POETRY.

THE LETTER.

It came to the merchant—and his heart
Grew sad o'er its trembling page;
For it told of disaster, and wreck and death,
And the might of the tempest's rage!

It came to the lawyer—he broke, with a smile,
The seal, for he thought of his fee;
But alas! it told of the death of his wife,
And his little children three!

It came to the man of God—
And he hurriedly traced its lines;
It told of the death of his brother abroad,
On a mission to fiery climes!

It came to the Statesman's desk—
To the President's cabinet door;
He read of an army lately raised—
That army was now—no more!

It came to the farmers' hearth,
While his children were round him smiling,
In the joyous glee of innocent mirth—
His sorrows all beguiling—
And he turned to the sky as a hurricane sped—
And his children in harvest time murmur'd —bread!

But—it came to the maiden's bower!
As she conn'd its pleasant page,
She thought that a minute was full an hour,
And an hour seem'd an age!
For it came with the forest leaves—
With the birds of early spring—
And more—it came when the heart was fresh,
And had not known sorrowing!
And it told of her lover's truth,
And his fortunes far away—
And she counted the fleeden footed hours,
And sighed for—the happy day!

150 Dollars
REWARD.

Runaway from the subscriber on Wednesday night, the 23d inst. while at Easton, a mulatto boy named

Joe Thomas,

about 18 years of age and five feet, six inches high.

He is rather stout made with a mouth somewhat prominent and particularly so when displeased.—He is well supplied with clothing, having among his other clothes two broad cloth coats, one much worn, with a velvet collar, and the other of some fancy color with bright buttons quite new and a fur hat; but it has not yet been ascertained whether he has taken any other clothes than those worn by him, when he left home, which consisted of a round jacket and trousers with a drab overcoat, and a hair cap. He can both read and write tolerably well, and having a mother now residing in Baltimore, it is probable that he will make his way to that place. His mother's name is SOPHY.

I will give the above reward for his apprehension if taken out of the State, or $100, if taken within the state and out of the county and $50 if taken in Talbot county, in each case to be secured in the Jail at Easton.

A FARM
For Sale.

Will be sold at private sale, a farm containing about 300 acres of land, situated on the New London road, two miles above the Village of Newark, and about the same distance from the lime quarries. About one half of the farm is arable land, which though somewhat exhausted, could easily be put into a good state of cultivation, being of a clay soil. The rest of the land is finely timbered with black oak, hickory, poplar, &c., except about 40 acres of low ground, which, at a small expense, could be made good meadow land. The farm is well watered, the Christiana Creek running through it, and besides, there is a spring of excellent water in every field. The timber on the farm, if sold, would be more than sufficient pay to the purchase money. Also, a SMALL FARM, containing 150 acres, in Chester County, Pa., known as the Price property. If they are not sold at private sale by the 1st day of November next, they will, on that day, be exposed to public sale at the house of Richard Jones, Innkeeper, in the Village of Newark.

SHINN & SELLERS'

CELEBRATED LIVER PILLS AGAIN TRIUMPHANT OVER DISEASE—SPASMODIC ASTHMA CURED BY THEIR USE!!

Messrs. SHINN & SELLERS.—You are aware that for the last six months I have been in the use of your Pills, though you may not know the complaint for which I have used them.

Some fifteen years ago, being sorely troubled with spasmodic asthma, I was relieved from it by lobelia. Last summer the complaint returned upon me with increased violence, from which I received not the least relief by the use of lobelia.

A friend persuaded me to make trial of your Pills, though, to be candid, I had not much faith in them, for the reason that, from what I could discover, you had not recommended them in asthma. I was however, relieved by them. Still I had a relapse of the complaint. Again I had recourse to the Pills—and now, after a patient and persevering use of them, I feel that I am cured of 'spasmodic asthma.'

Last summer my eldest son, being at Louisville, Ky., was violently seized with the prevailing sickness, congestive fever. Having recovered from it so far to return home, here however he had a violent relapse of the fever. After recovering from it, he began to feel a pain in the region of the liver, which increasing daily seemed to demand prompt attention. Suffice it to say, he was cured by the use of your Pills.

As you have requested of me a 'statement of facts' with respect to the benefit I and my son have received from your Pills, I have given it with a scrupulous regard to accuracy.

Your's, with esteem,
N. RUGGLES SMITH.

A Thresher Astray.

About the 20th of June last, Messrs. G & W. Smith of Newark, Del forwarded to Mr. Thos. Hanson's care of Baltimore, a thresher belonging to the subscriber's grain machine which had been sent on to them for repairs. It is a tooth machine & the thresher has no hopper with it. The said thresher has never come to hand, and it is supposed that it has been forwarded to some other gentlemen by mistake—should this advertisement meet the eye of the person having it in possession he will much oblige the owner if he will forward it to Baltimore at once, as it is much needed to the care of Emory & Stevens, Bowley's Wharf.
