THE WIDOWER'S BRIDE.

BY MRS. ABDY.

I wedded where I fondly loved;
My friends with eager voice
Bestowed their sanction, and approved
The husband of my choice;
They told me that his former bride
Unmingled bliss had known,
And from her fortunes prophesied
The brightness of my own.

He too had friends—his deep distress
They pitied and deplored,
And said that woman's smiles should bless
Once more his hearth and board;
That he should seek the busy throng,
And mark the young and fair,
And let his children know, ere long,
Another mother's care.

Oh, sad exchange!—the heart I brought
Was full of joy and youth,
Warm, open, in its slightest thought,
And single in its truth;
While his, by sorrow worn and tried,
One vision only nursed.
The image of another bride,
The dearest and the first.

The lawns and bowers around the hall,
Her taste arranged and planned,
That flowery world he loves to call
A little fairy-land;
And then I sigh for some lone cot,
Where clustering boughs might twine,
Whose foliage shou'd acknowledge not
A training hand but mine.

The old domestics, mutely chide,
I meet their mournful look,
If I displace or cast aside
A picture, vase, or book:
Though mistress of this noble fane.
They gaze on me in dread,
As one who lightly dares profane
The relics of the dead.

Her kindred gather round our hearth,
And oft some guest accost
With records of the grace and worth
Of her the loved, the lost:
Then start, and pause, and glance around,
If I perchance draw near,
As though they kindly feared to wound
My listening, jealous ear.

Her children—I could love them well,
Might I their trust secure,
But my caresses they repel,
Or passively endure;
And if I venture to reprove,
They trembling shun my gaze,
Or murmur of the tender love
They knew in happier days.

Yet ills like these I well could brook,
If he—my loved, my own,—
Rejoiced me with one happy look,
Or one endearing tone;
But no, his lost one ever seems
His heart and thoughts to claim,
And oft he starts from feverish dreams,
And wildly breathes her name.

Daily he hastes to solitude,
And o'er her portrait sighs;
That portrait once by stealth I viewed,
I marked the dazzling eyes,
The golden locks, the lip of rose,
The cheek of softer bloom;
My rival smiled upon my woes,
And mocked me from the tomb!

Yet my complaints must fruitless be;
The world esteems me blest,
Of power, and pomp, and luxury,
Triumphantly possest;
And I must smile with feelings torn,
And fond affections checked,
And yield my girlhood's sunny morn
To coldness and neglect.

Yet to the youthful and the fair
This warning I impart—
If thou can'st humbly stoop to share
A sad and widowed heart,
Know thou each trial I have proved,
Thou also must sustain—
He who has warmly, truly loved;
Can never love again!

JOURNAL OF THE American Silk Society AND RURAL ECONOMIST.

At a Convention which met at Baltimore on the 11th of December last, composed of a great number of gentlemen from various parts of the Union, distinguished for their public services, patriotism & practical intelligence, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted after full discussion, in the course of which a great mass of facts and valuable information was elicited.

Resolved, That it is the deliberate opinion of this Convention that Silk may be grown in all the United States, not only for domestic purposes, but as a valuable article of commercial export—thereby giving an active employment to American labour, and retaining millions of dollars in our country, that are annually sent out of it for the purchase of silken goods.

Resolved, That a National Silk Journal ought to be established under the auspices of the Executive Committee, and all the funds over and above the support of said paper ought to be devoted to the advancement of the silk cause in the United States.

Under the latter resolution the subscriber has been solicited to assume the editorial superintendence of the Journal to be published by the Society, and now, with not the least abatement of that fondness (not to say passion,) for rural life, and all its pursuits, which prompted him eighteen years since to issue the first number of the old American Farmer, he is but too happy to salute once more his old friends and correspondents, promising to deserve new ones by the most assiduous endeavours, (not incompatible with strict attention to his official duties,) to accelerate the growth and progress of what he is convinced is destined to become a great branch of national industry, bringing into active exercise much of the now unproductive laboring power of the country, giving comfort to the widow and the orphan, by offering them suitable and remunerating employment, and making, in the aggregate, a large addition to the wealth and prosperity of our beloved Union.

Though SILK and every thing connected with its production and all improvements in machinery for its preparation and manufacture, will constitute the chief design and aim of the Journal, for the sake of the agreeable and useful variety, a considerable portion of its pages will be dedicated to the justly popular and kindred subjects of agriculture, horticulture, and rural and domestic economy—Hence, the adjunctive title 'RURAL ECONOMIST.'

J. S SKINNER.

The Journal of the American Silk Society will be published monthly, in pamphlet form each number will contain thirty-two pages, printed on new type and handsome paper, with a printed coloured cover

All persons friendly to the objects of the Journal will please collect at once and transmit the names and subscription money of those who may feel disposed to patronize it.

TERMS.

Two Dollars a year, or six copies for Ten Dollars, always to be paid before the work is sent All subscriptions to begin with the first number of the year, and in no case will the work be sent to any subscriber longer than it shall have been paid for.

All communications to be addressed, post paid, to GIDEON B. SMITH, Corresponding Secretary of the Society.

All Editors of papers who may desire to see Silk added to the list of American Staples; and who will have the kindness to give this prospectus a few insertions, will be entitled to a copy of the Journal.

LADIES' FANCY

SHOE STORE.

(WHOLESALE AND RETAIL)

27 W. Lexington st. between Park and Howard sts.

WILLIAM COASE, respectfully informs the ladies of Baltimore and his numerous friends, that he still continues to manufacture and keep on hand as usual a very handsome assortment of Ladies' and Childrens' Fancy dress and Walking SHOES, all of which he will sell at his former prices, which are as low as any in the city. With having the advantage of the best materials from the first morocco factories of Philadelphia and Baltimore, he is enabled to furnish a superior article. He returns his most sincere thanks to the Ladies in particular for the very liberal encouragement he has received for the last three years, and hopes by his usual attention and endeavour to please to still continue that patronage from the public which he most respectfully solicits.

N B—Country Merchants and others that want a superior article for retail will find it to their advantage to purchase of him, as they can select such size and kind as they may want, or have any kind or size made to order at a short notice, with the privilege of ordering from one dozen to more as may suit themselves. His work is well known in the city and requires no further recommendation.

All those indebted to me for their last year's account will please to settle the same without further delay. W. C.

Morison's Pills

R. FENNER,

General Agent for Pennsylvania, Maryland Delaware, &c. No. 34 south st three doors below Market st., Philadelphia, and No. 10 North st. Baltimore, near the Post Office.

HEALTH SECURED BY THE USE OF THE HYGEIAN VEGETABLE UNIVERSAL MEDICINES,

As formerly prepared under the supervision of the late Mr. THOMAS MOAT, Vice President of

The British College of HEALTH, LONDON.

Manufactured in this country in their original purity by H. SHEPHEARD MOAT eldest son of the above.

Which have obtained the approbation and recommendation of Thousands, who have been cured in Consumption, Cholera Morbus Inflamations, internally or externally, and all diseases of the Liver, Yellow Fever, Gout Rheumatism, Lumbago, Tic Doloreux, Dropsy, St. Vitus's Dance, Epilepsy, Apoplexy Paralysis, Palsy, Green Sickness, and all obstructions to which the Female form is so distressingly liable, and which send so many of the fairest portion of the creation to the untimely graves; Small Pox, Measels Whooping Cough, Scarlet Fever, Asthma Jaundice, Gravel, Stone, and all Urinary Obstructions, Fistula, Piles, Structures, Ruptures, and Syphilies in all its stages; Constipated Bowels, Worms, Scurvy, Itching of the Skin, Kings Evil and all Cutaneous Disorders in short, every Complaint to which the human frame is so directly subject, under all their varied forms and names, as the Hygeian conviction is, that MAN IS SUBJECT TO ONLY ONE REAL DISEASE that is, in the IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD, from which springs every Complaint that can possibly assail his complicated frame, and that it is the perpetual struggle of this vital, purifying stream of life, (the gift of Almighty power to defend itself of its vicious, acrid humors, with which it has become commixed

This valuable medicine, being composed only of vegetable matter, of medicinal herbs and warranted on oath, as containing not one particle of mercurial, mineral, or chemical substances, (all of which are uncongenial to the nature of man, and therefore destructive to the human frame) is found to be perfectly harmless to the most tender age, or weakest frame, under every stage of human suffering, the most pleasant and benign in its operation, and at the same time the most certain in searching out the root of every complaint, however deep, and of performing a cure that was ever offered to the world This wonderful effect, too, is produced by the least trouble to the patients, with the least possible sensation of pain exhaustion of bodily strength, and without the fear of catching cold, or attention to dress or diet, in any way different from their accustomed habits.

These Pills cure in all cases, and cannot be taken to excess Experience, which is the touchstone of all human knowledge, has long borne testimony to the fact, and extensive use of them has already verified its truth in this country.

These medicines cure by purging, and yet the weak, the feeble, the infirm, the nervous, the delicate are in a few days strengthened by their operation, because they clear the body of its bad humors, and invariously produce sound sleep. They are the safest and most efficacious Medicine to take to sea; preventing scurvey, costiveness, &c

The operation of this mild Medicine, which conveys immediate conviction of its utility, from the first dose is as beneficial to the mind as the body; first calming then curing all Mental derangements, Eccentricities, Nervous Affections Irritability and Restlessness, from whatever source; complaints which have hitherto not been properly understood, as the Hygeists have found them all to proceed from acrimonious humours in the blood, and, happily for the present and future race of mankind, discovered a cheap and universal mode of purifying, curing, and preventing.

The being cured of any disease, infirmity, or sore, is now no more a dubious or uncertain procedure—perseverance in the Vegetable Universal Medicines will always restore nature to her due course. The literary and sedentary of both sexes, whose pursuit so much impair the faculties, will find a sure remedy in the Universal Medicines for preserving the energy and sprightliness of the imagination, and improving their health; old age will be attained by the use of them, and passed free from pain and infirmities.

They are not enveloped with the mysteries of other medicines; they only require to be persevered in with sufficiently large doses, and the patient will come off well; when a disease is obstinate, patients frequently do not take doses large enough.

The medicines are comprised in three different articles only, viz: in two kinds of pills, of different strength or power, designated by No 1, and No 2; the first is a powerful, but most mild and gentle aperient, or opening medicine, detaching and partially removing the billious ropy humors, while the No 2 Pills carry off those and the serious acid and putrid humors, incidental to the body; and act together as a ferret in a warren, never resting until every avenue of the human frame is thoroughly searched, and cleansed of its impurities.

The Vegetable Cleansing Powders are of great assistance to patients, and facilitate the evacuation of bad humors; they soften, cleanse, and detach the acrimoni phlegm; are cooling and allay thirst. One, two or three powders may be taken throughout the day, mixed in a half tumbler of water.

The pills are sold in 25 cent boxes, and packets of $1, $2 and $3 each. The Powder in boxes 37½ cents.

CAUTION—Medicines of such great virtue as these, have been, and will be most certainly counterfeited—To protect those desirous of obtaining the Genuine Hygeian Medicines, every packet has a fac simile of the signature of H. Shepheard Moat, on one side, and on the other a yellow label, with the written signatures for the district, and the actual seller of the medicine.

The publications in proof of the Hygeian Theory, are:

Morrisonian, 2 vols 8vo—price $2.75 per vol
The Family Adviser, 3 vols. 8vo—$1 per vol
Practical Proof, containing many attested cures, price 37½ cents. And just published
The Mother's Book of Hygeian Midwifery, A. Shepheard Moat, of New York.

☞Respectable parties may be appointed agents on liberal terms, by applying to the General Depot, No 34 SOUTH SEVENTH STREET, three doors below Market street Philadelphia—and at No 10 North street Baltimore, nearly opposite the Post Office where the Genuine Medicine may always be obtained
