Baltimore April 16th 1848.		Surplus	$ 68.30

It is to be understood that the heirs of James Clark after paying December Term 1849.

the sum assess'd upon their property are entitled to extend the line of their lot, as far North as the line laid down upon the plat for opening Water Street, and the ground thence forward to be considered theirs.

It is also intended in our estimation of the Damages, that the persons whose houses are to be removed shall have the liberty of removing the materials for their own benefit, provided they do it by such time, as the City Commissioners may order, but in failure thereof, the Commissioners may take them down, and keep the materials, to defray the expence attendant thereon.
