Charles Kettlewell use of Wylie and Wilson - vs.
Joseph Morgan James A. Morgan Benedict Gough, Thomas W. Morgan and John B. Perry.

Be it remembered, That heretofore, to wit, on the third day of July in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and forty nine Charles Kettlewell, By Benjamin G. Harris his attorney, prosecuted and sued forth out of the Court of Appeals here, a writ of the State of Maryland, of Venditioni Exponas to the sheriff of Saint Mary's County directed, in the words and figures following to wit:

Maryland, Sc: The State of Maryland, To the sheriff of Saint Mary's (Seal) County Greeting: Whereas, at a County Court begun and held at Leonard Town in and for Saint Mary's County on the first Monday of August in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and forty five a certain Charles Kettlewell by the judgment of the said Court, recovered against a certain Joseph Morgan late of Saint Mary's County as well the sum of two thousand dollars current money for his damages which he had sustained by occasion of the non performance of a certain promise and assumption to the said Charles Kettlewell, Sr. by the said Joseph Morgan before that time made, as the sum of five dollars and fifty eight and one third cents for his costs and charges, by him about this suit in that behalf laid out and expended, whereof the said Joseph Morgan is convict, for which said damages, costs and charges the said Joseph Morgan, John B. Perry and Thomas W. Morgan on the seventh day of October, in the year eighteen hundred and forty six before R. G. B. Bond, and John L. Robey Esquires, two of the Justices of the peace of the said State, for Saint Mary's County did confess judgment to the said Charles Kettlewell; the said damages, costs and charges, to be levied of their bodies, goods or chattels, lands and tenements, for the use of the said Charles Kettlewell in case the said Joseph Morgan should not pay and satisfy to the said Charles Kettlewell the said damages, costs and charges, so as aforesaid recovered against him with the additional costs thereon, on the ninth day of February then next, according to the act of Assembly in such case made and provided; which said confession in form aforesaid taken was, by the same justices, returned to the said County Court of Saint Mary's County and whereof the said Joseph Morgan, John B. Perry and Thomas W. Morgan are convict, as by inspecting the record of proceedings of the same Court, brought before the Court of Appeals for the Western Shore, at the City of Annapolis by reason of errors alleged to have been therein, manifestly appears. And whereas it hath been adjudged in the said Court of Appeals, at the City of Annapolis aforesaid, on the second Monday in June in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty eight, that the said judgment given in form aforesaid, be in all things affirmed ratified, and that the said Charles Kettlewell might have execution against the said Joseph Morgan John B. Perry and Thomas W. Morgan for as well the damages, costs and charges aforesaid, as adjudged unto him in the said County Court, as also for the sum of eight dollars and two cents for his damages, costs and charges by him sustained by reason of delaying the execution of the judgment aforesaid, by means of the prosecuting a certain appeal by the said Joseph Morgan John B. Perry and Thomas W. Morgan before the said Court of Appeals for the correcting of errors of and upon the premises, whereof the said Joseph Morgan, John B. Perry and Thomas W. Morgan are convict as of record it likewise appeareth, for which said damages costs and charges, the said Joseph Morgan, John B. Perry, Thomas W. Morgan and certain James A. Morgan and Benedict Gough on the Seventeenth day of August in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty eight before A. B. Holmes and R. G. B. Bond Esquires, two of the justices of the peace of the said State for Saint Mary's County aforesaid, did confess judgment to the said Charles Kettlewell; the said damages costs and charges, to be levied of their bodies, goods or chattels, lands or tenements for the use of the said Charles Kettlewell in case the the said Joseph Morgan, John B. Perry and Thomas W. Morgan should not pay and satisfy to the said Charles Kettlewell the said damages costs and charges, so as aforesaid recovered against them with the additional costs thereon, on the Twenty first day of December the next following according to the act of Assembly in such case made and provided which said confession in form aforesaid taken, was, by the same justices, returned to the said Court of Appeals and whereof the said Joseph Morgan, John B. Perry, Thomas W. Morgan, James A. Morgan and Benedict Gough are convict, as of record is manifest -

And whereas on the twelfth day of March in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty nine you were commanded, that of the goods and chattels, lands and tenements of the said Joseph Morgan, James A. Morgan, Thomas W. Morgan, John B. Perry and Benedict Gough being in your bailiwick you should cause to be made the debt, damages, costs and charges aforesaid, and that you should have those sums before the said Court of Appeals, to be held at the City of Annapolis on the second Monday in June then next, to render unto the said Charles Kettlewell, the damages costs and charges aforesaid, on which said second Monday in June in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty nine you made return to the said Court of Appeals that by virtue of the said writ to you directed for that purpose you had taken a Tract of land called Mount Pleasant containing two hundred and thirteen acres, a Tract of Land called Lenstead and Green's Lot one hundred and eighteen acres a Tract of Land called Chance
