POETRY.

THE ALPINE FLOWERS.

BY MRS. SIGOURNEY.

Meek dwellers 'mid yon terror stricken cliffs
With brows so pure, and incense breathing lips,
Whence are ye? Did some white-wing'd messenger,
On Mercy's missions, trust your timid germ
To the cold cradle of eternal snows,
Or, breathing on the callous icicles,
Bid them with tear-drops nurse ye?
Tree nor shrub
Dare that drear atmosphere; no polar pine
Upreare a veteran front; yet there ye stand,
Leaning your cheeks against the thick-ribbed ice,
And looking up with brilliant eyes to Him
Who bids you bloom, unblanch'd, amid the waste
Of desolation. Man, who, panting, toils
O'er slippery steeps, or treads the verge
Of yawning gulfs, o'er which the headlong plunge
Into eternity, looks shuddering up,
And marks ye in your placid loveliness—
Fearless; yet frail—and, clasping his chill hands,
Blesses your pencill'd beauty. 'Mid the pomp
Of mountain summits rushing to the sky,
And, chaining the rapt soul in breathless awe,
He bows to bind you drooping to his breast,
Inhales your spirit from the frost-wing'd gale,
And frees dreams of heaven.

"Why don't you take the Papers."

BY GEORGE B. WILLIS.

Why don't you take the papers,
They are the life of my delight.'
Except about election times,
And then I read for spite.

Subscribe, you cannot loose a cent,
Depend upon my word;
For cash thus spent is money lent
On interest to the Lord.

My Grandad used to make his brags
Of living at a day,
When papers sold as cheap as rags,
And trust was took for pay.

My grandma, when she had the blues,
Would thank her gracious stars
That papers filled with wholesome news
Were scattered every WHARE.

I knew too friends, as much alike
As e'er you saw two stumps;
And no phrenologist could find
A difference in the bumps.

Each had a farm of equal worth,
A pretty wife to keep—
Three boys—three horses and a cow,
A dog and twenty sheep.

One took the papers, and his life
Is happier than a king's;
His children all can read and write,
And talk of men and things.

The other took no papers, and
While strolling through the wood,
A tree fell down upon his crown,
And killed him as it should.

Had he been reading of the 'news,'
At home, like neighbor Jim,
I'll bet a cent that accident
Would not have happened him.

Go then, and take the papers,
And pay to day, nor pray delay,
And my word heard it is inferred,
You live till you are gray.

An old newsmonger friend of mine,
While dying from a cough,
Desired to hear the latest news,
While he was going off.

I took the paper and I read
Of some new pills in force;
He bought a box—and is he dead?
No! hearty, as a horse.

I knew a printer's debtor once,
Rack'd with a scorching fever,
Who swore to pay her bill next day,
If her disease would leave her.

Next morning she was at her work,
Divested of her pain:
But did forget to pay her debt,
Till taken down again.

'Here Jesse, take these silver wheels,
Go pay the printer now!'
She spoke, she slept, and then awoke,
With health upon her brow.

Why don't you take the papers:
Nor from the printer's visage sneak,
Because you borrow of his boy,
A paper every week.

For he who takes the papers,
And pays his bill when it is due,
Can live at peace with God and man,
And with the printer too.

A Thresher Astray.

About the 20th of June last, Messrs. G & W. Smith of Newark, Del forwarded to Mr. Thos. Hanson's care of Baltimore, a thresher belonging to the subscriber's grain machine which had been sent on to them for repairs. It is a tooth machine & the thresher has no hopper with it. The said thresher has never come to hand, and it is supposed that it has been forwarded to some other gentlemen by mistake—should this advertisement meet the eye of the person having it in possession he will much oblige the owner if he will forward it to Baltimore at once, as it is much needed to the care of Emory & Stevens, Bowley's Wharf.

SHINN & SELLRS'

CELEBRATED LIVER PILLS AGAIN TRIUMPHANT OVER DISEASE—SPASMODIC ASTHMA CURED BY THEIR USE!!

Messrs. SHINN & SELLERS.—You are aware that for the last six months I have been in the use of your Pills, though you may not know the complaint for which I have used them.

Some fifteen years ago, being sorely troubled with spasmodic asthma, I was relieved from it by lobelia Last summer the complaint returned upon me with increased violence, from which I received not the least relief by the use of lobelia.

A friend persuaded me to make trial of your Pills, though, to be candid, I had not much faith in them, for the reason that, from what I could discover, you had not recommended them in asthma. I was however, relieved by them. Still I had a relapse of the complaint. Again I had recourse to the Pills—and now, after a patient and persevering use of them, I feel that I am cured of 'spasmodic asthma.'

Last summer my eldest son, being at Louisville, Ky, was violently seized with the prevailing sickness, congestive fever. Having recovered from it so far to return home; here however he had a violent relapse of the fever. After recovering from it, he began to feel a pain in the region of the liver, which increasing daily seemed to demand prompt attention. Suffice it to say, he was cured by the use of your Pills.

As you have requested of me a 'statement of facts' with respect to the benefit I and my son have received from your Pills, I have given it with a scrupulous regard to accuracy.

Your's, with esteem,
N. RUGGLES SMITH.
