUBJECT TO ONLY ONE REAL DISEASE, that is, in the IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD, from which springs every Complaint that can possibly assail his complicated frame, and that it is the perpetual struggle of this vital, purest stream of life, (the gift of Almighty powere to disencumber itself of its vicious, acrid humors, with which it has become commixed

This valuable medicine, being composed only of vegetable matter, of medicinal herbs, and warranted on oath, as containing not one particle of mercurial, mineral, or chemical substances, (all of which are uncongenial to the nature of man, and therefore destructive to the human frame,) is found to be perfectly harmless to the most tender age, or weakest frame, under every stage of human suffering, the most pleasant and benign in its operation, and at the same time the most certain in searching out the root of every complaint, however deep, and of performing a cure that was ever offered to the world This wonderful effect, too, is produced by the least trouble to the patients, with the least possible tensation of pain exhaustion of bodily strength, and without the fear of catching cold, or attention to dress or diet, in any way different from their accustomed habits.

These Pills cure in all cases, and cannot be taken to excess. Experience, which is the touchstone of all human knowledge, has long borne testimony to the fact, and extensive use of them has already verified its truth in this country.

These medicines cure by purging, and yet the weak, the feeble, the infirm, the nervous, the delicate are in a few days strengthened by their operation, because they clear the body of its bad humors, and invariously produce sound sleep. They are the safest and most efficacious Medicine to take to sea; preventing scurvey, costiveness, &c

The operation of this mild Medicine, which conveys immediate conviction of its utility, from the first dose is as beneficial to the mind as the body; first calming then enring all Mental derangements, Eccentricities, Nervous Affections, Irritability and Restlessness, from whatever source; complaints which have hitherto not been properly understood, as the Hygeists have found them all to proceed from acrimonious humours in the blood, and, happily for the present and future race of mankind, discovered a cheap and universal mode of purifying, curing, and preventing.

The being cured of any disease, infirmity, or sore, is now no more a dubious or uncertain procedure—perseverance in the Vegetable Universal Medicines will always restore nature to her due course. The litesary and sedentary of both sexes, whose pursuit so much impair the faculties, will find a sure remedy in the Universal Medicines for preserving the energy and sprightliness of the imagination, and improving their health; old age will be attained by the use of them, and passed free from pain and infirmities.

They are not enveloped with the mysteries of other medicines; they only require to be persevered in with sufficiently large doses, and the patient will come off well; when a disease is obstinate, patients frequently do not take doses large enough.

The medicines are comprised in three different articles only, viz: in two kinds of pills, of different strength or power, designated by No 1, and No 2; the first is a powerful, but most mild and gentle aperient, or opening medicine, detaching and partially removing the billious ropy humors, while the No 2 Pills carry off those and the serious acid and putrid humors, incidental to the body; and act together as a ferret in a warren, never resting until every avenue of the human frame is thoroughly searched, and cleansed of its impurities.

The Vegetable Cleansing Powders are of great assistance to patients, and facilitate the evacuation of bad humors; they soften, cleanse, and detach the acrimoni phlegm; are cooling and allay thirst. One, two or three powders may be taken throughout the day, mixed in a half tumbler of water.

The pills are sold in 25 cent boxes, and packets of $1, $2 and $3 each. The Powder in boxes 37½ cents.

CAUTION—Medicines of such great virtue as these, have been, and will be most certainly counterfeited.—To protect those desirous of obtaining the Genuine Hygeian Medicines, every packet has a fac simile of the signature of H. Shepheard Moat, on one side, and on the other a yellow label, with the written signatures for the district, and the actual seller of the medicine.

The publications in proof of the Hygeian Theory, are:

Morrisonian, 2 vols 8vo—price $2.75 per vol
The Family Adviser, 3 vols. 8vo—$1 per vol
Practical Proof, containing many attested cures, price 37½ cents. And just published,
The Mother's Book of Hygeian Midwifery, A. Shepheard Moat, of New York.

☞Respectable parties may be appointed Agents on liberal terms, by applying to the General Depot, No 34 SOUTH SEVENTH STREET, three doors below Market street Philadelphia—and at No 10 North street Baltimore, nearly opposite the Post Office where the Genuine Medicine may always be obtained.
