POETRY.

The following poem is from the pen of the Rev. Thomas H. Stockton.

From the Casket and Philadelphia Monthly Magazine.

THE FIRST MAN.

'These are the generations of the heavens and of the earth when they were created, in the day that the Lord God made the earth and the heavens, and every plant of the field before it was in the earth, and every herb of the field before it grew: for the Lord God had not caused it to rain upon the earth, and there was not a man to till the ground. But there went up a mist from the earth, and watered the whole face of the ground. And the Lord God formed man of the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and man became a living soul.'

Gen. ii. 4—7.

——Light rose the morning mist,
Through calmest regions of untainted air;
Touch'd, as it rose, with brightest, warmest tints,
Pour'd from a sun, unspotted, uneclipsed;
And far disclosing, by its soft ascent,
A scene surpassing all that genius dreams,
When beauty's choicest visions charm the soul.

So fresh, so green, so blooming, all below:—
So white the pebbles, gleaming from the depths
Of clear, cool waters, gently gliding round:—
So fair the flowers that lean'd along the marge,
More splendid in the mirror, upward turn'd;
But fragrant, as they droop'd and blush'd above;—
So graceful every motion, every shape
Of woodlands, mellow'd with an emerald hue
Dawning through foliage with no faded leaf;—
So loving every action, every look
Of living wonders, filling wood and wave
With frolic mirth by evil undisturb'd,—
So winning and entrancing countless birds,
Up warbling gaily, with no pause of fear,
Songs blent with sweets from blossoming homes of bliss.

So wide, so high, so glorious, all above:—
So dazzling, to the eagle's glance, the sun;
And so intensely blue, the boundless sky,
Through whose dim distance breezes slow and bland
The melting mildness of the mist withdrew.

Realm—subjects—court:—in grand array complete,—
Why comes not forth the crown'd and sceptred King?
A world in waiting for its God-like Chief,—
Why lingers yet the pomp of peerless power?

A bowery slope, with bloom and verdure soft,
Opening on park and plain, in sun and shade,—
Selectest loveliness of earth and sky,
Reveal'd the noblest of all forms Divine,
The mould of man!

The air was hushed with awe;
The grove, intent, as every leaf in thought;
Sport, 'neath the branches, stood unmoved; above,
With folded plumes, in silence music gazed.

Unconscious yet, the perfect structure lay.
It was not death! The air had never known
The coming Sceptre, breathing, claim its sphere;
The waters had not darken'd to their depths,
And shudder'd in the shadow of his wings.
The earth had never quaked beneath his feet,
Seal'd, by the print, a common sepulchre;
Nor in that ample frame had active warmth
Envolved and been exhausted; no decay,
Obstruction none, nor aught of fatal sign
Invoked the grave! And yet it was not life!
Nor swoon, nor trance, nor any accident
Of vital being held its empire there.
And sleep was not; no sense had been awake;
No pulse was yet in motion; in the brain,
No outward image, no perceptive mind.
A statue!—not from adamant cut out,
With superficial gloss of solid mass;
But wrought from dust, with transformation strange
To bone, flesh, blood; without, of port sublime,—
Within, of rarest wisdom, only known
To Him who made it—ready at His touch,
To start!—with thousand instincts quick inspired.

A matchless work. The common elements
In glorious union, such as earth and heaven
Had none to rival. Angels there beheld
Innumerous symmetries, which God alone
Could harmonize in thought; which God, Himself,
Embodying; deem'd the glory of His skill,—
The image of His own Communing Form:
All dignity and beauty blent with grace;
And over all a faint-diffusing tint,
A glowing prayer to catch the flame of life.

It seem'd the pause were purposed that the Sire,
Pleased with His offspring, might demand of all
If such a shape became the lord of earth?
And all the native ranks gave glad assent;
Such mild, subduing majesty went forth,
From that Unliving One; and all on high,
Spirits of power, of Beauty, and of Speed;
Spirits of Order, Government, and Law;
Spirits of Life, Health, Immortality,—
All witnesses of all the works of God—
Exulted in the fitness of the choice,
And hail'd the Coronation of the Man!

The breath of lives!

And instantly arose,
Flush'd with the fire, the Father of the World!
His soul was in a trance of truth and bliss,
Thought and affection filling first with God,
Admiring and adoring: promptly sage
To know all facts, relations, ends, and soon
Opening his senses to the realm around!

A deeper silence held the subject sphere:
Watching those wonderous eyes whose starry glance,
Pierced the dark glen, o'er hill and valley shone,
Reposed enraptured on the ardent sun,
And gave the whole calm circle to the mind.
Then gushed the sound of waters on his ear,
Fresh inspiration! Whispering brooks came close,
And hurrying through the gloom, again look'd back
From distant sunshine; and the solemn roar
Of unseen falls, from forests moist with spray,
Remoter homage brought sundued and slow.
Quick, low and sweet began, and swelling rose,
The myriad welcoming of half-hid birds,
The near leaves trembling with their trill'd delight:
While, self-recover'd from that royal glance,
The lion, rising in his wild retreat,
Pour'd the haught thunder of a stronger life!
Woke, too, the wind—and touch'd the tissued nerves
With most delicious coolness; while the flowers
From dewy censers flung their perfumes forth!
And all the scene, released from its restraints,
With nobler charms than when so brightly still,
Waved shadowy round; and he—the lord of all!
Shook, as a child in joy, his manly locks!

SHINN & SELLERS'

Celebrated Liver Pills again Triumphant over Disease—Spasmodic Asthma cured by their use!!

Messrs Shinn & Sellers.—You are aware that for the last six months I have been in the use of your Pills, though you may not know the complaint for which I have used them.

Some fifteen years ago, being sorely troubled with spasmodic asthma, I was relieved from it by lobelia. Last summer the complaint returned upon me with increased violence, from which I received not the least relief by the use of lobelia.

A friend persuaded me to make trial of your Pills, though, to be candid I had not much faith in them, for the reason that, from what I could discover, you had not recommended them in asthma. I was however, relieved by them. Still I had a relapse of the complaint. Again I had recourse to the Pills—and now, after a patient and persevering use of them, I feel that I am cured of 'spasmodic asthma.'

Last summer my eldest son being at Louisville, Ky., was violently seized with the prevailing sickness, congestive fever. Having recovered from it so far to return home, here however he had a violent relapse of the fever. After recovering from it, he began to feel a pain in the region of the liver, which increasing daily seemed to demand prompt attention. Suffice it to say, he was cured by the use of your Pills.

As you have requested of me a 'statement of facts' with respect to the benefit I and my son have received from your Pills, I have given it with a scrupulous regard to accuracy.

Your's, with esteem,
N RUGGLES SMITH.

In Chancery.

19th day of July, 1839.

William Hughlett, } The object of this Bill vs } is to obtain a specific
George Hearne } execution of an agreement between the parties, for the sale by the complainant to the defendant of certain real estate therein mentioned.

The Bill states that the complainant being at the time, seized in fee and possessed of a lot or lots of ground, in Greensborough, in Caroline county, whereon were erected a dwelling house, store house, or granery blacksmith shop and other valuable buildings and also of a tract or parcel of land in said county, adjacent to said village on the 22d day of September, in the year 1836, agreed with defendant to sell him the said premises upon the following terms; for the lot or lots of ground with the improvements thereon the sum of $2750, and for the tract or parcel of land at the rate or price of six dollars, which it should appear to contain upon a survey thereof to be made by the complainant and one fifth part of the whole purchase money to be paid on the first day of December then next and the residue with interest thereon to be paid in five equal annual instalments from the first day of January then next and after payment of the first instalment the complainant was to convey the said premises to the defendant and the same were then to be received by the defendant to the complainant by way of mortgage to secure the payment of the balance of the purchase money that shortly after the making of said agreement the complainant procured the said lands to be surveyed and they were found to contain the quantity of 761 acres exclusive of the lots for which the defendant had agreed to pay the gross sum of $2750, so that the whole purchase money amounts to $7316 whereof one fifth part or the sum $1463 20 became payable on the 1st day of December 1836 one fifth of the residue or $1170 56 with interest thereon from the 1st day of January 1837, became payable on the 1st of January 1838 and alike sum of $1170.56 with like interest became payable on the 1st day of January 1839, and the complainant admits he received on the 30th day of December 1836, the sum of $1000 in part of the first instalment but insists that the residue of the said instalment with the succeeding instalment are yet unpaid. That the defendant has been put into possession of the said premises and has cut down and sent to market large quantities of wood and timber which were growing on the land and the complainant apprehends the defendant will continue to cut the wood and timber now growing for the purposes of sale as aforesaid, whereby the value of the land will be greatly lessened, that the buildings on the lots, which constitute their chief value have been suffered to decay and that the defendant is greatly involved in debt, and is probably insolvent. The Bill further states that the defendant resides out of the State of Maryland.

It is thereupon ordered that the complainant by causing a copy of this order, to be inserted in some newspaper once in each of three successive weeks before the first day of September next give notice to the defendant of the object and substance of the said Bill, and warn him to appear in this court in person, or by a solicitor, on or before the 10th day of January next to answer the premises and shew cause, if any he has why a decree ought not to pass as prayed.
