aforesaid Thomas Lewis as aforesaid, and this deponent sayeth further that the post now standing in the said place he believes to be the same which was shewn him as aforesaid.

Robert Dunn. —

Simon Wickes Lessee vs Isaac Caulk } Ejectment. The Deposition of Capt. Robert Dunn aged fifty eight years who being duly sworn on the part of the Plaintiff deposeth and sayeth that the Stone now shewn by this deponent to the Sheriff and Surveyor, stands in the exact spot where a hickory tree formerly stood, which said Hickory tree, this deponent has ever since his knowledge of it, considered as standing at the end of the East or third line of New Forrest, and this deponent further sayeth that he recollects the aforesaid Hickory tree, to have stood on the aforesaid spot upwards of twenty four years ago, and this deponent further sayeth that the fences now standing on the third and home line, and now shewn by this deponent to the Sheriff and Surveyor have stood on the ground that they are now on for more than twenty four years. —

Robt. Dunn. —

Simon Wickes Lessee vs Isaac Caulk } Ejectment. The Deposition of Capt. Robert Dunn aged fifty eight years being duly sworn on the part of the Defendant deposeth and sayeth that the Sassafras stump now shewn by this deponent to the Sheriff and Surveyor and by the side which a stone marked S. W. now stands is the remains of a Sassafras tree which was shewn to this deponent by Simon Wickes the father to the plaintiff in this cause and the late John Moore as the end of the west and first line of that part of Arcadia which was sold by Michael Miller and Ann his wife to Thomas Lewis, and this deponent sayeth that he hath several times seen the aforesaid Sassafras tree run to and from as being the end of the west and first line of the land sold to Thomas Lewis as aforesaid.

Robt. Dunn. —

Simon Wickes Lessee vs Isaac Caulk. } Ejectment, The Deposition of William B. Wilmer aged twenty eight, who being duly sworn on the part of the Plaintiff deposeth and sayeth that in the Winter of Eighteen hundred & sixteen that this deponent heard Isaac Caulk say, that he cut the trees from the stumps now shewn by this deponent to the Sheriff and Surveyor which said trees except one had stood on the North side of the fence as proved by John Richardson.

Wm. B. Wilmer

Simon Wickes vs Isaac Caulk } Ejectment. The Deposition of Major James Bowers aged fifty five years, being duly sworn on the part of the defendant, deposeth & sayeth that the place where the post and stone now stands and now shewn by this deponent to the Sheriff and Surveyor is the place where a post formerly stood, which was shewn to him by Simon Wickes the father to the Plaintiff in this Cause the late John Moore and this deponents father as the beginning of a part of Arcadia sold by Michael Miller and Ann his wife to Thomas Lewis, and this deponent sayeth further that he has frequently seen the said post run from on several Surveys as the beginning of the aforesaid part of Arcadia sold to the aforesaid Thomas Lewis as aforesaid and this Deponent further sayeth, that the post now standing in the said place he believes to be the same which was shewn to him as aforesaid. —

James Bowers. —

Simon Wickes vs Isaac Caulk } Ejectment No. 2. — The deposition of Major James Bowers aged fifty five years being duly sworn on the part of the Defendant deposeth and sayeth that the Sassafras stump now shewn by this deponent to the Sheriff and Surveyor and by the side of which a stone marked S. W. now stands is the remains of a Sassafras tree which was shewn to this deponent by Simon Wickes the father to the plaintiff in this cause and the late John Moore as the end of the West and first line of that part of Arcadia which was sold by Michael Miller and Ann his wife to Thomas Lewis and this deponent sayeth that he has several times seen the aforesaid Sassafras tree run to and from on different Surveys as being the end of the West and first line of the land sold to Thomas Lewis as aforesaid.

James Bowers. —

Simon Wickes Lessee vs Isaac Caulk } Ejectment No. 3. — The deposition of Major James Bowers aged fifty five years being duly sworn on the part of the Defendant deposeth and sayeth that he recollects about forty years ago, that a number of Hickory trees stood near the place now shewn by this deponent to the Sheriff and Surveyor.

James Bowers. —

Simon Wickes Lessee vs Isaac Caulk } Ejectment No. 4. The deposition of James Bowers aged fifty five being duly sworn on the part of the Defendant deposeth and sayeth that the place now shewn by this deponent to the Sheriff and Surveyor is the place where a fence stood from the earliest recollection of this deponent until about twenty seven years ago, which said fence when this deponent first saw the same was a division fence between this deponents father and the late Joseph Wickes former Surveyor of Kent County and father of the late Simon Wickes deceased late Surveyor of Kent County, and this deponent further sayeth that about twenty seven years ago the said fence was moved to the place where a fence now stands and which this deponent has also shewn the Sheriff & Surveyor and this deponent also sayeth that the first time he came to the place from whence the said fence had been moved after the same had been moved he was in Company with the said Simon Wickes deceased and that he the said Deponent charged the said Simon Wickes deceased with having moved the said fence as aforesaid and that the said Simon Wickes deceased then said that the said fence had been moved without his directions by his Overseer while he himself was confined to the house by sickness and this deponent also sayeth that the said Simon Wickes deceased then said that he would have the fence replaced and put back to the place from whence the said fence had been moved and this deponent further sayeth that about forty years ago, he saw the said Joseph Wickes on a Survey run the East line of Arcadia, and that the said line run with the fence which then stood on the place from whence the said fence was moved as aforesaid.

James Bowers. —

Simon Wickes Lessee vs Isaac Caulk. } Ejectment No. 5. The deposition of James Bowers aged fifty five years, who being duly sworn on the part of the defendant deposeth and sayeth that the place now shewn by this deponent to the Sheriff and Surveyor is the place where a fence stood about forty years ago which said fence at that time appeared to be an old fence, and this deponent also sayeth that a fence stood and remained in the said place up to the year eighteen hundred and eighteen, and this deponent further sayeth that about forty years ago he saw the late Joseph Wickes (former Surveyor of Kent County and Grandfather of the aforesaid Simon Wickes) on a Survey run the East line of Arcadia and that the said East line of Arcadia run by and with the aforesaid fence, and this deponent also sayeth that he has seen the East line of Arcadia run on several surveys, and that the said East line of Arcadia on each survey run by and with the said fence.

James Bowers. —

Simon Wickes Lessee vs Isaac Caulk } Ejectment No. 6. The deposition of Major James Bowers aged fifty five years who, being duly sworn on the part of the Defendant deposeth and sayeth that the fence now shewn by this deponent to the Sheriff and Surveyor now stands on the ground where it stood at the time that this deponent purchased about One hundred and fifty acres of land of James Lloyd, the date of the deed from the said James Lloyd to this deponent for the said land may be ascertained by reference being had thereto, and this deponent further sayeth that the aforesaid fence stood where it now stands upwards of One year previous to the aforesaid purchase.

James Bowers. —

Simon Wickes Lessee vs Isaac Caulk } Ejectment No. 7. — The deposition of Major James Bowers aged fifty five years who being duly sworn, on the part of the defendant deposeth and sayeth that the fence now shewn by this deponent to the Sheriff and Surveyor now stands on the ground where it stood upwards of thirty years ago, this deponent sayeth further that he has seen the East line of Arcadia run on several surveys and also the second or West line of the Addition both of which said lines run by, and with the said fence shewn as aforesaid.

James Bowers. —

Simon Wickes vs Isaac Caulk. } Ejectment. The deposition of Joseph Browne 3d aged forty three years being, duly sworn on the part of the Plaintiff deposeth and sayeth that the fence now shewn to the Sheriff and Surveyor he believes stands on the same ground or in the place on which said fence has stood for thirty years and upwards past, and this deponent further sayeth that twelve or fifteen years ago he heard the late Captain John Moore declare that the land inclosed by the said John Moore's fence as a Water hole as shewn by this deponent was the property of the late Simon Wickes father of the plaintiff in this cause and that the fence on the West side of the Water hole, along up the hole was not on the line between, between the said John Moore and the said Simon Wickes.

Jos. Browne 3d. —