POETRY.

DEVOTIONAL POETRY.

We have seldom met poetry of the same class which suited our taste better than the following stanzas, by Bishop Keble, (of England,) on the 'Forms of burial to be used at sea'—used, that is, by the sons of the Church of England—for the volume we quote from, the 'Christian Year,' is a collection of pieces explicitly adapted to all the prominent observances of that Church during the year. The reviewer of it in the New York Review expresses surprise that a book so full of good matter, although more interesting, doubtless, to one sect than to others, has not got out its first edition in America, though published five years ago, from the twenty-fifth London edition.

In this little poem, as this reviewer remarks, the allusion to the presence of the Church, as a mother, even on the deep, in the second strophe, is very touching in its beauty. And in the third, the allusion to the Meteor Cross of England, always displayed on British vessels on Sundays, is thrilling as the unfurling of the banner itself:—[U. S. Gaz.

LINES.—BY BISHOP KEBLE.

When thou passest through the waters, I will be with thee.'

The shower of moonlight falls as still and clear
Upon the desert main,
As where sweet flowers some pastoral garden
cheer,
With fragrance after rain:
The wild winds rustle in the piping shrouds,
As in the quivering trees,
Like summer fields beneath the shadowy
clouds,
The yielding waters darken in the breeze.

Thou too art here, with thy soft inland tones,
Mother of our new born birth!
The lonely ocean learns thy orisons,
And loves thy sacred mirth.
When storms are high, or when the fires of
war
Come lightning round our course,
Thou breath'st a note like music from afar
Tempering rude hearts with calm angelic force.

Far, far away, the home sick seaman's hoard
Thy fragrant tokens live;
Like flower-leaves, in a precious volume
stored,
To solace and relieve
Some heart too weary of thy restless world;
Or like thy Sabbath cross,
That o'er the brightening billow streams, unfurl'd.
Whatever gale the laboring vessel toss.

Oh, kindly soothing in high victory's hour,
Or when a comrade dies,
In whose sweet presence sorrow dares not
lower,
Nor expectation rise
Too high for earth; what mother's heart could spare
To the cold, cheerless deep,
Her flower and hope?—but thou art with him
there,
Pledge of the untir'd arm, and eye that cannot sleep.

The eye that watches o'er wild ocean's dead,
Each in his coral cave,
Fondly as if the green turf wrapt his head,
Fast by his father's grave.
One moment, and the seeds of life shall spring
Out of the waste abyss,
And happy warriors triumph with their
King,
In worlds without a sea, unchanging orbs
of bliss.

A FARM For Sale.

Will be sold at private sale, a farm containing about 300 acres of land, situated on the New London road, two miles above the Village of Newark, and about the same distance from the fine quarries. About one half of the farm is arable land, which though somewhat exhausted, could easily be put into a good state of cultivation, being of a clay soil The rest of the land is finely timbered with black oak, hickory, poplar, &c., except about 20 acres of low ground, which, at a small expense, could be made good meadow land The farm is well watered, the Christeen Creek running through it, and besides, there is a spring of excellent water in every field. The timber on the farm, if sold, would be more than sufficient pay to the purchase money Also, a SMALL FARM, containing 150 acres in Chester County, Pa., known as the Price property. If they are not sold at private sale by the 1st day of November next, they will on that day, be exposed to public sale at the house of Richard Jones, Innkeeper, in the Village of Newark.

SHINN & SELLERS'

CELEBRATED LIVER PILLS AGAIN TRIUMPHANT OVER DISEASE—SPASMODIC ASTHMA CURED BY THEIR USE!!

Messrs. SHINN & SELLERS.—You are aware that for the last six months I have been in the use of your Pills, though you may not know the complaint for which I have used them.

Some fifteen years ago, being sorely troubled with spasmodic asthma, I was relieved from it by lobelia Last summer the complaint returned upon me with increased violence, from which I received not the least relief by the use of lobelia.

A friend persuaded me to make trial of your Pills, though, to be candid, I had not much faith in them, for the reason that, from what I could discover, you had not recommended them in asthma. I was however, relieved by them. Still I had a relapse of the complaint. Again I had recourse to the Pills—and now, after a patient and persevering use of them, I feel that I am cured of 'spasmodic asthma.'

Last summer my eldest son, being at Louisville, Ky., was violently seized with the prevailing sickness, congestive fever. Having recovered from it so far to return home; here however he had a violent relapse of the fever. After recovering from it, he began to feel a pain in the region of the liver, which increasing daily seemed to demand prompt attention. Suffice it to say, he was cured by the use of your Pills.

As you have requested of me a 'statement of facts' with respect to the benefit I and my son have received from your Pills, I have given it with a scrupulous regard to accuracy.

Your's, with esteem,
N. RUGGLES SMITH.
